(a) The percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period. In the case of a class of business for which the insurer is not issuing new policies, the insurer shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate;

(b) Any adjustment, not to exceed twenty[~~fifteen~~] percent (20%)[~~(15%)~~] annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than one (1) year, due to the claims experience, mental and physical condition, including medical condition, medical history, and health service utilization, or duration of coverage of the employee, association member, or dependents as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business; and

(c) Any adjustment due to change in coverage or change in the case characteristics of the small group or association member as determined from the insurer's rate manual for the class of business.

(5)[~~(6)~~]In utilizing case characteristics, the ratio of the highest rate factor to the lowest rate factor within a class of business shall not exceed five to one (5:1). For purpose of this limitation, case characteristics include age, gender, occupation or industry, and geographic area.

(6)[~~(7)~~]Adjustments in rates for claims experience, mental and physical condition, including medical condition, medical history, and health service utilization, health status, and duration of coverage shall not be charged to an individual group member or the member's dependents. Any adjustment shall be applied uniformly to the rates charged for all individuals and dependents of the small group.

(7)[~~(8)~~]The commissioner may approve establishment of additional classes of business upon application to the commissioner and a finding by the commissioner that the additional class would enhance the efficiency and fairness for the applicable market segment.

(a) The index rate for a rating period for any class of business shall not exceed the index rate for any other class of business in that market segment by more than ten percent (10%).

(b) An insurer may establish a separate class of business only to reflect substantial differences in expected claims experience or administrative cost related to the following reasons:

1. The insurer uses more than one (1) type of system for the marketing and sale of the health benefit plans; or

2. The insurer has acquired a class of business from another insurer.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, beginning January 1, 2001, an insurer may establish a separate class of business for the purpose of separating guaranteed acceptance program qualified individuals from other individuals enrolled in their plan prior to January 1, 2001. The index rate for the separate class created under this paragraph shall be established taking into consideration expected claims experience and administrative costs of the new class of business and the previous class of business.

(8)[~~(9)~~]For the purpose of this section, a health benefit plan that utilizes a restricted provider network shall not be considered similar coverage to a health benefit plan that does not utilize a restricted provider network if utilization of the restricted provider network results in substantial differences in claims costs.

(9)[~~(10)~~] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, an insurer shall not be required to utilize the experience of those individuals with high-cost conditions who enrolled in its plans between July 15, 1995, and April 10, 1998, to develop the insurer's index rate for its individual policies.

(10)~~[(11)]~~ Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent an insurer from offering incentives to participate in a program of disease prevention or health improvement.

Section 20. KRS 304.17A-150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after July 15, 1995, it is an unfair trade practice for an insurer, agent, broker, or any other person in the business of marketing and selling health plans, to commit or perform any of the following acts:

(a) Encourage individuals or groups to refrain from filing an application for coverage with the insurer because of the individual's or group's health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location; or

(b) Encourage or direct individuals or groups to seek coverage from another insurer because of the individual's or group's health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location; or

(c) Encourage an employer to exclude an employee from coverage.

The provisions of ~~[paragraphs (a) and (b) of]~~this subsection shall not apply to information provided regarding the established geographic service area of an insurer.

(2) It is an unfair trade practice for an insurer to compensate an agent, broker, or any other person in the business of marketing and selling health plans on the basis of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the insured or prospective insured, except as provided in Sections 1 to 16 of this Act.

(3) It shall constitute an unfair trade practice for any insurer, insurance agent, or third-party administrator to refer an individual employee to the Kentucky guaranteed acceptance program or to Kentucky Access, or to arrange for an individual employee to apply to either~~[that]~~ plan, for the purpose of separating an employee from group health insurance coverage provided in connection with the individual's employment.

(4) It is an unfair trade practice for an insurer not to compute an insured's coinsurance or cost sharing on the basis of the amount actually received by a health-care provider from the insurer.

(5) The commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state of any insurer that fails to pay an assessment under Section 11 of this Act~~[KRS 304.17A-470]~~. As an alternative, the commissioner may levy a civil penalty on any member insurer that fails to pay the assessment when due. The civil penalty shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the unpaid assessment per month, but no civil penalty shall be less than one hundred dollars ($100) per month.

(6) The remedy provided by KRS 304.12-120 shall be available for conduct proscribed by this section.

Section 21. KRS 304.17A-250 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall, by administrative regulations promulgated under KRS Chapter 13A, define one (1) standard health benefit plan that shall provide health insurance coverage in the individual and small group markets after June 30, 1998. As a condition of doing business in the ~~[individual or]~~small group market in the Commonwealth, the health insurer shall offer the standard health benefit plan, but the extent to which the standard health benefit plan shall be offered on a guaranteed issue basis shall only be as provided in KRS 304.17A-200~~[and 304.17A-210]~~. As a condition of doing business in the individual market on or after January 1, 2001, a health insurer shall offer the standard health benefit plan. Except as may be necessary to coordinate with changes in federal law, the commissioner shall not alter, amend, or replace the standard health benefit plan more frequently than annually. Initially, the standard health benefit plan shall be the standard high plan in effect on April 10, 1998.

(2) The standard health benefit plan shall be available in at least one (1) of these four (4) forms of coverage:

(a) A fee-for-service product type;

(b) A health maintenance organization type;

(c) A point-of-service type; and

(d) A preferred provider organization type.

(3) The standard health benefit plan shall be defined so that it meets the requirements of KRS 304.17A-430 for inclusion in calculating assessments and refunds under the guaranteed acceptance program.

(4) Any health insurer who elects to offer health insurance policies in the individual or small group markets in this state shall, as a condition of offering health benefit plans in this state after June 30, 1998, offer and issue the standard health benefit plan in the individual or small group markets in each and every form of coverage that the health insurer offers to sell.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To require a health insurer to offer a standard health benefit plan in a form of coverage that the health insurer has not selected;

(b) To prohibit a health insurer from offering other health benefit plans in the individual or small group markets in addition to the standard health benefit plan; or

(c) To require that a standard health benefit plan have guaranteed issue, renewability, or pre-existing condition exclusion rights or provisions that are more generous to the applicant than the health insurer would be required to provide under KRS 304.17A-200, [~~304.17A-210,~~]304.17A-220, 304.17A.230, and 304.17A-240.

(6) Insurance agents licensed under this chapter who present for sale any health benefit plan in the individual or small group markets to a prospective applicant shall also inform that person of the existence of the standard benefit plan in the same form of coverages offered by the same insurer.

(7) (a) A benefits comparison shall be delivered to a prospective applicant for any health insurance coverage in the individual or small group markets at the time of initial solicitation through means that prominently direct the attention of the prospective applicant to the document and its purpose.

1. The commissioner shall prescribe a standard format, including style, arrangement, and overall appearance, and the content of a benefits comparison.

2. In the case of agent solicitations, an agent shall deliver the benefits comparison to the prospective applicant prior to the presentation of an application or enrollment form.

3. In the case of direct response solicitations, the benefits comparison shall be presented in conjunction with any application or enrollment form.

(b) The benefits comparison given to a prospective applicant shall include:

1. A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit policy being offered to the prospective applicant;

2. A statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit plan being offered to the prospective applicant; and

3. A chart providing a direct comparison of the insurer's premium rate for the standard health benefit plan offered under this section, and the health benefit policy being offered to the prospective applicant.

(c) At the time of the execution of an application for any health benefit plan, the prospective applicant shall sign a statement contained in or accompanying the application, which shall remain on file with the health insurer for five (5) years, indicating that the insured has been provided with and understands the benefits comparison required by this subsection.

(d) As used in this subsection and in subsection (6) of this section, the term "prospective applicant" refers only to a natural person who is a resident of the Commonwealth and who is purchasing health insurance coverage in the individual market providing benefits to that person, that person's spouse, or that person's children. It does not include an employer or representative of an employer who is considering health insurance coverage that would provide benefits to employees and their families.

(8) All health benefit plans shall cover hospice care at least equal to the Medicare benefits.

(9) All health benefit plans shall coordinate benefits with other health benefit plans in accordance with the guidelines for coordination of benefits prescribed by the commissioner as provided in KRS 304.18-085.

(10) Every health insurer of any kind, nonprofit hospital, medical-surgical, dental and health service corporation, health maintenance organization, or provider-sponsored health delivery network that issues or delivers an insurance policy in this state that directs or gives any incentives to insureds to obtain health care services from certain health care providers shall not imply or otherwise represent that a health care provider is a participant in or an affiliate of an approved or selected provider network unless the health care provider has agreed in writing to the representation or there is a written contract between the health care provider and the insurer or an agreement by the provider to abide by the terms for participation established by the insurer. This requirement to have written contracts shall apply whenever an insurer includes a health care provider as a part of a preferred provider network or otherwise selects, lists, or approves certain health care providers for use by the insurer's insureds. The obligation set forth in this section for an insurer to have written contracts with providers selected for use by the insurer shall not apply to emergency or out-of-area services.

(11) A self-insured plan may select any third party administrator licensed under KRS 304.9-052 to adjust or settle claims for persons covered under the self-insured plan.

(12) Any health insurer that fails to issue a premium rate quote to an individual within thirty (30) days of receiving a completed application request for the quote shall be required to issue coverage to that individual and shall not impose any pre-existing conditions exclusion on that individual with respect to the coverage. Each health insurer offering individual health insurance coverage in the individual market in the Commonwealth that refuses to issue a health benefit plan to an applicant or insured with a high-cost condition shall provide the individual with a denial letter within twenty (20) working days of the request for coverage. The letter shall include the name and title of the person making the decision, a statement setting forth the specific high-cost condition that is the basis for refusing to issue a policy, a description of the Guaranteed Acceptance Program until October 1, 2000, and the name and the telephone number of a contact person who can provide additional information about the Guaranteed Acceptance Program. On or after October 1, 2000, the denial letter shall include a description of Kentucky Access and the name and telephone number of a contact person who can provide additional information about Kentucky Access for any reason an insurer refuses to issue a policy.

(13) If a standard health benefit plan covers services that the plan's insureds lawfully obtain from health departments established under KRS Chapter 212, the health insurer shall pay the plan's established rate for those services to the health department.

(14) No individually insured person shall be required to replace an individual policy with group coverage on becoming eligible for group coverage that is not provided by an employer. In a situation where a person holding individual coverage is offered or becomes eligible for group coverage not provided by an employer, the person holding the individual coverage shall have the option of remaining individually insured, as the policyholder may decide. This shall apply in any such situation that may arise through an association, an affiliated group, the Kentucky state employee health insurance plan, or any other entity.

Section 22. KRS 304.17A-260 is amended to read as follows:

An insurer that, on or after July 15, 1995, until April 10, 1998, issued standard health benefit plans under KRS 304.17A-160 and then ceased doing business in Kentucky may apply to the commissioner on or after the effective date of this Act[~~April 10, 1998~~], until January 1, 2001[~~1999~~], for approval to reenter Kentucky, and if the commissioner grants approval the insurer may engage in the health insurance business notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 304.17A-110(1)(d) as it existed on the date the insurer ceased doing business in Kentucky.

Section 163. KRS 304.17A-320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No employer-organized association shall in this state self-insure in order to provide health benefit plans for its members unless it holds a certificate of filing from the commissioner.

(2) To qualify for a certificate of filing and to maintain a certificate of filing, the employer-organized association shall comply with the provisions of Subtitle 48 of this chapter to the extent not in conflict with the expressed provisions of this section.

(3) Each association that holds a certificate of filing from the commissioner shall be subject to the following:

(a) All assessments placed on insurers under Section 11 of this Act[~~KRS 304.17A-460~~];

(d) All data collection requirements placed on insurers under this subtitle; and

(e) Provisions of Subtitle 12 of this chapter that apply to health insurers.

(4) Each association that holds a certificate of filing from the commissioner shall notify its members that health benefit plans issued to its members through the association are not protected through the Kentucky Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association.

(5) Under the provisions of KRS 304.48-220, the commissioner may revoke the certificate of filing of any association. A violation of any provision of this section shall be deemed a violation of Subtitle 48 of this chapter for purposes of KRS 304.48-220.

Section 24. KRS 304.17A-080 is amended to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby created and established a Health Insurance Advisory Council whose duties shall be to review and discuss with the commissioner any issues which impact the provision of health insurance in the state. The advisory council shall consist of seven (7) members: the commissioner plus six (6) persons appointed by the Governor with the advice of the commissioner to serve two (2) year terms. The commissioner shall serve as chair of the advisory council.

(2) The six (6) persons appointed by the Governor with the advice of the commissioner shall be:

(a) Two (2) representatives of insurers currently offering health benefit plans in the state;

(b) Two (2) practicing health care providers; and

(c) Two (2) representatives of purchasers of health benefit plans.

(3) The council shall:

(a) Review and discuss the design of the standard health benefit plan;

(b) Review and discuss the rate-filing process for all health benefit plans;

(c) Review and discuss the administrative regulations concerning this subtitle to be promulgated by the department;

(d) Make recommendations on high-cost conditions as provided in subsection (5) of this section; and

(e) Review and discuss other issues at the request of the commissioner.

(4) The advisory council shall be a budgetary unit of the department which shall pay all of the advisory council's necessary operating expenses and shall furnish all office space, personnel, equipment, supplies, and technical or administrative services required by the advisory council in the performance of the functions established in this section.

(5) No less than annually, the Health Insurance Advisory Council shall review the list of high-cost conditions established by the commissioner under KRS 304.17A-005(19) [~~and 304.17A-280~~] and recommend changes to the commissioner. The commissioner may accept or reject any or all of the recommendations and may make whatever changes by administrative regulation the commissioner deems appropriate. The council, in making recommendations, and the commissioner, in making changes, shall consider, among other things, actual claims and losses on each diagnosis and advances in treatment of high-cost conditions.

(6) For each calendar year that the Kentucky Guaranteed Acceptance Program is operating, every insurer shall report to the commissioner and the Health Insurance Advisory Council, in the form and at the time as the commissioner by administrative regulation may specify, information that the commissioner deems necessary for the council and commissioner to evaluate the list of high-cost conditions as required under this section.

Section 25. KRS 304.17A-095 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, each insurer that issues, delivers, or renews any health benefit plan shall, before use thereof, file with the commissioner its rates, fees, dues, and other charges paid by insureds, members, enrollees, or subscribers, shall submit a copy of the filing to the Attorney General, and shall comply with the provisions of this section. The insurer shall adhere to its rates, fees, dues, and other charges as filed with the commissioner. The insurer may submit new filings from time to time as it deems proper.

(2) (a) A rate filing under this section may be used by the insurer on and after the date of filing with the commissioner prior to approval by the commissioner. A rate filing shall be approved or disapproved by the commissioner within sixty (60) days after the date of filing. Should sixty (60) days expire after the commissioner receives the filing before approval or disapproval of the filing, the filing shall be deemed approved. The commissioner may hold a hearing within sixty (60) days after receiving a filing containing a rate increase. Not less than thirty (30) days in advance of a hearing held under this section, the commissioner shall notify the Attorney General in writing of the hearing. The Attorney General may participate as a health insurance consumer intervenor and be considered a party to the hearing.

(b) The commissioner shall hold a hearing upon written request, including the reasons for the request, by the Attorney General, provided the request is in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

(c) The commissioner shall hold a hearing, unless waived by the health insurer, before ordering a retroactive reduction of rates.

(d) The hearing shall be a public hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

(e) In the circumstances of a filing that has been deemed approved under paragraph (a) of this subsection, the commissioner shall have the authority to order a retroactive reduction of rates to a reasonable rate if after applying the factors in subsection (3) of this section the commissioner determines that the rates were unreasonable. If the commissioner seeks to order a retroactive reduction of rates and more than one (1) year has passed since the date of the filing, the commissioner shall consider the reasonableness of the rate over the entire period during which the filing has been in effect.

(3) In approving or disapproving a filing under this section, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) Whether the benefits provided are reasonable in relation to the premium or fee charged;

(b) Whether the fees paid to providers for the covered services are reasonable in relation to the premium or fee charged;

(c) Previous premium rates or fees for the policies or contracts to which the filing applies;

(d) The effect of the rate or rate increase on policyholders, enrollees, and subscribers;

(e) Whether the rates, fees, dues, or other charges are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory; and

(f) The effect on the rates of any assessment made under KRS 304.17A-460 ending December 31, 2000, and beginning January 1, 2001, and Section 11 of this Act; and

(g) Other factors as deemed relevant by the commissioner.

(4) The rates for each policyholder shall be guaranteed for twelve (12) months at the rate in effect on the date of issue or date of renewal.

(5) At any time the commissioner, after a public hearing for which at least thirty (30) days' notice has been given, may withdraw approval of rates or fees previously approved under this section and may order an appropriate refund or future premium credit to policyholders, enrollees, and subscribers if the commissioner determines that the rates or fees previously approved are in violation of this chapter.

(6) Notwithstanding (2)(a) to (e) of this section, beginning January 1, 2001, premium rates may be used upon filing with the department of a policy form not previously used if the filing is accompanied by the policy form filing and a minimum loss ratio guarantee. Insurers may use the filing procedure specified in this subsection only if the affected policy forms disclose the benefit of a minimum loss ratio guarantee. An insurer may not elect to use the filing procedure in this subsection for a policy form that does not contain the minimum loss ratio guarantee. Insurers may not amend policy forms to provide for a minimum loss ratio guarantee. If an insurer elects to use the filing procedure in this subsection for a policy form or forms, the insurer shall not use a filing of premium rates that does not provide a minimum loss ratio guarantee for that policy form or forms.

(a) The minimum loss ratio shall be in writing and shall contain at least the following:

1. An actuarial memorandum specifying the expected loss ratio that complies with the standards as set forth in this subsection;

2. A statement certifying that all rates, fees, dues, and other charges are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

3. Detailed experience information concerning the policy forms;

4. A step-by-step description of the process used to develop the experience loss ratio, including demonstration with supporting data;

5. A guarantee of a specific lifetime minimum loss ratio, that shall be greater than or equal to the following, taking into consideration adjustments for duration as set forth in administrative regulations promulgated by the commissioner:

a. Seventy percent (70%) for policies issued to individuals or for certificates issued to members of an association that does not offer coverage to small employers;

b. Seventy percent (70%) for policies issued to small groups of two (2) to ten (10) employees or for certificates issued to members of an association that offers coverage to small employers; and

c. Seventy-five percent (75%) for policies issued to small groups of eleven (11) to fifty (50) employees;

6. A guarantee that the actual Kentucky loss ratio for the calendar year in which the new rates take effect, and for each year thereafter until new rates are filed, will meet or exceed the minimum loss ratio standards referred to in subparagraph 5. of this paragraph, adjusted for duration;

7. A guarantee that the actual Kentucky lifetime loss ratio shall meet or exceed the minimum loss ratio standards referred to in subparagraph 5. of this paragraph; and

8. If the annual earned premium volume in Kentucky under the particular policy form is less than two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000), the minimum loss ratio guarantee shall be based partially on the Kentucky earned premium and other credibility factors as specified by the commissioner.

(b) The actual Kentucky minimum loss ratio results for each year at issue shall be independently audited at the insurer's expense and the audit shall be filed with the commissioner not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the year at issue. The audit shall demonstrate the calculation of the actual Kentucky loss ratio in a manner prescribed as set forth in administrative regulations promulgated by the commissioner.

(c) The insurer shall refund premiums in the amount necessary to bring the actual loss ratio up to the guaranteed minimum loss ratio.

(d) A Kentucky policyholder affected by the guaranteed minimum loss ratio shall receive a portion of the premium refund relative to the premium paid by the policyholder. The refund shall be made to all Kentucky policyholders insured under the applicable policy form during the year at issue if the refund would equal ten dollars ($10) or more per policy. The refund shall include statutory interest from July 1 of the year at issue until the date of payment. Payment shall be made not later than one hundred eighty (180) days after the end of the year at issue.

(e) Premium refunds of less than ten dollars ($10) per insured shall be aggregated by the insurer and paid to the Kentucky State Treasury.

(f) None of the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall apply if premium rates are filed with the department and accompanied by a minimum loss ratio guarantee that meets the requirements of this subsection. Such filings shall be deemed approved. Each insurer paying a risk assessment under KRS 304.17A-460 may include the amount of the assessment in establishing premium rates filed with the commissioner under this section. The insurer shall identify any assessment allocated.

(g) The policy form filing of an insurer using the filing procedure with a minimum loss ratio guarantee will disclose to the enrollee, member or subscriber as prescribed by the commissioner an explanation of the lifetime loss ratio guarantee, and the actual loss ratio, and any adjustments for duration.

(h) The insurer who elects to use the filing procedure with a minimum loss ratio guarantee shall notify all policyholders of the refund calculation, the result of the refund calculation, the percent of premium on an aggregate basis to be refunded if any, any amount of the refund attributed to the payment of interests, and an explanation of amounts less than ten dollars ($10).

(7) The commissioner may by administrative regulation prescribe any additional information related to rates, fees, dues, and other charges as they relate to the factors set out in subsection (3) of this section that he or she deems necessary and relevant to be included in the filings and the form of the filings required by this section. Beginning January 1, 2001, when determining a loss ratio for the purposes of loss ratio guarantee, the insurer shall divide the total of the claims incurred, plus preferred provider organization expenses, case management and utilization review expenses, plus reinsurance premiums less reinsurance recoveries by the premiums earned less state and local premium taxes less other assessments. For purposes of determining the loss ratio for any loss ratio guarantee pursuant to this Act, the commissioner may examine the insurer's expenses for preferred provider organization, case management, utilization review, and reinsurance used by the insurer in calculating the loss ratio guarantee for reasonableness. Only those expenses found to be reasonable by the commissioner may be used by the insurer for determining the loss ratio for purposes of any loss ratio guarantee.

Section 26. KRS 304.17A-150 is amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after July 15, 1995, it is an unfair trade practice for an insurer, agent, broker, or any other person in the business of marketing and selling health plans, to commit or perform any of the following acts:

(a) Encourage individuals or groups to refrain from filing an application for coverage with the insurer because of the individual's or group's health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location; or

(b) Encourage or direct individuals or groups to seek coverage from another insurer because of the individual's or group's health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location; or

The provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall not apply to information provided regarding the established geographic service area of an insurer.

(2) It is an unfair trade practice for an insurer to compensate an agent, broker, or any other person in the business of marketing and selling health plans on the basis of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the insured or prospective insured.

(13)~~[(14)]~~ No individually insured person shall be required to replace an individual policy with group coverage on becoming eligible for group coverage that is not provided by an employer. SB 1, AN ACT relating to adult education.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 151B IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The General Assembly recognizes that many adults need significant improvement in their knowledge and skills to be full participants in Kentucky's workforce and society, to develop and maintain healthy families, and to continue their education and training as necessary throughout their lifetimes. The General Assembly also recognizes that:

(1) Adult illiteracy is a fundamental barrier to every major challenge facing Kentucky, including early childhood education, education reform, economic development, and improving the health and well-being of Kentucky's families and communities;

(2) Kentucky must be committed to addressing the low level of education of the adult population from all dimensions of state and local government, all education institutions, business and civic leaders, voluntary organizations, and all others that interact with the problem of adult illiteracy; and

(3) Kentucky must have a multi-faceted strategy to address the diverse needs of the undereducated adult population in all counties and regions of the state.

Section 2. KRS 164.003 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(a) The general welfare and material well-being of citizens of the Commonwealth depend in large measure upon the development of a well-educated and highly-trained workforce;

(b) The education and training of the current and future workforce of the Commonwealth can provide its businesses and industries with the competitive edge critical to their success in the global economy and must be improved to provide its citizens the opportunity to achieve a standard of living in excess of the national average; and

(c) The positive advancement of the welfare of the citizens of the Commonwealth through the transmission of knowledge can only be achieved by the incorporation of ethical standards, the historic American moral principles promoted by the nation's Founding Fathers, into Kentucky public instruction, state educational training, and personal development of its teachers, students, and people, and affirms President George Washington's statement in his September 19, 1796, farewell address: "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, Religion and morality are indispensable."

(2) The General Assembly declares on behalf of the people of the Commonwealth the following goals to be achieved by the year 2020:

(a) A seamless, integrated system of postsecondary education strategically planned and adequately funded to enhance economic development and quality of life;

(b) A major comprehensive research institution ranked nationally in the top twenty (20) public universities at the University of Kentucky;

(c) A premier, nationally recognized metropolitan research university at the University of Louisville;

(d) Regional universities, with at least one (1) nationally recognized program of distinction or one (1) nationally recognized applied research program, working cooperatively with other postsecondary institutions to assure statewide access to baccalaureate and master's degrees of a quality at or above the national average;

(e) A comprehensive community and technical college system with a mission that assures, in conjunction with other postsecondary institutions, access throughout the Commonwealth to a two (2) year course of general studies designed for transfer to a baccalaureate program, the training necessary to develop a workforce with the skills to meet the needs of new and existing industries, and remedial and continuing education to improve the employability of citizens; and

(f) An efficient, responsive, and coordinated system of providers[~~autonomous institutions~~] that delivers educational services to all adult citizens in quantities and of a quality that is comparable to the national average or above and significantly elevates the level of education of the adults of the Commonwealth.

(3) The achievement of these goals will lead to the development of a society with a standard of living and quality of life that meets or exceeds the national average.

(4) The achievement of these goals will only be accomplished through increased educational attainment at all levels, and contributions to the quality of elementary and secondary education shall be a central responsibility of Kentucky's postsecondary institutions.

(5) The furtherance of these goals is a lawful public purpose that can best be accomplished by a comprehensive system of postsecondary education with single points of accountability that ensure the coordination of programs and efficient use of resources.

Section 3. KRS 164.020 is amended to read as follows:

The Council on Postsecondary Education in Kentucky shall:

(1) Develop and implement the strategic agenda with the advice and counsel of the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education. The council shall provide for and direct the planning process and subsequent strategic implementation plans based on the strategic agenda as provided in KRS 164.0203;

(2) Revise the strategic agenda and strategic implementation plan with the advice and counsel of the committee as set forth in KRS 164.004;

(3) Develop a system of public accountability related to the strategic agenda by evaluating the performance and effectiveness of the state's postsecondary system. The council shall prepare a report in conjunction with the accountability reporting described in KRS 164.095, which shall be submitted to the committee, the Governor, and the General Assembly by December 1 annually. This report shall include a description of contributions by postsecondary institutions to the quality of elementary and secondary education in the Commonwealth;

(4) Review, revise, and approve the missions of the state's universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System. The Council on Postsecondary Education shall have the final authority to determine the compliance of postsecondary institutions with their academic, service, and research missions;

(5) Establish and ensure that all postsecondary institutions in Kentucky cooperatively provide for an integrated system of postsecondary education. The council shall guard against inappropriate and unnecessary conflict and duplication by promoting transferability of credits and easy access of information among institutions;

(6) Engage in analyses and research to determine the overall needs of postsecondary education and adult education in the Commonwealth;

(7) Develop plans that may be required by federal legislation. The council shall for all purposes of federal legislation relating to planning be considered the "single state agency" as that term may be used in federal legislation. When federal legislation requires additional representation on any "single state agency," the Council on Postsecondary Education shall establish advisory groups necessary to satisfy federal legislative or regulatory guidelines;

(8) Determine tuition and approve the minimum qualifications for admission to the state postsecondary educational system. In determining the tuition for non-Kentucky residents, the council shall consider the fees required of Kentucky students by institutions in adjoining states, the resident fees charged by other states, the total actual per student cost of training in the institutions for which the fees are being determined, and the ratios of Kentucky students to non-Kentucky students comprising the enrollments of the respective institutions, and other factors the council may in its sole discretion deem pertinent;

(9) Devise, establish, and periodically review and revise policies to be used in making recommendations to the Governor for consideration in developing recommendations to the General Assembly for appropriations to the universities,[~~ and~~] the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, and to support strategies for persons to maintain necessary levels of literacy throughout their lifetimes including, but not limited to, appropriations to the Department for Adult Education and Literacy. The council has sole discretion, with advice of the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education and the executive officers of the postsecondary education system, to devise policies that provide for allocation of funds among the universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System;

(10) Lead and provide staff support for the biennial budget process as provided under KRS Chapter 48, in cooperation with the committee;

(11) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, review and approve all capital construction projects covered by KRS 45.750(1)(f), including real property acquisitions, and regardless of the source of funding for projects or acquisitions. Approval of capital projects and real property acquisitions shall be on a basis consistent with the strategic agenda and the mission of the respective universities and the Kentucky Community and Technical College System.

(b) The organized groups that are establishing community college satellites as branches of existing community colleges in the counties of Laurel, Leslie, and Muhlenberg, and that have substantially obtained cash, pledges, real property, or other commitments to build the satellite at no cost to the Commonwealth, other than operating costs that shall be paid as part of the operating budget of the main community college of which the satellite is a branch, are authorized to begin construction of the satellite on or after January 1, 1998;

(12) Require reports from the executive officer of each institution it deems necessary for the effectual performance of its duties;

(13) Develop a university track program within the Kentucky Community and Technical College System consisting of sixty (60) hours of instruction that can be transferred and applied toward the requirements for a bachelor's degree at the public universities. The track shall consist of general education courses and pre-major courses as prescribed by the council. Courses in the university track program shall transfer and apply toward the requirements for graduation with a bachelor's degree at all public universities. Successful completion of the university track program shall meet the academic requirement for transfer to a public university as a junior. By fall semester of 1997, requirements for track programs shall be established for all majors and baccalaureate degree programs;

(14) Define and approve the offering of all postsecondary education technical, associate, baccalaureate, graduate, and professional degree, certificate, or diploma programs in the public postsecondary education institutions. The council shall expedite wherever possible the approval of requests from the Kentucky Community and Technical College System board of regents relating to new certificate, diploma, technical, or associate degree programs of a vocational-technical and occupational nature. Without the consent of the General Assembly, the council shall not abolish or limit the total enrollment of the general program offered at any community college to meet the goal of reasonable access throughout the Commonwealth to a two (2) year course of general studies designed for transfer to a baccalaureate program. This does not restrict or limit the authority of the council, as set forth in this section, to eliminate or make changes in individual programs within that general program;

(15) Eliminate, in its discretion, existing programs or make any changes in existing academic programs at the state's postsecondary educational institutions, taking into consideration these criteria:

(a) Consistency with the institution's mission and the strategic agenda;

(b) Alignment with the priorities in the strategic implementation plan for achieving the strategic agenda;

(c) Elimination of unnecessary duplication of programs within and among institutions; and

(d) Efforts to create cooperative programs with other institutions through traditional means, or by use of distance learning technology and electronic resources, to achieve effective and efficient program delivery;

(16) Ensure the governing board and faculty of all postsecondary education institutions are committed to providing instruction free of discrimination against students who hold political views and opinions contrary to those of the governing board and faculty;

(17) Review proposals and make recommendations to the Governor regarding the establishment of new public community colleges, technical institutions, and new four (4) year colleges;

(18) Postpone the approval of any new program at a state postsecondary educational institution, unless the institution has met its equal educational opportunity goals, as established by the council. In accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the council, those institutions not meeting the goals shall be able to obtain a temporary waiver, if the institution has made substantial progress toward meeting its equal educational opportunity goals;

(19) Ensure the coordination, transferability, and connectivity of technology among postsecondary institutions in the Commonwealth including the development and implementation of a technology plan as a component of the strategic agenda;

(20) Approve the teacher education programs in the public institutions that comply with standards established by the Education Professional Standards Board pursuant to KRS 161.028;

(21) Constitute the representative agency of the Commonwealth in all matters of postsecondary education of a general and statewide nature which are not otherwise delegated to one (1) or more institutions of postsecondary learning. The responsibility may be exercised through appropriate contractual relationships with individuals or agencies located within or without the Commonwealth. The authority includes, but is not limited to, contractual arrangements for programs of research, specialized training, and cultural enrichment;

(22) Maintain procedures for the approval of a designated receiver to provide for the maintenance of student records of the public institutions of higher education and the colleges as defined in KRS 164.945, and institutions operating pursuant to KRS 165A.310 which offer collegiate level courses for academic credit, which cease to operate. Procedures shall include assurances that, upon proper request, subject to federal and state laws and regulations, copies of student records shall be made available within a reasonable length of time for a minimum fee;

(23) Monitor and transmit a report on compliance with KRS 164.351 to the director of the Legislative Research Commission for distribution to the Health and Welfare Committee;

(24) Develop in cooperation with each state postsecondary educational institution a comprehensive orientation program for new members of the council and the governing boards. The orientation program shall include, but not be limited to, the information concerning the roles of the council, the strategic agenda and the strategic implementation plan, and the respective institution's mission, budget, plans, policies, strengths, and weaknesses;

(25) Develop a financial reporting procedure to be used by all state postsecondary education institutions to ensure uniformity of financial information available to state agencies and the public;

(29) Prepare and present by January 31 of each year an annual status report on postsecondary education in the Commonwealth to the Governor, the Strategic Committee on Postsecondary Education, and the Legislative Research Commission;

(30) Ensure that the state postsecondary system does not unnecessarily duplicate services and programs provided by private postsecondary institutions and shall promote maximum cooperation between the state postsecondary system and private postsecondary institutions;

(31) Create advisory groups representing the presidents, faculty, nonteaching staff, and students of the public postsecondary education system and the independent colleges and universities;

(32) Develop a statewide policy to promote employee and faculty development in all postsecondary institutions through the waiver of tuition for college credit coursework in the public postsecondary education system. Any regular full-time employee of a postsecondary public institution may, with prior administrative approval of the course offering institution, take a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term at any public postsecondary institution. The institution shall waive the tuition up to a maximum of six (6) credit hours per term;~~[and]~~

(33) Establish a statewide mission for adult education and develop a twenty (20) year strategy, in partnership with the Department for Adult Education and Literacy, under the provisions of Section 4 of this Act for raising the knowledge and skills of the state's adult population. The council shall:

  (a) Promote coordination of programs and responsibilities linked to the issue of adult education with the Department for Adult Education and Literacy and with other agencies and institutions;

(34) Exercise any other powers, duties, and responsibilities necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to grant the Council on Postsecondary Education authority to disestablish or eliminate any college of law which became a part of the state system of higher education through merger with a state college.

Section 4. KRS 164.0203 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In determining the cost of the program to support education excellence in Kentucky, the statewide guaranteed base funding level, as defined in KRS 157.320, shall be computed by dividing the amount appropriated for this purpose by the prior year's statewide average daily attendance.

(2) Each district shall receive an amount equal to the base funding level for each pupil in average daily attendance in the district in the previous year. Each district's base funding level shall be adjusted by the following factors:

(a) The number of at-risk students in the district. At-risk students shall be identified as those approved for the free lunch program under state and federal guidelines. The number of at-risk students shall be multiplied by a factor to be established by the General Assembly. Funds generated under this paragraph may be used to pay for:

1. Alternative programs for students who are at-risk of dropping out of school before achieving a diploma; and

2. A hazardous duty pay supplement as determined by the local board of education to the teachers who work in alternative programs with students who are violent or assaultive;

(b) The number and types of exceptional children in the district as defined by KRS 157.200. No later than October 1, 1993, specific weights for each category of exceptionality shall be developed by the Department of Education and shall be used in the calculation of the add-on factor for exceptional children. Prior to the development of the necessary weights, the General Assembly shall determine the costs associated with the education of exceptional children based on the count of pupils with different exceptionalities, an appropriate pupil-teacher ratio, and total per-pupil costs; and

(c) Transportation costs. The per-pupil cost of transportation shall be calculated as provided by KRS 157.370. No later than October 1, 1991, the Office of Education Accountability's Division of School Finance shall examine the components of the current system for allocating transportation funds, and recommend any needed changes to the General Assembly, the Governor, and the State Board for Elementary and Secondary Education. Districts which contract to furnish transportation to students attending nonpublic schools may adopt any payment formula which assures that no public school funds are used for the transportation of nonpublic students.

(3) The program to support education excellence in Kentucky shall be fully implemented by the 1994-95 school year. No district shall receive an annual increase in state funds of less than eight percent (8%) for 1990-91 and five percent (5%) in 1991-92 or more than twenty-five percent (25%) in either year.

(4) (a) Except for those schools which have implemented school-based decision making, the chief state school officer shall enforce maximum class sizes for every academic course requirement in all grades except in vocal and instrumental music, and physical education classes. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the maximum number of pupils enrolled in a class shall be as follows:

1. Twenty-four (24) in primary grades (kindergarten through third grade);
2. Twenty-eight (28) in grade four (4);
3. Twenty-nine (29) in grades five (5) and six (6);

4. Thirty-one (31) in grades seven (7) to twelve (12);

(b) Except for those schools which have implemented school-based decision making, class size loads for middle and secondary school classroom teachers shall not exceed the equivalent of one hundred fifty (150) pupil hours per day.

(c) The chief state school officer, upon approval of the Kentucky Board of Education, shall adopt administrative regulations for enforcing this provision. These administrative regulations shall include procedures for a superintendent to request an exemption from the Kentucky Board of Education when unusual circumstances warrant an increased class size for an individual class. A request for an exemption shall include specific reasons for the increased class size with a plan for reducing the class size prior to the beginning of the next school year. A district shall not receive in any one (1) year exemptions for more classes than enroll twenty percent (20%) of the pupils in the primary grades and grades four (4) through eight (8).

(d) In all schools the chief state school officer shall enforce the special education maximum class sizes set by administrative regulations adopted by the Kentucky Board of Education. A superintendent may request an exemption pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection. A local school council may request a waiver pursuant to KRS 156.160(2). An exemption or waiver shall not be granted if the increased class size will impede any exceptional child from achieving his individual education program in the least restrictive environment.

(5) In grades four (4) through six (6) with combined grades, the maximum class size shall be the average daily attendance upon which funding is appropriated for the lowest assigned grade in the class. There shall be no exceptions to the maximum class size for combined classes. In combined classes other than the primary grades, no ungraded students shall be placed in a combined class with graded students. In addition, there shall be no more than two (2) consecutive grade levels combined in any one (1) class in grades four (4) through six (6). However, this shall not apply to schools which have implemented school-based decision making.

(6) If a local school district, through its admission and release committee, determines that an appropriate program in the least restrictive environment for a particular child with a disability includes either part-time or full-time enrollment with a private school or agency within the state or a public or private agency in another state, the school district shall count as average daily attendance in a public school the time that the child is in attendance at the school or agency, contingent upon approval by the chief state school officer.

(7) Pupils attending a center for child learning and study established under an agreement pursuant to KRS 65.210 to 65.300 shall, for the purpose of calculating average daily attendance, be considered as in attendance in the school district in which the child legally resides and which is party to the agreement. For purposes of subsection (1) of this section, teachers who are actually employees of the joint or cooperative action shall be considered as employees of each school district which is a party to the agreement.

(8) Program funding shall be increased when the average daily attendance in any district for the first two (2) months of the current school year is greater than the average daily attendance of the district for the first two (2) months of the previous school year. The program funds allotted the district shall be increased by the percent of increase. The average daily attendance in kindergarten is the kindergarten full-time equivalent pupils in average daily attendance.

(9) If the average daily attendance for the current school year in any district decreases by ten percent (10%) or more than the average daily attendance for the previous school year, the average daily attendance for purposes of calculating program funding for the next school year shall be increased by an amount equal to two-thirds (2/3) of the decrease in average daily attendance. If the average daily attendance remains the same or decreases in the succeeding school year, the average daily attendance for purposes of calculating program funding for the following school year shall be increased by an amount equal to one-third (1/3) of the decrease for the first year of the decline.

(10) If the percentage of attendance of any school district shall have been reduced more than two percent (2%) during the previous school year, the program funding allotted the district for the current school year shall be increased by the difference in the percentage of attendance for the two (2) years immediately prior to the current school year less two percent (2%).

(11) (a) Instructional salaries for vocational agriculture classes shall be allotted for twelve (12) months per year. Vocational agriculture teachers shall be responsible for the following program of instruction during the time period beyond the regular school term established by the local board of education: supervision and instruction of students in agriculture experience programs; group and individual instruction of farmers and agribusinessmen; supervision of student members of agricultural organizations who are involved in leadership training or other activity required by state or federal law; or any program of vocational agriculture established by the Division of Secondary Vocational Education in the Department of Education. Salary allotments for vocational agriculture teachers shall be computed by proportionately increasing the salary schedule allocation based on the regular one hundred eighty-five (185) day school year for teachers with comparable qualifications and experience. During extended employment, no vocational agriculture teacher shall receive salary on a day that the teacher is scheduled to attend an institution of higher education class which could be credited toward meeting any certification requirement.

(b) Each teacher of agriculture employed shall submit an annual plan for summer program to the local school superintendent for approval. The summer plan shall include a list of tasks to be performed, purposes for each task, and time to be spent on each task. Approval by the local school superintendent shall be in compliance with the guidelines developed by the State Department of Education. The supervision and accountability of teachers of vocational agriculture's summer programs shall be the responsibility of the local school superintendent. The local school superintendent shall submit to the chief state school officer a completed report of summer tasks for each vocational agriculture teacher. Twenty percent (20%) of the approved vocational agriculture programs shall be audited annually by the State Department of Education to determine that the summer plan has been properly executed.

(c) For the 1990-91 and the 1991-92 school years, an add-on appropriation shall be made to local school districts which are operating secondary vocational education programs. The amount provided in the budget shall be allocated on a per pupil basis and shall be used to meet the higher per student cost of operating vocational education programs.

(12) (a) In allotting program funds for home and hospital instruction, statewide guaranteed base funding, excluding the capital outlay, shall be allotted for each child in average daily attendance in the prior school year who has been properly identified according to Kentucky Board of Education administrative regulations. Attendance shall be calculated pursuant to KRS 157.270 and shall be reported monthly on forms provided by the Department of Education; and

(2) The Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority may award scholarships, to the extent funds are available for that purpose, to persons who declare an intent to become osteopaths and practice in the Commonwealth and who are eligible under subsection (4) of this section.

(3) The authority may award scholarships to students who meet the following criteria:

(a) Kentucky residents who are United States citizens as determined by the institution in accordance with criteria established by the Council on Postsecondary Education for the purposes of admission and tuition assessment;

(b) Students who are enrolled or accepted for enrollment in an eligible program of study accredited by the Bureau of Professional Education of the American Osteopathy Association or its successor, on a full-time basis, or eligible students who have a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq., certified by a licensed physician to be unable to attend the eligible program of study full-time because of the disability;

(c) Students who agree to render one (1) year of qualified service in the Commonwealth for each year the scholarship was awarded. "Qualified service" means a full-time practice in the Commonwealth of Kentucky as a licensed doctor of osteopathy for a majority of the calendar year in the fields of family practice, general practice, general internal medicine, general pediatrics, general obstetrics, or gynecology, except that an individual having a disability defined by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. secs. 12131 et seq., whose disability, certified by another licensed physician, prevents him or her from practicing full-time, shall be deemed to perform qualified service by practicing the maximum time permitted by the attending physician; and

(d) Students who sign a promissory note as evidence of the scholarship awarded and the obligation to repay the scholarship amount or render medical service as agreed in lieu of payment.

(4) The amount of the scholarship awarded to an eligible student by the authority shall be equal to the difference between*:*

(b) The prevailing amount charged for tuition at the osteopathic school of medicine in which the student is enrolled.

(5) The authority shall require a promissory note to be executed by the student as evidence of the obligation. The recipient shall render one (1) year of qualified service for each year the scholarship was awarded. Upon completion of each year of qualified service, the authority shall cancel the appropriate number of promissory notes. Promissory notes shall be canceled by qualified service in the order in which the promissory notes were executed. Service credit shall not include residency service. In the event a recipient fails to complete an eligible program of study, or fails to render qualified medical service as a primary care physician as agreed in subsection (3) of this section, the recipient shall be liable for the total repayment of the amount of the scholarship awarded.

(6) A scholarship shall not be awarded or a promissory note cancellation shall not be granted to any person who is in default on any obligation to the authority under any program administered by the authority under KRS 164.740 to 164.785 until financial obligations to the authority are satisfied, except that ineligibility for this reason may be waived by the authority for cause.

(7) A repayment obligation imposed by this section shall not be voidable by reason of the age of the recipient at the time of executing the promissory note.

(8) Failure to meet repayment obligations imposed by this section shall be cause for the revocation of the scholarship recipient's license to practice medicine, subject to the procedures set forth in KRS Chapter 311.

(9) Notwithstanding KRS 164.753(3), the authority shall establish by administrative regulation procedures for the administration of this program, including the execution of appropriate contracts and promissory notes, cancellation of the obligation, repayment of outstanding debt, and the priority of awarding scholarships if funds are insufficient to honor all requests.

(10) Notwithstanding any other statute to the contrary, the maximum interest rate applicable to repayment of a promissory note under this section shall be twelve percent (12%) per annum, except that if a judgment is rendered to recover payment, the judgment shall bear interest at the rate of five percent (5%) greater than the rate actually charged on the promissory note.

(11) (a) The "Osteopathic Medicine Scholarship Program" is hereby created as a special trust fund in the State Treasury administered by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority for the purpose of providing funds for scholarships to eligible students studying osteopathic medicine in schools in the Commonwealth.

(b) Funding shall be transferred to the special trust fund from the coal severance tax revenues levied under KRS 143.020 in an amount that permits each Kentucky resident eligible under subsection (3) of this section to be awarded a scholarship in the amount established under subsection (4) of this section. No more than four percent (4%) of the coal severance tax revenues levied under KRS 143.020 and collected annually shall be transferred to the trust fund. To the extent this appropriation and other funds are available, the authority shall award scholarships to all renewal applicants and eligible students in accordance with the formula for determining the amount of the scholarship award established in this section.

(c) The trust fund may also receive state appropriations, gifts, and grants from public and private sources, and federal funds. Any unallotted or unencumbered balances in the trust fund shall be invested as provided in KRS 42.500(9). Income earned from the investments shall be credited to the trust fund. Any fund balance at the close of the fiscal year shall not lapse but shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year and continuously appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section. A general statement that all continuing appropriations are repealed, discontinued, or suspended shall not operate to repeal, discontinue, or suspend this fund or to repeal this section.

(12) On or before August 1 of each year, sixty-five percent (65%) of the amount of funding provided in subsection (11)(b) of this section shall be transferred to the special trust fund and the remaining thirty-five percent (35%) shall be transferred on or before December 1 of each year. The revenue transfers shall be based upon the revenue estimates prevailing at the time each transfer is due.

(13) The calculation and transfer of funds under subsection (11) of this section shall be made only after the quarterly installment of the annual nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) allocation of coal severance tax revenues has been credited to the benefit reserve fund within the Workers' Compensation Funding Commission as required by KRS 342.122.

HB 817, AN ACT relating to motor vehicles.

Section 1. KRS 186.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a perfected security interest is assigned, the assignor shall immediately give a statement of assignment to the assignee and at the same time deliver another copy of the statement to the debtor. The assignee shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, present a copy of the statement of assignment to the county clerk in whose office the security interest was noted on the certificate of title. Upon receipt of the assignment, the county clerk shall mark the same as provided in subsection (2) of KRS 355.9-405 and attach it to the title lien statement. The county clerk shall enter the assignment of the perfected security interest into the automated vehicle information system. For this service the county clerk shall collect a fee pursuant to KRS 64.012.

(2) Whenever a security interest has been discharged, other than by proceedings under KRS 355.9-501 to 355.9-507 or similar proceedings, the secured party shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, deliver a termination statement in the manner required by KRS 355.9-404 to the county clerk of the county in which the title lien statement was submitted. The secured party shall also deliver a copy of the termination statement to the debtor or the debtor's transferee. For failure to file the termination statement within the allowable time, the secured party shall be subject to the penalty provided in KRS 186.990(1)(b). Within five (5) days after the receipt of such documents, the county clerk shall note the filing in the index, in language prescribed by the cabinet, that the termination statement has been filed. Upon presentation of the owner's title showing such security interest to the county clerk where the termination statement was submitted, and with the copy of the termination statement submitted by the secured party, the clerk shall discharge the security interest by noting on such title that the termination statement has been filed and place the seal of the county clerk thereon. The clerk shall return the owner's title to the owner. The county clerk shall then file the termination statement in the place from which the title lien statement was removed. Termination statements must be retained in the clerk's files for a period of two (2) years subsequent to the date of filing such statement, at which time they may be destroyed. The fee for these services are included in the provisions of KRS 186A.190.

(3) Upon presentation of the owner's title showing such security interest to the county clerk of a county where the termination statement was not delivered, the county clerk of that county shall access the automated system to determine whether a record of termination of the security interest has been entered into the automated system by the county clerk where the termination statement was delivered by the secured party as provided in KRS 186A.210. If such record of termination has been entered into the automated system, the county clerk of the county where the termination statement was not delivered, shall note the discharge of the security interest on the certificate of title by noting that the termination statement has been delivered, the county where it was delivered, and placing the seal of the county clerk thereon and may rely on the automated system to do so. If such record of termination has not been entered into the automated system, in no case shall the county clerk of the county other than where the termination statement was delivered, make any notation upon the certificate of title that the security interest has been discharged or that a termination statement has been delivered to the county where the title lien statement was submitted.

(4) Whenever any secured party repossesses a vehicle titled in this state, for which a security interest is in existence at the time of repossession, and disposes of such vehicle pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 355, he must present, within fifteen (15) days after such disposition, an affidavit in form prescribed by the department and a termination statement or proof that such termination statement has been filed. The new owner shall pay all applicable fees for titling and transferring the vehicle to the county clerk. Upon receipt of such documents, the county clerk who issued the lien shall then omit from the title he makes application for any information relating to the security interest under which the vehicle was repossessed or any security interest subordinate thereto. However, any security interest, as shown by such title which is superior to the one under which the vehicle was repossessed, must be shown on the title issued by the clerk unless the prior secured party has discharged such security interest in such clerk's office or proof of termination is submitted in case such prior security interest was discharged in another clerk's office.

(5) Whenever any vehicle brought into this state is required to be titled in this state and such vehicle is then subject to a security interest in another state as shown by the out-of-state documents presented to the clerk, the county clerk is prohibited from processing the application for title on the vehicle unless the owner obtains from the secured party a financing statement or title lien statement and presents same to the clerk along with the fees required in KRS 186A.190. The clerk shall note the out-of-state security interest on the certificate of title. This provision does not apply to vehicles required to be registered in Kentucky under forced registration provisions under KRS 186.145.

(6) The fees provided for in this section are in addition to any state fee provided for by law.

(7) Any person violating any provision of this section or any person refusing to surrender a certificate of title registration and ownership or transfer certificate upon request of any person entitled thereto, is subject to the penalties provided in subsection (1)(b) of KRS 186.990.

(8) The county clerk is prohibited from noting any security interest on a certificate of title on any vehicle subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 186A if a certificate of title therefor is presented to him which has all the spaces provided thereon for noting security interests fully exhausted. The owner must see to it that a discharge is noted on the certificate of title for each security interest and then a duplicate title as provided for in KRS 186A.180 must be obtained from the clerk by the owner of the vehicle.

(9) Security interests in vehicles sold to or owned by residents of other states must be perfected in the state of such nonresident and repossession of the vehicle must be taken pursuant to the laws of such state, unless the vehicle is principally operated in Kentucky and is properly titled herein under KRS Chapter 186A and the security interest is authorized to be noted on the certificate of title by the county clerk under KRS Chapter 186A.

Section 2. KRS 186.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 186.020, 186.030, 186.040~~[, 186.045(2)]~~, 186.050, 186.056, 186.060, 186.110, 186.130, 186.140, 186.160, 186.170, 186.180, 186.210, 186.230, or KRS 186.655 to 186.680 shall be guilty of a violation.

(b) Any person who violates any of the provisions of Section 1 of this Act shall pay a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) for the first offense and not less than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) and not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each subsequent offense.

(2) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 138.465, 186.190, or 186.200 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(3) A person who violates the provisions of KRS 186.450(4) or (5) shall be guilty of a violation. A person who violates any of the other provisions of KRS 186.400 to 186.640 shall be guilty of a Class B misdemeanor.

(4) Any clerk or judge failing to comply with KRS 186.550(1) shall be guilty of a violation.

(5) If it appears to the satisfaction of the trial court that any offender under KRS 186.400 to 186.640 has a driver's license but in good faith failed to have same on his or her person or misplaced or lost same, the court may, in its discretion, dismiss the charges against the defendant without fine, imprisonment, or cost.

(6) Any person who steals a motor vehicle registration plate or renewal decal shall be guilty of a Class D felony. Displaying a canceled registration plate on a motor vehicle shall be prima facie evidence of guilt under this section.

(7) Any person who violates the provisions of KRS 186.1911 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(8) Any person who makes a false affidavit to secure a license plate under KRS 186.172 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(9) Any person who violates any provision of KRS 186.070 or 186.150 shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor.

(10) Any person who operates a vehicle bearing a dealer's plate upon the highways of this Commonwealth with intent to evade the motor vehicle usage tax or registration fee shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor for the first offense and a Class D felony for each subsequent offense.

(11) Any person, other than a licensed dealer or manufacturer, who procures a dealer's plate with intent to evade the motor vehicle usage tax or registration fee shall be guilty of a Class D felony.

(12) Any resident who unlawfully registers, titles, or licenses a motor vehicle in any state other than Kentucky with intent to evade the motor vehicle usage tax or the registration fee shall be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor if the amount of tax due is less than one hundred dollars ($100), or of a Class D felony if the amount of tax due is more than one hundred dollars ($100), and in addition shall be liable for all taxes so evaded with applicable interest and penalties.

HR 151, A RESOLUTION recognizing the benefits of ethanol as an effective alternative to methyl-tertiary butyl ether (MTBE) in gasoline.

WHEREAS, methyl-tertiary butyl ether (MTBE) is a chemical compound used in formulations of gasoline; and

WHEREAS, MTBE is a suspected human carcinogen and has been discovered to facilitate the movement of gasoline through water; and

WHEREAS, ethanol is an effective fuel-blending component, made from domestic grain and potentially from recycled biomass, that reduces carbon monoxide levels in today's automobile emissions by 25 percent; and

WHEREAS, ethanol is a natural cleaner that eliminates grime and rust build-up from fuel lines in engines; and

WHEREAS, the United States faces the highest oil prices in nearly a decade and ethanol reduces the demand for oil and MTBE imports and dependence on foreign suppliers; and

WHEREAS, greater use of ethanol in gasoline would establish a long-term domestic market and could add more than $6 billion to the American economy each year; and

WHEREAS, the ethanol industry contributes $37,200,000 in economic benefits to Kentucky corn producers and increased use of ethanol would benefit thousands across the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet has one of the nation's largest state managed vehicle fleets which operate on 85% ethanol and 15% gasoline; and

WHEREAS, by promoting the growth of ethanol, Kentucky is preserving its natural environment and protecting the public interest;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. Ethanol is an effective alternative to MTBE in gasoline for its environmental advantages as well as for its performance benefits.

Section 2. The United States Government and the Commonwealth are encouraged to promote ethanol and discontinue the use of MTBE in fuels.

Section 3. The Clerk of the House of Representatives is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to the President of the United States and to each member of the Congressional delegation representing the people of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 313 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The General Assembly finds and declares that:

(1) It is the responsibility of the legislature to establish public policy to improve the quality of health care to Kentuckians and to provide mechanisms for consumer protection;

(2) Proponents argue that the licensing of denturists would result in improvements to the quality of health care to Kentuckians, including better oral care, provide cost-effective alternatives for denture care services and products, and result in increased access to dental services generally; and

(3) The most prudent approach to determine whether denturists can practice without harming the public health is to establish a denturitry "pilot project" through which denturists may be provisionally licensed to practice denturitry and their practice closely monitored over a set period of time.

The House Committee Amendment No. 1 Title to SB 121 is as follows:

By amending the title to read as follows:

"AN ACT relating to dental care.".

SB 294, AN ACT relating to Medicaid reimbursement for chiropractic services.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 205.560 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The scope of medical care for which the Cabinet for Health Services undertakes to pay shall be designated and limited by regulations promulgated by the cabinet, pursuant to the provisions in this section. Within the limitations of any appropriation therefor, the provision of complete upper and lower dentures to recipients of Medical Assistance Program benefits who have their teeth removed by a dentist resulting in the total absence of teeth shall be a mandatory class in the scope of medical care. Payment to a dentist of any Medical Assistance Program benefits for complete upper and lower dentures shall only be provided on the condition of a preauthorized agreement between an authorized representative of the Medical Assistance Program and the dentist prior to the removal of the teeth. The selection of another class or other classes of medical care shall be recommended by the council to the secretary for health services after taking into consideration, among other things, the amount of federal and state funds available, the most essential needs of recipients, and the meeting of such need on a basis insuring the greatest amount of medical care as defined in KRS 205.510 consonant with the funds available, including, but not limited to, the following categories, except where the aid is for the purpose of obtaining an abortion:

(a) Hospital care, including drugs, and medical supplies and services during any period of actual hospitalization;

(b) Nursing-home care, including medical supplies and services, and drugs during confinement therein on prescription of a physician, dentist, or podiatrist;

(c) Drugs, nursing care, medical supplies, and services during the time when a recipient is not in a hospital but is under treatment and on the prescription of a physician, dentist, or podiatrist;

(d) Physician, podiatric, and dental services;

(e) Optometric services for all age groups shall be limited to prescription services, services to frames and lenses, and diagnostic services provided by an optometrist, to the extent the optometrist is licensed to perform the services and to the extent the services are covered in the ophthalmologist portion of the physician's program. Eyeglasses shall be provided only to children under age twenty-one (21);

(f) Drugs on the prescription of a physician used to prevent the rejection of transplanted organs if the patient is indigent;

(g) Nonprofit neighborhood health organizations or clinics where some or all of the medical services are provided by licensed registered nurses or by advanced medical students presently enrolled in a medical school accredited by the Association of American Medical Colleges and where the students or licensed registered nurses are under the direct supervision of a licensed physician who rotates his services in this supervisory capacity between two (2) or more of the nonprofit neighborhood health organizations or clinics specified in this paragraph;

(h) Services provided by health-care delivery networks as defined in KRS 216.900; and

(i) Services provided by midlevel health-care practitioners as defined in KRS 216.900.

(2) Payments for hospital care, nursing-home care, and drugs or other medical, ophthalmic, podiatric, and dental supplies shall be on bases which relate the amount of the payment to the cost of providing the services or supplies. It shall be one (1) of the functions of the council to make recommendations to the Cabinet for Health Services with respect to the bases for payment. In determining the rates of reimbursement for long-term-care facilities participating in the Medical Assistance Program, the Cabinet for Health Services shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, not allow the following items to be considered as a cost to the facility for purposes of reimbursement:

(a) Motor vehicles that are not owned by the facility, including motor vehicles that are registered or owned by the facility but used primarily by the owner or family members thereof;

(b) The cost of motor vehicles, including vans or trucks, used for facility business shall be allowed up to fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per facility, adjusted annually for inflation according to the increase in the consumer price index-u for the most recent twelve (12) month period, as determined by the United States Department of Labor. Medically equipped motor vehicles, vans, or trucks shall be exempt from the fifteen thousand dollar ($15,000) limitation. Costs exceeding this limit shall not be reimbursable and shall be borne by the facility. Costs for additional motor vehicles, not to exceed a total of three (3) per facility, may be approved by the Cabinet for Health Services if the facility demonstrates that each additional vehicle is necessary for the operation of the facility as required by regulations of the cabinet;

(c) Salaries paid to immediate family members of the owner or administrator, or both, of a facility, to the extent that services are not actually performed and are not a necessary function as required by regulation of the cabinet for the operation of the facility. The facility shall keep a record of all work actually performed by family members;

(d) The cost of contracts, loans, or other payments made by the facility to owners, administrators, or both, unless the payments are for services which would otherwise be necessary to the operation of the facility and the services are required by regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services. Any other payments shall be deemed part of the owner's compensation in accordance with maximum limits established by regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services. Interest paid to the facility for loans made to a third party may be used to offset allowable interest claimed by the facility;

(e) Private club memberships for owners or administrators, travel expenses for trips outside the state for owners or administrators, and other indirect payments made to the owner, unless the payments are deemed part of the owner's compensation in accordance with maximum limits established by regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services; and

(f) Payments made to related organizations supplying the facility with goods or services shall be limited to the actual cost of the goods or services to the related organization, unless it can be demonstrated that no relationship between the facility and the supplier exists. A relationship shall be considered to exist when an individual, including brothers, sisters, father, mother, aunts, uncles, and in-laws, possesses a total of five percent (5%) or more of ownership equity in the facility and the supplying business. An exception to the relationship shall exist if fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the supplier's business activity of the type carried on with the facility is transacted with persons and organizations other than the facility and its related organizations.

(3) No vendor payment shall be made unless the class and type of medical care rendered and the cost basis therefor has first been designated by regulation.

(4) The rules and regulations of the Cabinet for Health Services shall require that a written statement, including the required opinion of a physician, shall accompany any claim for reimbursement for induced premature births. This statement shall indicate the procedures used in providing the medical services.

(5) The range of medical care benefit standards provided and the quality and quantity standards and the methods for determining cost formulae for vendor payments within each category of public assistance and other recipients shall be uniform for the entire state, and shall be designated by regulation promulgated within the limitations established by the Social Security Act and federal regulations. It shall not be necessary that the amount of payments for units of services be uniform for the entire state but amounts may vary from county to county and from city to city, as well as among hospitals, based on the prevailing cost of medical care in each locale and other local economic and geographic conditions, except that insofar as allowed by applicable federal law and regulation, the maximum amounts reimbursable for similar services rendered by physicians within the same specialty of medical practice shall not vary according to the physician's place of residence or place of practice, as long as the place of practice is within the boundaries of the state.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to deprive a woman of all appropriate medical care necessary to prevent her physical death.

(7) To the extent permitted by federal law, no medical assistance recipient shall be recertified as qualifying for a level of long-term care below the recipient's current level, unless the recertification includes a physical examination conducted by a physician licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 311 or by an advanced registered nurse practitioner licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 314 and acting under the physician's supervision.

(8) If payments made to community mental health centers, established pursuant to KRS Chapter 210, for services provided to the mentally retarded exceed the actual cost of providing the service, the balance of the payments shall be used solely for the provision of other services to the mentally retarded through community mental health centers.

(9) No long-term-care facility, as defined in KRS 216.510, providing inpatient care to recipients of medical assistance under Title XIX of the Social Security Act on July 15, 1986, shall deny admission of a person to a bed certified for reimbursement under the provisions of the Medical Assistance Program solely on the basis of the person's paying status as a Medicaid recipient. No person shall be removed or discharged from any facility solely because they became eligible for participation in the Medical Assistance Program, unless the facility can demonstrate the resident or the resident's responsible party was fully notified in writing that the resident was being admitted to a bed not certified for Medicaid reimbursement. No facility may decertify a bed occupied by a Medicaid recipient or may decertify a bed that is occupied by a resident who has made application for medical assistance.

(10) Family-practice physicians practicing in geographic areas with no more than one (1) primary-care physician per five thousand (5,000) population, as reported by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, shall be reimbursed one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the standard reimbursement rate for physician services.

(11) The Cabinet for Health Services shall~~[may]~~ make payments under the Medical Assistance program for services which are within the lawful scope of practice of a chiropractor licensed pursuant to KRS Chapter 312, to the extent the Medical Assistance Program pays for the same services provided by a physician.

All investment earnings of the fund shall be credited to the fund. Provider tax revenues collected in accordance with KRS 142.301 to 142.359 shall be used to fund the provisions of KRS 216.2920 to 216.2929 and to supplement the medical assistance-related general fund appropriations for fiscal year 1994 and subsequent fiscal years. Notwithstanding the provisions of KRS 48.500 and 48.600, the MART fund shall be exempt from any state budget reduction acts.

(3) (a) Beginning in state fiscal year 2000-2001 and continuing annually thereafter,[~~(4)The "Medical Assistance Indigent Trust Fund" (MAIT) shall be established in the State Treasury for the purpose of receiving any funds transferred from the MART fund or from federal funds for the operation of the disproportionate share program established by the commissioner of Medicaid services in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of this section. (d)[~~(c)~~]Distributions to acute care and private psychiatric hospitals shall be made as follows:

1. The department shall calculate an indigent care factor for each hospital annually. The indigent care factor shall be determined by calculating the percentage of each hospital's annual indigent care costs toward the sum of the total annual indigent care costs for all hospitals within each respective pool. For purposes of this paragraph, "indigent care costs" means the hospital's inpatient and outpatient care as reported to the department multiplied by the hospital's Medicaid rate, or at a rate determined by the department in administrative regulation that, when multiplied by the hospital's reported indigent care, is equivalent to the amount that would be payable by the department under the fee-for-service Medicaid program for the hospital's total reported indigent care.

2. Each hospital's annual distribution shall be calculated by multiplying the hospital's indigent care factor by the total fund allocated to all hospitals within the respective pool under paragraph (a) of this subsection.[~~to hospitals from the MAIT fund shall be made on a quarterly basis. b. The department shall use indigent care data for services delivered from October 1, 1998, through September 30, 1999, as reported by hospitals to calculate each hospital's indigent care factor for state fiscal year 2000-2001. For state fiscal year 2001-2002 and each year thereafter, the department shall use data reported by the hospitals for indigent care services rendered for the twelve (12) month period ending June 30 of each year as reported by the hospital to the department by August 15 in calculating each hospital's indigent care factor. The hospital shall, upon request by the Cabinet for Health Services, submit any supporting documentation to verify the indigent care data submitted for the calculation of an indigent care factor and annual payment[~~2. (1) Disproportionate share funds paid to acute care hospitals and private psychiatric hospitals for state fiscal year 1999-2000 shall not exceed one hundred thirty-one million fourteen thousand nine hundred fifty dollars and thirty-one cents ($131,014,950.31). Within forty-five (45) days following the effective date of this Act, acute care hospitals shall be paid the remaining balance of disproportionate share funds available under the federal fiscal year 2000 disproportionate share cap. Payments shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Forty-six percent (46%) of the available disproportionate share funds shall be allocated to acute care hospitals having one hundred (100) or more inpatient days attributable to Medicaid patients who were hospitalized over fourteen (14) days during the period October 1, 1998, through September 30, 1999, as reported to the department. Each hospital shall receive a lump sum payment to be distributed as follows:

1. The department shall calculate the percentage that each acute care hospital's indigent care costs constitutes of the sum of total indigent care costs for all acute care hospitals in this category. For purposes of this subsection, "indigent care costs" means the hospital's inpatient and outpatient care delivered from October 1, 1998, through September 30, 1999, to persons not eligible for medical assistance with family incomes up to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the federal poverty level, as reported to the department, multiplied by the hospital's inpatient Medicaid rate.

2. Each acute care hospital's distribution shall be calculated by multiplying the acute care hospital's indigent care percentage by the total disproportionate share funds allocated to all hospitals within this group less the minimum payment adjustment required under paragraph (c) of this subsection.

(b) Fifty-four percent (54%) of the available disproportionate share funds shall be allocated to acute care hospitals having less than one hundred (100) inpatient days attributable to Medicaid patients who were hospitalized over fourteen (14) days during the period October 1, 1998, through September 30, 1999, as reported to the department.

1. The department shall calculate the percentage that each acute care hospital's indigent care costs constitutes of the sum of total indigent care costs for all acute care hospitals in this category. For purposes of this subsection, "indigent care costs" means a hospital's inpatient and outpatient care delivered from October 1, 1998, through September 30, 1999, to persons not eligible for medical assistance with family incomes up to one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the federal poverty level, as reported to the department, multiplied by the hospital's inpatient Medicaid rate.

2. Each hospital's distribution shall be calculated by multiplying the hospital's indigent care percentage by the total disproportionate share funds allocated to all hospitals within this group less the minimum payment adjustment required under paragraph (c) of this subsection.

(c) The payment made to each hospital under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be at least equal to one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) but no greater than the hospital's actual indigent care costs reported to the department for services rendered to persons who met the program requirements for eligibility from July, 1999, through March, 2000, that were not reimbursed under the disproportionate share program.

(2) If federal law governing disproportionate share hospital payments changes, the Department for Medicaid Services shall have authority to promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to comply with the changes.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 216B IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if the Federal Health Care Financing Administration issues a final regulation establishing an outpatient Medicare prospective payment system for hospitals that requires that an outpatient health facility operated by the hospital be under the same license as the hospital to achieve provider-based status, the cabinet shall, at the hospital's request, issue a new license to a hospital that owns and operates an existing or newly established outpatient health facility that lists each location operated by the hospital.

(2) Any outpatient health facility listed on the hospital's license under subsection (1) of this section shall:

(a) Comply with the applicable licensure regulations that pertain to the type of health services provided; and

(b) Prior to the establishment of a health facility, the operation of a health facility, or the provision of health services or the addition of a health service at a location other than the hospital's main campus, obtain a certificate of need if a certificate of need would otherwise be required in the absence of subsection (1) of this section. Licensure of the outpatient health facility or service under the same license as the hospital pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not eliminate the requirement for a certificate of need.

Section 5. Whereas the burden of uncompensated and undercompensated care is increasing on a daily basis upon hospitals in the Commonwealth and the financial viability of hospitals is at stake, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act takes effect upon its passage and approval by the Governor or upon its otherwise becoming a law.

(2) If the person convicted of any offense named in subsection (1) of this section is not the holder of a license, the cabinet shall deny the person so convicted a license for the same period of time as though he had possessed a license which had been revoked. (3) The cabinet upon receiving a record of the conviction of any person upon a charge of operating a motor vehicle while the license of that person is denied or suspended, or revoked, or while his privilege to operate a motor vehicle is withdrawn, shall immediately extend the period of the first denial, suspension, revocation, or withdrawal for an additional like period.

If the person fails to satisfactorily complete the education or treatment program or violates the restrictions on his operator's license, the cabinet shall immediately revoke his operator's license for a period of six (6) months.

Floor Amendment No. 22 to SJR 57, by Representative Riner:

On page 1, by deleting all whereas clauses on page 1 in their entirety; and

By deleting page 2, 3 and 4 in their entirety; and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"WHEREAS, in the Preamble to Kentucky's Constitution, the Framers acknowledged Almighty God as the source of the peoples' liberty and invoked His blessings on the citizens of the Commonwealth:

> "We, the people of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, grateful to Almighty God for the civil, political and religious liberties we enjoy, and invoking the continuance of these blessings, do ordain and establish this Constitution"; and

WHEREAS, in 1992, the Kentucky General Assembly enacted KRS 158.195 to prevent the censorship or suppression of the official Acts of Congress or the writings and speeches of America's Founders and Presidents which contain references to God or the Bible; and

WHEREAS, the Ten Commandments appear over the bench where the United States Supreme Court Justices sit, thus showing the source from whence our laws and the governmental power of the state are derived; and

WHEREAS, America's colonial governments adopted the Ten Commandments not as an object of worship or an icon, but as the basis for their civil and criminal law, as illustrated on April 3, 1644, when the New Haven Colony Charter was adopted establishing that: "the judicial laws of God, as they were delivered by Moses be a rule to all the courts in this jurisdiction"; and

WHEREAS, when signing the Declaration of Independence on August 2, 1776, Samuel Adams, the "Father of the Revolution," emphasized its Biblical presuppositions:

> "We have this day restored the Sovereign to whom all men ought to be obedient. He reigns in heaven and from the rising to the setting of the sun, let His kingdom come"; and

WHEREAS, on August 20, 1789, Congressman Fisher Ames from Massachusetts proposed the wording of the First Amendment which was adopted by the House of Representatives in the first session of the Congress of the United States; and his writings clearly demonstrate that the Framers never intended the First Amendment to be so interpreted as to remove the Bible from public school classrooms:

> "We are spending less time in the classroom on the Bible which should be the principal text in our schools . . . ."; and

WHEREAS, in a letter dated August 18, 1790, President George Washington wrote to the Hebrew Congregation in Newport, Rhode Island, "All possess alike liberty of conscience and immunities of citizenship. . . . May the children of the stock of Abraham, who dwell in this land, continue to merit and enjoy the good will of the other inhabitants; while every one shall sit in safety under his own vine and fig tree, and there shall be none to make him afraid"; and

WHEREAS, in his "Farewell Address" of September 19, 1796, President George Washington pointed out the connection between the faith of the Nation and its political prosperity when he declared:

> "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. . . ."; and

WHEREAS, acknowledging the Bible as an integral part of the fabric of our society, on September 11, 1777, the Continental Congress adopted a resolution to import 20,000 Bibles from Holland and Scotland, as the colonies were at war with England; and

WHEREAS, on May 29, 1845, the day before his death, President Andrew Jackson stated:

> "My lamp of life is nearly out, and the last glimmer has come. I am ready to depart when called. The Bible is true. The principles and statutes of that Holy Book have been the rule of my life, and I have tried to conform to its spirit as nearly as possible. Upon that sacred volume I rest my hope for eternal salvation, through the merits and blood of our blessed Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ"; and

WHEREAS, President John Quincy Adams, the sixth President of the United States, wrote concerning the civil function of the Mosaic law:

> "The law given from Sinai was a civil and municipal as well as a moral and religious code; it contained many statutes . . . of universal application -- laws essential to the existence of men in society and most of which have been enacted by every nation which ever professed any code of laws"; and

WHEREAS, in a June, 1778 letter to her son, John Quincy Adams, Abigail Adams reinforced noble values and a sense of ultimate accountability to God which she believed to be the foundation of true greatness:

> "Great learning and superior abilities, should you ever possess them, will be of little value and small estimation, unless virtue, honor, truth, and integrity are added to them. Adhere to those religious sentiments and principles which were early instilled into your mind, and remember that you are accountable to your Maker for all your words and actions"; and

WHEREAS, on February 29, 1892, the United States Supreme Court, in a unanimous decision which has never been overruled, cited sixty-six organic authorities which show the Bible's singular influence on America:

> "There is no dissonance in these declarations. There is a universal language pervading them all, having one meaning; they affirm and reaffirm that this is a religious nation. These are not individual sayings, declarations of private persons; they are organic utterances; they speak the voice of the entire group. These authorities were collected to support the historical conclusion that: 'no purpose of action against religion can be imputed any legislation, state or nation, because this is a religious people. This is historically true. From the discovery of this continent to the present hour, there is a single voice making this affirmation . . . we find everywhere a clear recognition of the same truth . . . this is a Christian nation' "; and

WHEREAS, on May 7, 1911, President Woodrow Wilson, addressing the Tercentenary Celebration of the Translation of the Bible into the English Language, stated:

> "Moreover, the Bible does what is so invaluable in human life -- it classifies moral values. It apprises us that men are not judged according to their wits, but according to their characters -- that the last of every man's reputation is his truthfulness, his squaring his conduct with the standards that he knew to be the standards of purity and rectitude. How many a man we appraise, ladies and gentlemen, as great today whom we do not admire as noble! A man may have great power and small character"; and

WHEREAS, President Woodrow Wilson's letter to the soldiers and sailors of the United States during World War I, recorded in the Congressional Record, advised them:

> "The Bible is the word of life. I beg that you will read it and find this out for yourselves -- read not little snatches here and there, but long passages that will really be the road to the heart of it. You will find it full of real men and women not only, but also of things you have wondered about and been troubled about all your life, as men have been always; and the more you read, the more it will become plain to you what things are worthwhile and what are not, what things make men happy -- loyalty, right dealings, speaking the truth, readiness to give everything for what they think their duty, and, most of all, the wish that they may have the real approval of the Christ, who gave everything for them -- and the things that are guaranteed to make men unhappy -- selfishness, cowardice, greed, and everything that is low and mean. When you have read the Bible, you will know that it is the Word of God, because you will have found it the key to your own heart, your own happiness, and your own duty"; and

WHEREAS, in his book, "Sources of Power," President Jimmy Carter acknowledged the importance of the Mosaic law as a foundation:

> "As we face changes and challenges, we need to hold on to the things that don't change, the foundations on which we can build our lives despite the uncertainty and danger of the future. God's law is the greatest of these foundations"; and

WHEREAS, in his February 22, 1990 proclamation designating 1990 as The International Year of Bible Reading, President George Bush declared:

> "The Bible has had a critical impact upon the development of Western civilization. Western literature, art, and music are filled with images and ideas that can be traced to its pages. More important, our moral tradition has been shaped by the laws and teachings it contains. It was a biblical view of man -- one affirming the dignity and worth of the human person, made in the image of our Creator -- that inspired the principles upon which the United States is founded. President Jackson called the Bible 'the rock on which our Republic rests' because he knew that it shaped the Founding Fathers' concept of individual liberty and their vision of a free and just society. The Bible has not only influenced the development of our Nation's values and institutions, but also enriched the daily lives of millions of men and women who have looked to it for comfort, hope, and guidance. On the American frontier, the Bible was often the only book a family owned. For those pioneers living far from any church or school, it served both as a source of religious instruction and as the primary text from which children learned to read. The historic speeches of Abraham Lincoln and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., provide compelling evidence of the role Scripture played in shaping the struggle against slavery and discrimination. Today the Bible continues to give courage and direction to those who seek truth and righteousness. In recognizing its enduring value, we recall the words of the prophet Isaiah, who declared, 'The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever.' Containing revelations of God's intervention in human history, the Bible offers moving testimony to His love for mankind. Treasuring the Bible as a source of knowledge and inspiration, President Abraham Lincoln called this Great Book 'the best gift God has given to man.' President Lincoln believed that the Bible not only reveals the infinite goodness of our Creator, but also reminds us of our worth as individuals and our responsibilities toward one another";

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. The Kentucky Department of Education, with assistance as necessary by the Legislative Research Commission, shall electronically transmit KRS 158.195 and this resolution to all public school teachers in the Commonwealth.

Section 2. Documents depicting the Ten Commandments may be posted in classrooms by any public school teacher and on other public property, when incorporated into an historical display along with other historic documents as described in KRS 158.195. The purpose of the display shall not be to advance religion, but to advance the important secular purpose of illustrating how the Bible and the Ten Commandments have influenced the faith, morals, and character of American leaders who, in turn, have shaped American law, public policy, and institutions. For that reason, the General Assembly expresses no preference as to which version of the Ten Commandments is displayed or whether the display is in English, Hebrew, or a foreign language being taught in the classroom. To advance the secular purpose of making citizens of the Commonwealth more knowledgeable concerning the founding of America, the intent of the nation's Founders, and the formative influence of the Bible and the Ten Commandments on American leaders, institutions, and law, a copy of this resolution shall be made a prominent part of any historic display on public property which includes any depiction of the Ten Commandments.

Section 3. No fiscal court, city council, or school board shall mandate the posting of any historical displays set forth in KRS 158.195 which incorporate a depiction of the Ten Commandments until that governing body first sets forth by resolution or policy its secular purpose for erecting the historical display. This historical display shall not advance religion.

Section 4. Each historical display which incorporates a depiction of the Ten Commandments shall be accompanied by clearly legible copies of this resolution and of KRS 158.195; and the cost of posting and maintaining the displays may be paid for by voluntary private contributions.

Section 5. The Legislative Research Commission shall remit a sufficient number of copies of this resolution to the Department for Local Government for distribution by the department, in the manner it deems most efficient, to all elected officials of each city and county of the Commonwealth.

Section 6. The Legislative Research Commission shall remit a sufficient number of copies of this resolution to the Secretary of State for distribution by the Secretary of State, in the manner he deems most efficient, to the statewide elected officials of the Commonwealth.

Section 7. The General Assembly finds the Ten Commandments to be the precedent legal code of the Commonwealth which has provided the foundation for many of the civil and criminal statutes enacted into law throughout the history of the Commonwealth.

Section 8. The Department for Facilities Management shall relocate the monument inscribed with the Ten Commandments which was displayed on the Capitol grounds for nearly three decades to a permanent site on the Capitol grounds near Kentucky's floral clock to be made a part of a historical and cultural display which shall include the display of this resolution in order to remind Kentuckians of the Biblical foundations of the laws of the Commonwealth."

(12) No person shall make a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money to another person to contribute to a candidate, committee, contributing organization, or anyone on their behalf. No candidate, committee, contributing organization, nor anyone on their behalf shall accept a contribution made by one (1) person who has received a payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money from another person to contribute to a candidate, committee, contributing organization, or anyone on their behalf.

(19)[~~(20)~~] A candidate, slate of candidates, or a campaign committee may solicit and accept contributions after the date of a primary election, runoff primary election, regular election, or special election to defray necessary expenses that arise after the date of the election associated with election contests, recounts, and recanvasses of a specific election, complaints regarding alleged campaign finance violations that are filed with the registry pertaining to a specific election, or other legal actions pertaining to a specific election to which a candidate, slate of candidates, or campaign committee is a party. Reports of contributions received and expenditures made after the date of the specific election shall be made in accordance with KRS 121.180.

(20)[~~(21)~~] No slate of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor or their immediate families shall loan any money, service, or other thing of value to their campaign, and all moneys, services, or other things of value which are loaned shall be deemed a contribution, which may not be recovered by the slate of candidates, except to the extent of a combined total of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(22)[~~(23)~~] Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the ability of a corporation to administer its permanent committee insofar as its actions can be deemed not to influence an election as prohibited by KRS 121.025.

[~~(24) In addition to the prohibitions set forth in this section, no slate of candidates shall accept any contribution during the twenty-eight (28) days immediately preceding a primary or regular election except as provided in KRS 121A.030(5).~~]

(23)[~~(25)~~] No candidate, slate of candidates, or committee, nor anyone on their behalf, shall solicit a contribution of money or services from a state employee, whether or not the employee is covered by the classified service provisions of KRS Chapter 18A. However, it shall not be a violation of this subsection for a state employee to receive a solicitation directed to him as a registered voter in an identified precinct as part of an overall plan to contact voters not identified as state employees.

(24)[~~(26)~~] (a) A candidate for elective public office, except slates of candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, shall not accept contributions from permanent committees which, in the aggregate, exceed fifty percent (50%) of the total contributions accepted by the candidate in any one (1) election or ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in any one (1) election, whichever is the greater amount. The percentage of the total contributions or dollar amounts of contributions accepted by a candidate in an election that is accepted from permanent committees shall be calculated as of the day of each election. Funds in a candidate's campaign account which are carried forward from one (1) election to another shall not be considered in calculating the acceptable percentage or dollar amount of contributions which may be accepted from permanent committees for the election for which the funds are carried forward. No entity which is excluded from the definition of "campaign committee" established in KRS 121.015(3)(a) shall be required to register as a committee with the registry. The name of the committee shall reasonably identify to the public the sponsorship and purpose of the committee. The forms filed with the registry shall require the registrant to clearly identify the specific purpose, sponsorship, and source from which the committee originates; and the registry shall refuse to allow filing by any committee until this requirement has been satisfied.

(2) Any person who acts as a fundraiser by directly soliciting contributions for an election campaign of a candidate or slate of candidates for statewide-elected state office or an office in a jurisdiction containing in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) residents shall register with the registry when he raises in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in any one (1) election for the campaign committee by filing official notice giving his name, address, occupation, employer or, if he is self-employed, the name under which he is doing business, and all candidates or slates of candidates for whom he is soliciting on forms prescribed by the registry. In case of the death, resignation, or removal of a campaign treasurer for a permanent committee or executive committee, the chairman of the permanent committee or executive committee shall, within three (3) days after receiving notice of the vacancy by certified mail, appoint a successor as treasurer for the committee and file the name and address of the successor with the registry. The chairman of the permanent committee or executive committee shall be accountable as the treasurer for the committee if the chairman fails to meet this filing requirement.

(4) The chairman of a committee and the campaign treasurer shall be separate persons.

(5) Any federally-registered out-of-state permanent committee that contributes to a Kentucky candidate shall:

(a) File with the registry a copy of its federal registration (Federal Election Commission Form 1 - Committee Registration Form);

For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing preelection campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (l)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(b) Any candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee shall be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports required by subsections (3) and (4) of this section ~~[or KRS 121A.020(5), whichever is applicable]~~, if the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman files a form prescribed and furnished by the registry stating that currently no contributions have been received and that contributions will not be accepted or expended in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in any one (1) election. For a candidate for judicial office who desires to be exempt from filing any campaign finance reports as provided in this paragraph, the request for exemption shall be filed by the campaign treasurer of the candidate's campaign committee, but the candidate shall be personally liable for any violation if the campaign treasurer accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the limit and shall be subject to the same penalties as a candidate as provided in subparagraph (l)1. or 2. of this subsection. A separate form shall be required for each primary, runoff primary, regular, or special election in which the candidate or slate of candidates participates or in which the public question appears on the ballot, unless the candidate, slate of candidates, or political issues committee chairman indicates on a request for exemption that the request will be applicable to more than one (1) election. The form shall be filed with the same office with which a candidate or slate of candidates files nomination papers or, in the case of a political issues committee, with the registry.

(c) For a primary election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than the deadline for filing nomination papers and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. For a runoff primary election, a slate of candidates shall file its request for exemption not later than five (5) days after the date of the preceding primary election and shall be bound by its terms unless rescinded in writing not later than ten (10) days after the date of the preceding primary election. For a regular election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file or rescind in writing a request for exemption not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date of the preceding primary election, or runoff primary, if one is held, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection. For a special election, a candidate or slate of candidates shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the candidate or slate of candidates is nominated for a special election and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than twenty-five (25) days after the date on which the nomination for a special election is made. A political issues committee chairman shall file a request for exemption not later than ten (10) days after the date on which the committee registers with the registry and shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the date on which the request for exemption is filed.

(d) 1. A candidate or slate of candidates that revokes a request for exemption in a timely manner may exercise the remaining option or may file all reports required of a candidate intending to raise or spend in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) in an election. If a candidate or slate of candidates elects to exercise a different option, the candidate or slate of candidates shall file the appropriate form with the officer who received the filing papers of the candidate or slate of candidates not later than the deadline for filing a revocation.

2. A candidate for any city or county office or for any school board office, who is exempted from some or all campaign finance reporting requirements pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection but who accepts contributions or makes expenditures in excess of the exempted amount in an election, shall file all applicable reports required for the remainder of that election, based upon the amount of contributions or expenditures the candidate accepts or receives in that election. The filing of applicable required reports by a candidate after the exempted amount is exceeded shall serve as notice to the registry that the initial exemption has been rescinded. No further notice to the registry shall be required and no penalty for exceeding the initial exempted amount shall be imposed against the candidate, except for failure to file applicable reports required after the exempted amount is exceeded.

(e) Any candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline and that intends to execute a request for exemption shall file the appropriate request for exemption not later than the filing deadline and, except as provided in subparagraph 2. of paragraph (d) of this subsection, shall be bound by its terms unless it is rescinded in writing not later than fifteen (15) days after the filing deadline. A candidate or slate of candidates that is covered by this paragraph shall have the same reversion rights as those provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection.

(f) Any candidate or slate of candidates that will appear on the ballot in a regular election that has signed either request for exemption for that election may exercise the reversion rights provided in subparagraph 1. of paragraph (d) of this subsection if a candidate or slate of candidates that is subject to an August filing deadline subsequently files in opposition to the candidate or slate of candidates. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the commissioner's finding of the level of competition existing as of the date of the report compared to the level of competition as of the date of the effective date of this section, any significant efficiencies that have been created as a result of the leasing of the provider network, whether any additional products have been offered to consumers, and whether the leasing of the network has prevented or impeded the formation or operation of other network or plans, or resulted in reimbursement charges paid to providers being charged above competitive levels, to any recommendations for any modifications necessary to achieve or maintain a competitive marketplace. (1) The General Assembly finds that the health insurance market will become more competitive if a statewide provider network is available to insurers, and that leasing the provider network developed for Kentucky Access under subsection (17) of Section 4 of this Act under the criteria set forth in this section will result in a competitive marketplace that creates significant efficiencies in which consumers will have the benefit of high quality, cost-effective health care and additional choices of risk-takers and products. Although the criteria set forth in this section may in some circumstances result in certain anticompetitive effects, the General Assembly finds that it has taken the necessary steps to assure that any such anticompetitive acts shall not prevent or impede the formation or operation of other networks or plans or result in payments to providers that exceed competitive levels.

(2) The department may perform any actions that may be necessary and proper to lease the provider network developed for Kentucky Access under subsection (17) of Section 4 of this Act only to the organizations that meet the following criteria, to the satisfaction of the department, including, but not limited to, the following:

(d) The organization agrees to submit information to the department under KRS 304.17A-330;

(e) The organization agrees to submit information to the department regarding the applicant's operation and financial condition. The frequency, content, and form of the reports shall be determined by the department;

(j) The organization agrees to abide by the quality improvement policies and procedures agreed to between the participating provider network and the department;

(k) The organization agrees to conduct utilization review activities in accordance with applicable state law and abide by the policies and procedures agreed to between the participating provider network and the department;

(o) The organization agrees to continue abiding by the terms of the lease agreement after its termination for purposes of assuring continuity of care to members, as required by statute and the specific terms of the lease;

(p) The organization agrees to bear all costs in providing provider network directories to the applicant's members;

(q) The organization agrees to designate a management employee responsible for assuring compliance with the terms of the lease agreement and responsible for the resolution of any issues with either the department or a member of the participating provider network;

(r) If the organization is a self-funded plan not otherwise regulated by the department, it agrees to abide by and be subject to all of the applicable laws and regulations required for insurers issuing health benefit plans and pays the assessments on insurers as set forth in Section 11 of this Act;

(s) The organization agrees to any other actions required by the department as may be necessary and proper for the execution of the lease agreement and to achieve the objectives of the legislature as set forth in subsection (1) of this section; and

(6) An insurer that leases the network created under subsection (17) of Section 4 of this Act may utilize another network to provide a health benefit plan product different from that offered through the network created under subsection (17) of Section 4 of this Act.

(7) In no event shall the commissioner lease the network to an entity if the total membership accessing the network exceeds two hundred fifty thousand (250,000) members, excluding members of any self-funded plan offered to employees of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. If there are applicants with membership that in the aggregate exceeds the capacity requirements set forth in this subsection, the commissioner shall accept the applications based upon the order in which the applications were completely filed with the department.

(8) On or before January 1, 2002, and every two years thereafter, the commissioner shall report to the members of the General Assembly his or her findings regarding the economic impact of the leasing of the provider network developed under subsection (17) of Section 4 of this Act. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the commissioner's finding of the level of competition existing as of the date of the report compared to the level of competition as of the date of the effective date of this section, any significant efficiencies that have been created as a result of the leasing of the provider network, whether any additional products have been offered to consumers, and whether the leasing of the network has prevented or impeded the formation or operation of other network or plans, or resulted in reimbursement charges paid to providers being charged above competitive levels, to any recommendations for any modifications necessary to achieve or maintain a competitive marketplace. In developing the report, the commissioner shall consider the findings and recommendations of the Health Insurance Advisory Council and any other interested parties.

(9) The commissioner shall not enter into any lease arrangement under which an insurer would lease only a portion of the network created under subsection (17) of Section 4 of this Act.", and by renumbering subsequent sections accordingly; and

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 83A.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each ordinance shall embrace only one (1) subject and shall have a title that shall clearly state the subject.

(2) Each ordinance shall be introduced in writing and shall have an enacting clause styled "Be it ordained by the City of ...."

(3) No ordinance shall be amended by reference to its title only, and ordinances to amend shall set out in full the amended ordinance or section indicating any words being added by a single solid line drawn underneath them, and any words being deleted by a single broken line drawn through them.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, no ordinance shall be enacted until it has been read on two (2) separate days. The reading of an ordinance may be satisfied by stating the title and reading a summary rather than the full text.

(5) A city legislative body may adopt the provisions of any local, statewide, or nationally recognized standard code and codifications of entire bodies of local legislation by an ordinance that identifies the subject matter by title, source, and date and incorporates the adopted provisions by reference without setting them out in full, if a copy accompanies the adopting ordinance and is made a part of the permanent records of the city.

(6) Unless otherwise provided by statute, a majority of a legislative body shall constitute a quorum and a vote of a majority of a quorum shall be sufficient to take action.

(7) In an emergency, upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the membership, a city legislative body may suspend the requirements of second reading and publication to provide for an ordinance to become effective by naming and describing the emergency in the ordinance. Publication requirements of subsection (9) of this section shall be complied with within ten (10) days of the enactment of the emergency ordinance.

(8) Every action of the city legislative body shall be made a part of the permanent records of the city and on passage of an ordinance the vote of each member of the city legislative body shall be entered on the official record of the meeting. The legislative body shall provide by ordinance for the maintenance and safekeeping of the permanent records of the city. All ordinances adopted in a city shall, at the end of each month, be indexed and maintained in the following manner:

(b) All other city ordinances shall be kept in the minute book or an ordinance book in the order adopted and indexed in a composite index or maintained in a code of ordinances.

(9) Except in cities of the first class, a charter county government, and as provided in subsection (7) of this section, no ordinance shall be effective until published pursuant to KRS Chapter 424. Ordinances may be published in full or in summary as designated by the legislative body. If the legislative body elects to publish an ordinance in summary, the summary shall be~~[prepared and]~~ certified by the city legislative body~~[an attorney licensed to practice law in the Commonwealth of Kentucky]~~ and shall include the following:

(a) The title of the ordinance;

(b) A brief narrative setting forth the main points of the ordinance in a way reasonably calculated to inform the public in a clear and understandable manner of the meaning of the ordinance; and

(c) The full text of each section that imposes fines, penalties, forfeitures, taxes, or fees.

Ordinances that include descriptions of real property may include a sketch, drawing, or map, including common landmarks, such as streets or roads in lieu of metes and bounds descriptions.

(10) A city may specify by ordinance additional requirements for adoption of ordinances in greater detail than contained herein, but a city shall not lessen or reduce the substantial requirements of this section or any other statute relating to adoption of ordinances.

(11) At least once every five (5) years, each city shall cause all ordinances in the composite index or code of ordinances to be examined for consistency with state law and with one another and to be revised to eliminate redundant, obsolete, inconsistent, and invalid provisions.

(12) The legislative body may adopt municipal orders. Orders shall be in writing and may be adopted only at an official meeting. Orders may be amended by a subsequent municipal order or ordinance. All orders adopted shall be maintained in an official order book.

(13) In lieu of an ordinance, a municipal order may be used for matters relating to the internal operation and functions of the municipality and to appoint or remove or approve appointment or removal of members of boards, commissions, and other agencies over which the city has control.

(14) All ordinances, and orders of the city may be proved by the signature of the city clerk; and when the ordinances are placed in a printed composite index or code of ordinances by authority of the city, the printed copy shall be received in evidence by any state court without further proof of the ordinances.

(15) For anything said in debate, legislative body members shall be entitled to the same immunities and protections allowed to members of the General Assembly.

SB 130, AN ACT relating to volunteer fire department aid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 95A.262 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall, in cooperation with the Cabinet for Health Services, develop and implement a continuing program to inoculate every paid and volunteer firefighter in Kentucky against hepatitis B. The program shall be funded from revenues allocated to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund pursuant to KRS 136.392 and 42.190. Any fire department which has inoculated its personnel during the period of July 1, 1991 to July 14, 1992, shall be reimbursed from these revenues for its costs incurred up to the amount allowed by the Cabinet for Human Resources for hepatitis B inoculations.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section and KRS 61.316, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall allot on an annual basis a share of the funds accruing to and appropriated for volunteer fire department aid to volunteer fire departments in cities of all classes, fire protection districts organized pursuant to KRS Chapter 75, county districts established under authority of KRS 67.083, and volunteer fire departments created as nonprofit corporations pursuant to KRS Chapter 273. The commission shall allot eight thousand dollars ($8,000)[~~six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500)~~] annually to each qualifying department, and beginning on July 1 of 2001[~~1999~~], the commission shall allot eight thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($8,250)[~~seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500)~~] annually to each qualifying department and shall award an amount greater than eight thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($8,250) if sufficient funds are available. Any qualifying department which fails to participate satisfactorily in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system as described in KRS 304.13-380 shall forfeit annually five hundred dollars ($500) of its allotment. The commission shall recommend to the commissioner of the Department of Housing, Buildings and Construction the promulgation of administrative regulations in accordance with the provisions of KRS Chapter 13A to define satisfactory participation in the Kentucky fire incident reporting system. Administrative regulations for determining qualifications shall be based on the number of both paid firefighters and volunteer firemen within a volunteer fire department, the amount of equipment, housing facilities available, and such other matters or standards as will best effect the purposes of the volunteer fire department aid law. A qualifying department shall include at least twelve (12) firefighters, a chief, and at least one (1) operational fire apparatus or one (1) on order. Fifty percent (50%) of the firefighters shall have completed at least one half (1/2) of one hundred fifty (150) training hours toward certification within the first six (6) months of the first year of the department's application for certification, and there shall be a plan to complete the one hundred fifty (150) training hours within the second year. These personnel, equipment, and training requirements shall not be made more stringent by the promulgation of administrative regulations. No allotment shall exceed the total value of the funds, equipment, lands, and buildings made available to the local fire units from any source whatever for the year in which the allotment is made. A portion of the funds provided for above may be used to purchase group or blanket health insurance and shall be used to purchase workers' compensation insurance, and the remaining funds shall be distributed as set forth in this section.

(3) There shall be allotted two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund that shall be allocated each fiscal year of the biennium to the firefighters training center fund, which is hereby created and established, for the purposes of constructing new or upgrading existing training centers for firefighters. If any moneys in the training center fund remain uncommitted, unobligated, or unexpended at the close of the first fiscal year of the biennium, then such moneys shall be carried forward to the second fiscal year of the biennium, and shall be reallocated to and for the use of the training center fund, in addition to the second fiscal year's allocation of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Prior to funding any project pursuant to this subsection, a proposed project shall be approved by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education as provided in subsection (4) of this section and shall comply with state laws applicable to capital construction projects.

(4) Applications for funding low-interest loans and firefighters' training centers shall be submitted to the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education for their recommendation, approval, disapproval, or modification. The commission shall review applications periodically, and shall, subject to funds available, recommend which applications shall be funded and at what levels, together with any terms and conditions the commission deems necessary.

(5) Any department or entity eligible for and receiving funding pursuant to this section shall have a minimum of fifty percent (50%) of its personnel certified as recognized by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education.

(6) Upon the written request of any department, the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education shall make available a certified training program in a county of which such department is located.

(7) The amount of reimbursement for any given year for costs incurred by the department for administering these funds, including, but not limited to the expenses and costs of commission operations, shall be determined by the commission and shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the total amount of moneys accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund which are allotted for the purposes specified in this section during any fiscal year.

(8) The commission shall withhold from the general distribution of funds under subsection (2) of this section an amount which it deems sufficient to reimburse volunteer fire departments for equipment lost or damaged beyond repair due to hazardous material incidents.

(9) Moneys withheld pursuant to subsection (8) of this section shall be distributed only under the following terms and conditions:

(a) A volunteer fire department has lost or damaged beyond repair items of personal protective clothing or equipment due to that equipment having been lost or damaged as a result of an incident in which a hazardous material (as defined in any state or federal statute or regulation) was the causative agent of the loss;

(b) The volunteer fire department has made application in writing to the commission for reimbursement in a manner approved by the commission and the loss and the circumstances thereof have been verified by the commission;

(c) The loss of or damage to the equipment has not been reimbursed by the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident or by any other person;

(d) The commission has determined that the volunteer fire department does not have the fiscal resources to replace the equipment;

(e) The commission has determined that the equipment sought to be replaced is immediately necessary to protect the lives of the volunteer firefighters of the fire department;

(f) The fire department has agreed in writing to subrogate all claims for and rights to reimbursement for the lost or damaged equipment to the Commonwealth to the extent that the Commonwealth provides reimbursement to the department; and

(g) The department has shown to the satisfaction of the commission that it has made reasonable attempts to secure reimbursement for its losses from the person responsible for the hazardous materials incident and has been unsuccessful in the effort.

(10) If a volunteer fire department has met all of the requirements of subsection (9) of this section, the commission may authorize a reimbursement of equipment losses not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or the actual amount of the loss, whichever is less.

(11) Moneys which have been withheld during any fiscal year which remain unexpended at the end of the fiscal year shall be distributed in the normal manner required by subsection (2) of this section during the following fiscal year.

(12) No volunteer fire department may receive funding for equipment losses more than once during any fiscal year.

(13) The commission shall make reasonable efforts to secure reimbursement from the responsible party for any moneys awarded to a fire department pursuant to this section.

(14) There shall be allotted each year of the 1992-93 biennium one million dollars ($1,000,000), and each year of the 1994-95, 1996-97, 1998-99, and 2000-01 bienniums one million dollars ($1,000,000) of the insurance premium surcharge proceeds accruing to the Firefighters Foundation Program fund for the purpose of creating a revolving low-interest loan fund, which shall thereafter be self-sufficient and derive its operating revenues from principal and interest payments. The commission, in accordance with the procedures in subsection (4) of this section, may make low-interest loans, and the interest thereon shall not exceed three percent (3%) annually or the amount needed to sustain operating expenses of the loan fund, whichever is less, to volunteer fire departments for the purposes of major equipment purchases and facility construction. Loans shall be made to departments which achieve the training standards necessary to qualify for volunteer fire department aid allotted pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, and which do not have other sources of funds at rates which are favorable given their financial resources. The proceeds of loan payments shall be returned to the loan fund for the purpose of providing future loans. If a department does not make scheduled loan payments, the commission may withhold any grants payable to the department pursuant to subsection (2) of this section until the department is current on its payments. Money in the low-interest loan fund shall be used only for the purposes specified in this subsection. Any funds remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall be carried forward to the next fiscal year for the purposes of the fund.

However, this exception shall not apply to county license fees enacted for the first time, or increased, on or after January 1, 2000. This provision shall expire July 15, 2002, unless otherwise extended by the General Assembly.

(2) Any license fee or tax imposed by a city, county, or urban-county government upon an insurance company with respect to life insurance policies, may be based upon the first year's premiums, and if so based, shall be applied to the amount of the premiums actually collected within each calendar quarter upon the lives of persons residing within the corporate limits of the city, county, or urban-county government.

(3) Any license fee or tax imposed by a city, county, or urban-county government upon any insurance company with respect to any policy which is not a life insurance policy shall be based upon the premiums actually collected by the company within each calendar quarter on risks located within the corporate limits of the city, county, or urban-county government on those classes of business which the company is authorized to transact, less all premiums returned to policyholders. In determining the amount of license fee or tax to be collected and to be paid to the city, county, or urban-county government, the insurance company shall use the tax rate effective on the first day of the policy term. When an insurance company collects a premium as a result of a change in the policy during the policy term, the tax rate used shall be the rate in effect on the effective date of the policy change. With respect to premiums returned to policyholders, the license fee or tax shall be returned by the insurance company to the policyholder pro rata on the unexpired amount of the premium at the same rate at which it was collected and shall be taken as a credit by the insurance company on its next quarterly report to the city, county, or urban-county government. Any license fee or tax imposed upon premium receipts shall not include premiums received for insuring employers against liability for personal injuries to their employees, or the death of their employees, caused thereby, under the provisions of the Workers' Compensation Act.

(4) The Department of Insurance shall, by administrative regulation, provide for a reasonable collection fee to be retained by the insurance company or its agent as compensation for collecting the tax, except that the collection fee shall not be more than fifteen percent (15%) of the fee or tax collected and remitted to the city, county or urban-county government or two percent (2%) of the premiums subject to the tax, whichever is less. To facilitate computation, collection, and remittance of the fee or tax and collection fee provided in this section, the fees or taxes set out in subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section, together with the collection fee in this section, may be rounded off to the nearest dollar amount.

(5) Pursuant to KRS 304.3-270, if any other state retaliates against any Kentucky domiciliary insurer because of the requirements of this section, the commissioner of insurance shall impose an equal tax upon the premiums written in this state by insurers domiciled in the other state.

(6) Accounting and reporting procedures for collection and reporting of the fees or taxes and the collection fee herein provided shall be determined by administrative regulations promulgated by the Department of Insurance.

(7) Upon written request of the legislative body of any city, county, or urban-county government, at the expense of the requesting city, county, or urban-county government, which shall be paid in advance by the city, county, or urban-county government to the Department of Insurance, the Department of Insurance shall examine, or cause to be examined by contract with qualified auditors, the books or records of the insurance companies or agents subject to the fee or tax to determine whether the fee or tax is being properly collected and remitted, and the findings of the examination shall be reported to the city, county, or urban-county government. Willful failure to properly collect and remit the fee or tax imposed by a city, county, or urban-county government pursuant to the authority granted by this section shall constitute grounds for the revocation of the license issued to an insurance company or agent under the provisions of KRS Chapter 304.

(8) The license fees or taxes provided for by subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall be due thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar quarter. Annually, by March 31, each insurer shall furnish each city, county, or urban-county government, to which the tax or fee is remitted, with a breakdown of all collections in the preceding calendar year for the following categories of insurance:

(a) Casualty;

(b) Automobile;

(c) Inland marine;

(d) Fire and allied perils;

(e) Health; and

(f) Life.

(9) Any license fee or tax not paid on or before the due date shall bear interest at the tax interest rate as defined in KRS 131.010(6) from the date due until paid. Such interest payable to the city, county, or urban-county government is separate of penalties provided for in subsection (7) of this section. No city, county, or urban-county government may impose any penalties other than those provided for in this subsection.

(10) No license fee or tax imposed under this section shall apply to premiums received on policies of group health insurance provided for state employees under KRS 18A.225 and KRS 42.800 to 42.825.

(11) No county may impose the tax authorized by this section upon the premiums received on policies issued to public service companies which pay ad valorem taxes.

(12) (a) Insurance companies which pay license fees or taxes pursuant to this section shall credit city license fees or taxes against the same license fees or taxes levied by the county, when the license fees or taxes are levied by the county on or after July 13, 1990.

(b) If a county imposed and collected the license fee or tax authorized by this section before July 1, 2000, then insurance companies that pay license fees or taxes under this section shall not credit against the county license fee or tax that portion of a city license fee or tax that becomes effective for the first time on or after July 1, 2000, or is increased effective on or after July 1, 2000. The provisions of this paragraph shall expire on June 30, 2002, unless extended by the General Assembly.

3. Transfer the assets to an official liquidator or rehabilitator according to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) The deed of trust may provide that income, earnings, dividends, or interest accumulations of the assets of the fund may be paid over to the United States manager of the U.S. branch upon request, provided that the total trusteed assets shall not thereby be less than the amount required to be maintained under Section 4 of this Act.

(6) Upon withdrawal of trusteed assets deposited in another state in which the insurer is authorized to do business, it shall be sufficient if the deed of trust requires similar written approval of the insurance supervising official of that state in lieu of approval of the commissioner, provided that the total trusteed assets shall not thereby be less than the amount required to be maintained under Section 4 of this Act. In all cases, the U.S. branch shall notify the commissioner in writing of the nature and extent of the withdrawal.

(7) The commissioner may from time to time:

(a) Make examinations of the trusteed assets of any authorized U.S. branch at the insurer's expense; and

(b) Require the trustee or trustees to file a statement, in the form the commissioner prescribes, certifying the assets of the trust fund and the amounts thereof.

(8) Refusal or neglect of any trustee to comply with the foregoing requirements shall be grounds for the revocation of the insurer's certificate of authority or the liquidation of its United States branch.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 50 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In addition to other requirements of this subtitle, every authorized U.S. branch shall, not later than the first day of March in each year and forty-five (45) days after the end of the first three (3) calendar year quarters, file with the commissioner and with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners:

(a) Annual and quarterly statements of the business transacted within the United States and the assets held by or for it within the United States for the protection of policyholders and creditors within the United States, and of the liabilities incurred against these assets. The forms shall not contain any statement in regard to its assets and business elsewhere. The statements shall be in the same format required of an insurer domiciled in the U.S. branch's state of entry state and authorized to write the same kinds of insurance; and

(b) A statement of trusteed surplus, in the form the commissioner prescribes, as of the end of the same period covered by the statement filed under this subsection. The aggregate value of the insurer's general state deposits and trusteed assets deposited with a trustee in compliance with Section 5 of this Act, plus accrued investment income thereon where the interest is collected by the states for trustees, less the aggregate net amount of all of its reserves and other liabilities in the United States as determined in accordance with this section shall be known as its "trusteed surplus" in the United States. In determining the net amount of the U.S. branch's liabilities in the United States to be reported in the statement of trusteed surplus, the U.S. branch shall make adjustments to total liabilities reported on the accompanying annual or quarterly statement as follows:

1. Add back liabilities used to offset admitted assets reported in the accompanying quarterly or annual statement; and a. Unearned premiums on agent's balances or uncollected premiums not more than ninety (90) days past due;

2. Deduct:

b. Reinsurance on losses with authorized insurers, less unpaid reinsurance premiums;

c. Reinsurance recoverables on paid losses from unauthorized insurers that are included as an asset in the annual statement, but only to the extent a liability for such unauthorized recoverables is included in the liabilities report in the trusteed surplus statement;

d. Special state deposits held for the exclusive benefit for policyholders, or policyholders and creditors, of any particular state not exceeding net liabilities reports for that state;

e. Secured accrued retrospective premiums;

f. If a life insurer, the amount of its policy loans to policyholders within the United States not exceeding the amount of legal reserve required on each policy, and the net amount of uncollected and deferred premiums; and

g. Any other nontrusteed asset which the commissioner determines secures liabilities in a substantially similar manner; and

(c) Any additional information that the commissioner may require relating to the total business or assets, or any portion thereof, of the alien insurer.

(2) The annual statement and trusteed surplus statement shall be signed and verified by the United States manager, attorney-in-fact, or a duly empowered assistant United States manager, of the U.S. branch. The items of securities and other property held under trust deeds shall be certified in the trusteed surplus statement by the United States trustee or trustees.

(3) Every report on examination of a U.S. branch shall include a trusteed surplus statement as of the date of examination in addition to the general statement of the financial condition of the U.S. branch.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 50 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Before issuing any new or renewal certificate of authority to any U.S. branch, the commissioner may require satisfactory proof, either in the alien insurer's charter or by an agreement evidenced by a duly certified resolution of its board of directors, or otherwise as the commissioner may require, that the insurer will not engage in any insurance business in contravention of the provisions of this section or not authorized by its charter.

(2) The commissioner shall issue a renewal certificate of authority to any U.S. branch if satisfied, by all proof as required, that the insurer is not delinquent with respect to any requirement imposed by this subtitle and that its continuance in business in Kentucky will not be hazardous or prejudicial to the best interests of the people of Kentucky.

(3) No U.S. branch shall be authorized to do in Kentucky any kind of insurance business, or any combination of kinds of insurance business, which are not permitted to be done by domestic insurers authorized under the provisions of this chapter.

(4) Except as otherwise specifically provided, no U.S. branch, entering through Kentucky or another state, shall be or continue to be authorized to do an insurance business in Kentucky if it fails to comply substantially with any requirement or limitation of this subtitle, applicable to similar domestic insurers hereafter organized, which in the judgment of the commissioner is reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the policyholders.

(5) No U.S. branch which does outside of Kentucky any kind or combination of kinds of insurance business not permitted to be done in Kentucky by similar domestic insurers hereafter organized, shall be or continue to be authorized to do an insurance business in Kentucky, unless in the judgment of the commissioner the doing of this kind or combination of kinds of insurance business will not be prejudicial to the best interests of the people of Kentucky.

(6) No U.S. branch shall be or continue to be authorized to do an insurance business in Kentucky if it fails to keep full and correct entries of transactions, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of persons invested by law with the rights of inspection and be maintained in its principal office within Kentucky.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 50 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Whenever it appears to the commissioner from any annual or quarterly statement, trusteed surplus statement, or any other report, that a U.S. branch's trusteed surplus is reduced below minimum capital and surplus or the authorized control level risk-based capital, whichever is greater, that are required to be maintained by a domestic insurer authorized to transact the same kinds of insurance, the commissioner may proceed against the insurer under Subtitle 33 of this chapter as an insurer whose condition is such that its further transaction of business in the United States will be hazardous to its policyholders, its creditors, or the public in the United States.

The House Committee Substitute No. 1 to SB 289 is as follows:

SB 289, AN ACT relating to alien insurers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

(b) Establishing a trust account, under a trust agreement approved by the commissioner with a U.S. bank approved by the commissioner, in an amount at least equal to the minimum capital and surplus or authorized control level risk-based capital, whichever is greater, required to be maintained by a domestic insurer authorized to do the same kind of insurance.

(2) Before authorizing the entry through Kentucky of a U.S. branch of any alien insurer, the commissioner shall require the alien insurer, in addition to the requirements of Section 5 of this Act and any other requirement of this chapter:

(a) To submit a copy of its charter and bylaws, if any, currently in force, and all other documents necessary to show the kinds of business which it is empowered to do in its domiciliary jurisdiction, attested to as accurate and complete by the insurance supervisory official in its home jurisdiction, and a full statement, subscribed and affirmed as true under the penalties of perjury by two (2) officers or equivalent responsible representatives in the manner as the commissioner shall prescribe, of its financial conditions as of the close of its latest fiscal year, showing its assets, liabilities, income disbursements, business transacted and other facts required to be shown in its annual statement, as reported to the insurance supervisory official in its home jurisdiction; an English language translation, as necessary, of any of the documents required in this paragraph; and

(b) To submit to an examination of the insurer's affairs at its principal office within the United States. However, the commissioner may instead accept a report of the insurance supervisory official of the insurer's home jurisdiction.

The assets in the trust account shall be known as "trusteed assets" and shall at all times be in an amount equal to the U.S. branch's reserves and other liabilities plus the minimum capital and surplus or authorized control level risk-based capital, whichever is greater, required to be maintained by a domestic insurer authorized to do the same kind of insurance.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 50 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The deed of trust and all amendments thereto shall be authenticated in the form and manner the commissioner prescribes and shall not be effective unless approved by the commissioner upon a finding that:

(a) A deed of trust or its amendments are sufficient in form and in conformity with law;

(b) The trustee or trustees are eligible to serve; and

(c) The deed of trust is adequate to protect the interests of the beneficiaries of the trust.

(2) If at any time the commissioner finds, after reasonable notice and hearing, that the requisites for the approval no longer exist, the commissioner may withdraw approval.

(3) The commissioner may, from time to time, approve modifications of, or variations in, any deed of trust, which in the commissioner's judgment are not prejudicial to the interests of the people of Kentucky or the United States policyholders and creditors of the U.S. branch.

(f) Require that the trust shall be for the exclusive benefit, security, and protection of the policyholders, or policyholders and creditors, of the U.S. branch in the United States and that it shall be maintained as long as there is outstanding any liability of the alien insurer arising out of its insurance transactions in the United States; and

(g) Provide, in substance, that no withdrawals of assets, other than income as specified in subsection (5) of this section shall be made or permitted by the trustee or trustees without the approval of the commissioner except to:

1. Make deposits required by law in any state for the security or benefit of all policyholders, or policyholders and creditors, of the U.S. branch in the United States;

2. Substitute other assets permitted by law and at least equal in value and quality to those withdrawn, upon the specific written direction of the United States manager when duly empowered and acting according to either general or specific written authority previously given or delegated by the board of directors; or

(5) The deed of trust may provide that income, earnings, dividends, or interest accumulations of the assets of the fund may be paid over to the United States manager of the U.S. branch upon request, provided that the total trusteed assets shall not thereby be less than the amount required to be maintained under Section 4 of this Act.

(6) Upon withdrawal of trusteed assets deposited in another state in which the insurer is authorized to do business, it shall be sufficient if the deed of trust requires similar written approval of the insurance supervising official of that state in lieu of approval of the commissioner, provided that the total trusteed assets shall not thereby be less than the amount required to be maintained under Section 4 of this Act. In all cases, the U.S. branch shall notify the commissioner in writing of the nature and extent of the withdrawal.

(7) The commissioner may from time to time:

- (a) Make examinations of the trusteed assets of any authorized U.S. branch at the insurer's expense; and
- (b) Require the trustee or trustees to file a statement, in the form the commissioner prescribes, certifying the assets of the trust fund and the amounts thereof.

(8) Refusal or neglect of any trustee to comply with the foregoing requirements shall be grounds for the revocation of the insurer's certificate of authority or the liquidation of its United States branch.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 50 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In addition to other requirements of this subtitle, every authorized U.S. branch shall, not later than the first day of March in each year and forty-five (45) days after the end of the first three (3) calendar year quarters, file with the commissioner and with the National Association of Insurance Commissioners:

(3) Every report on examination of a U.S. branch shall include a trusteed surplus statement as of the date of examination in addition to the general statement of the financial condition of the U.S. branch.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF SUBTITLE 50 OF KRS CHAPTER 304 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Before issuing any new or renewal certificate of authority to any U.S. branch, the commissioner may require satisfactory proof, either in the alien insurer's charter or by an agreement evidenced by a duly certified resolution of its board of directors, or otherwise as the commissioner may require, that the insurer will not engage in any insurance business in contravention of the provisions of this section or not authorized by its charter.

(2) The commissioner shall issue a renewal certificate of authority to any U.S. branch if satisfied, by all proof as required, that the insurer is not delinquent with respect to any requirement imposed by this subtitle and that its continuance in business in Kentucky will not be hazardous or prejudicial to the best interests of the people of Kentucky.

(3) No U.S. branch shall be authorized to do in Kentucky any kind of insurance business, or any combination of kinds of insurance business, which are not permitted to be done by domestic insurers authorized under the provisions of this chapter.

(4) Except as otherwise specifically provided, no U.S. branch, entering through Kentucky or another state, shall be or continue to be authorized to do an insurance business in Kentucky if it fails to comply substantially with any requirement or limitation of this subtitle, applicable to similar domestic insurers hereafter organized, which in the judgment of the commissioner is reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the policyholders.

(5) No U.S. branch which does outside of Kentucky any kind or combination of kinds of insurance business not permitted to be done in Kentucky by similar domestic insurers hereafter organized, shall be or continue to be authorized to do an insurance business in Kentucky, unless in the judgment of the commissioner the doing of this kind or combination of kinds of insurance business will not be prejudicial to the best interests of the people of Kentucky.

(6) No U.S. branch shall be or continue to be authorized to do an insurance business in Kentucky if it fails to keep full and correct entries of transactions, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of persons invested by law with the rights of inspection and be maintained in its principal office within Kentucky.

(a) Not in compliance with the standards listed in its approved plan; or

(b) Prior to filing or receiving approval of its plan;

the commissioner may require the health maintenance organization to retain additional reserves to cover the risk transferred.

Section 4. KRS 304.33-430 is amended to read as follows:

The order of distribution of claims from the insurer's estate shall be as stated in this section. The first fifty dollars ($50) of the amount allowed on each claim in the classes under subsections (3)[~~(2)~~] to (7)[~~(6)~~], inclusive, of this section, shall be deducted from the claim and included in the class under subsection (9)[~~(8)~~] of this section. Claims may not be cumulated by assignment to avoid application of the fifty dollars ($50) deductible provision. Subject to the fifty dollars ($50) deductible provision, every claim in each class shall be paid in full or adequate funds retained for the payment before the members of the next class receive any payment. No subclasses shall be established within any class. No claim by a shareholder, policyholder, or other creditor shall be permitted to circumvent the priority classes through the use of equitable remedies.

(1) Administration costs. The costs and expenses of administration, including but not limited to the following: the actual and necessary costs of preserving or recovering the assets of the insurer; compensation for all services rendered in the liquidation; any necessary filing fees; the fees and mileage payable to witnesses; and reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) Health maintenance organization out-of-network claims. In a liquidation of a health maintenance organization, any claims for health plan benefits for out-of-network claims that would have otherwise been covered.

(3) Loss and unearned premium claims. Claims by policyholders, beneficiaries, and insureds arising from and within the coverage of and not in excess of the applicable limits of insurance policies and insurance contracts issued by the company, and liability claims against insureds which claims are within the coverage of and not in excess of the applicable limits of insurance policies and insurance contracts issued by the company, and claims of guaranty associations or foreign guaranty associations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following claims shall be excluded from Class 2 priority:

(a) Obligations of the insolvent insurer arising out of reinsurance contracts;

(b) Obligations incurred after the expiration date of the insurance policy or after the policy has been replaced by the insured or canceled at the insured's request or after the policy has been canceled as provided in this chapter. Notwithstanding this subsection, earned premium claims on policies, other than reinsurance agreements, shall not be excluded;

(c) Obligations to insurers, insurance pools, or underwriting associations and their claims for contribution, indemnity or subrogation, equitable or otherwise;

(d) Any claim which is in excess of any applicable limits provided in the insurance policy issued by the insolvent insurer;

(e) Any amount accrued as punitive or exemplary damages unless expressly covered under the terms of the policy; and

(f) Tort claims of any kind against the insurer, and claims against the insurer for bad faith or wrongful settlement practices.

(4)~~[(3)]~~Claims of the federal government other than those claims included in Class 2.

(5)~~[(4)]~~Wages.

(a) Debts due to employees for services performed, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) to each employee which have been earned within one (1) year before the filing of the petition for liquidation. Officers shall not be entitled to the benefit of this priority.

(b) This priority shall be in lieu of any other similar priority authorized by law as to wages or compensation of employees.

(6)~~[(5)]~~Residual classification. All other claims including claims of the federal or any state or local government, not falling within other classes under this section. Claims, including those of any governmental body, for a penalty or forfeiture, shall be allowed in this class only to the extent of the pecuniary loss sustained from the act, transaction, or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose, with reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby. The remainder of such claims shall be postponed to the class of claims under subsection (9)~~[(8)]~~ of this section.

(7)~~[(6)]~~Judgments. Claims based solely on judgments. If a claimant files a claim and bases it both on the judgment and on the underlying facts, the claim shall be considered by the liquidator who shall give the judgment such weight as he deems appropriate. The claim as allowed shall receive the priority it would receive in the absence of the judgment. If the judgment is larger than the allowance on the underlying claim, the remaining portion of the judgment shall be treated as if it were a claim based solely on a judgment.

(8)~~[(7)]~~Interest on claims already paid. Interest at the legal rate compounded annually on all claims in the classes under subsections (1) to (7)~~[(6)]~~ of this section, inclusive, from the date of the petition for liquidation or the date on which the claim becomes due, whichever is later, until the date on which the dividend is declared. The liquidator, with the approval of the court may make reasonable classifications of claims for purposes of computing interest, may make approximate computations and may ignore certain classifications and time periods as de minimis.

(9)~~[(8)]~~Miscellaneous subordinated claims. The remaining claims or portions of claims not already paid, with interest as in subsection (8)~~[(7)]~~ of this section:

(a) The first fifty dollars ($50) of each claim in the classes under subsections (2) to (7)~~[(6)]~~, inclusive, of this section, subordinated under this section;

(b) Claims under subsection (2) of KRS 304.33-380;

(f) Claims or portions of claims, payment of which is provided by other benefits or advantages recovered or recoverable by the claimant.

(10)~~[(9)]~~ Preferred ownership claims. Surplus or contribution notes, or similar obligations, and premium refunds on assessable policies. Interest at the legal rate shall be added to each claim, as in subsections (8)~~[(7)]~~ and (9)~~[(8)]~~ of this section.

(11)[~~(10)~~] Proprietary claims. The claims of shareholders or other owners.

Section 5. KRS 304.33-360 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Deadline for filing. Proof of all claims must be filed with the court in the form required by KRS 304.33-370 on or before the last day for filing specified in the notice required under KRS 304.33-250, except that proof of preferred ownership claims and proprietary claims under subsections (9)[~~(8)~~] and (10)[~~(9)~~] of KRS 304.33-430, need not be filed at all, and proof of claims for unearned premiums and claims for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance and annuities need not be filed unless the liquidator expressly so requires.

(2) Excused late filings. For good cause shown, the liquidator shall recommend, and the court shall permit, a claimant making a late filing to share in dividends, whether past or future, as if he were not late, to the extent that any such payment will not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation. Good cause includes but is not limited to the following:

- (a) That existence of a claim was not known to the claimant and that he filed within thirty (30) days after he learned of it;
- (b) That a claim for unearned premiums or for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance or annuities which was not required to be filed was omitted from the liquidator's recommendations to the court under KRS 304.33-440, and that it was filed within thirty (30) days after the claimant learned of the omission;
- (c) That a transfer to a creditor was avoided under KRS 304.33-290 to 304.33-330, inclusive, or was voluntarily surrendered under KRS 304.33-320 and that the filing satisfies the conditions of KRS 304.33-320;
- (d) That valuation under KRS 304.33-420 of security held by a secured creditor shows a deficiency, which is filed within thirty (30) days after the valuation; and
- (e) That a claim was contingent and became absolute, and was filed within thirty (30) days after it became absolute.

(3) Unexcused late filings. The liquidator may consider any claim filed late which is not covered by subsection (2) of this section, and permit it to receive dividends, other than the first dividend, which are subsequently declared on any claims of the same or lower priority if the payment does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation. The late-filing claimant shall receive, at each distribution, the same percentage of the amount allowed on his claim as is then being paid to other claimants of the same priority plus the same percentage of the amount allowed on his claim as is then being paid to claimants of any lower priority. This shall continue until his claim has been paid in full.

Section 6. KRS 304.33-380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Claims contingent on judgments. The claim of a third party which is contingent only on his first obtaining a judgment against the insured shall be considered and allowed as if there were no such contingency.

(2) Claims under terminated policies. Any claim that would have become absolute if there had been no termination of coverage under KRS 304.33-120, and which was not covered by insurance acquired to replace the terminated coverage, shall be allowed as if the coverage had remained in effect, unless at least ten (10) days before the insured event occurred either the claimant had actual notice of the termination or notice was mailed to him as prescribed by subsection (1) of KRS 304.33-250, or subsection (1) of KRS 304.33-260. If allowed, the claim shall share in distributions under subsection (9)[~~(8)~~] of KRS 304.33-430.

(3) Other contingent claims. A claim may be allowed even if contingent, if it is filed in accordance with subsection (2) of KRS 304.33-360. It may be allowed and may participate in all dividends declared after it is filed, to the extent that it does not prejudice the orderly administration of the liquidation.

(4) Immature claims. Claims that are due except for the passage of time shall be treated as absolute claims are treated, except that where justice requires the court may order them discounted at the legal rate of interest.

Section 7. KRS 304.33-440 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Immediate Access. Within one hundred twenty (120) days of a final determination of insolvency of a company by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state, the liquidator shall make application to the court for approval of a proposal to disburse assets out of such company's marshalled assets, from time to time as such assets become available, to guaranty associations or foreign guaranty associations having obligations because of the insolvency. Such proposal shall at least include provision for:

- (a) Reserving amounts for the payment of the expenses of administration and claims falling within the priorities established in KRS 304.33-430(1) and (3)[~~(2)~~];
- (b) Disbursement of the assets marshalled to date and subsequent disbursements of assets as they become available;
- (c) Equitable allocation of disbursements to each of the associations entitled thereto; and
- (d) The securing by the liquidator from each of the associations entitled to disbursements pursuant to paragraph (e) of an agreement to return to the liquidator such assets previously disbursed as may be required to pay claims of secured creditors and claims falling within the priorities established in KRS 304.33-430(1), (3)[~~(2)~~] and (4)[~~(3)~~] in accordance with such priorities. No bond shall be required of any such association.
- (e) The liquidator's proposal shall also provide for disbursements to the associations in amounts at least equal to the payments made or to be made thereby for which associations could assert claims against the liquidator, and shall further provide that if the assets available for disbursement from time to time do not equal or exceed the amount of such payments made or to be made by the association then disbursements shall be in the amount of available assets.

(f) Notice of such application shall be given to the associations in and to the commissioners of insurance of each of the states in which the company did business. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States certified mails, first class postage prepaid, at least thirty (30) days prior to submission of such application to the court. Action on the application may be taken by the court provided the above required notice has been given and provided further that the liquidator's proposal complies with this subsection.

(2) Recommended claims. The liquidator shall review all claims duly filed in the liquidation and shall make such further investigation as he deems necessary. He may compound, compromise or in any other manner negotiate the amount for which claims will be recommended to the court. Unresolved disputes shall be determined under KRS 304.33-400. As often as practicable, he shall present to the court reports of claims against the insurer with his recommendations. The reports shall include the name and address of each claimant, the particulars of the claim and the amount of the claim finally recommended if any. As soon as reasonably possible after the last day for filing claims, he shall present a list of all claims not already reported. If the insurer has issued annuities or life insurance policies, the liquidator shall report the persons to whom, according to the records of the insurer, amounts are owed as cash surrender values or other investment values and the amounts owed. If the insurer has issued policies on the advance premium plan, the liquidator shall report the persons to whom, according to the records of the insurer, unearned premiums are owed and the amounts owed.

(3) Allowance of claims. The court may approve, disapprove, or modify any report on claims by the liquidator, except that the liquidator's agreements with other parties shall be final and binding on the court on claims settled for $500 or less. No claim under a policy of insurance shall be allowed for an amount in excess of the applicable policy limits.

Section 8. KRS 304.33-600 is amended to read as follows:

If an ancillary receiver in another state or foreign country, whether called by that name or not, fails to transfer to the domiciliary liquidator in this state any assets within his control other than special deposits, diminished only by the expenses of the ancillary receivership, if any, the claims filed in the ancillary receivership, other than special deposit claims or secured claims, shall be placed in the class of claims under subsection (8)[~~(7)~~] of KRS 304.33-430.

(3) By May 30 of years in which respiratory care practitioner terms expire, the Kentucky Society for Respiratory Care shall submit to the Governor a list of names of candidates qualified for the appointment of respiratory care practitioner, in numbers not less than twice the numbers of appointments to be made, from which the Governor shall make each appointment or appointments by October 31 of that year. The Governor shall also appoint the pulmonologist and citizen at-large members by October 31 of any year in which a term expires.

(4) A vacancy on the board shall be filled by the Governor as provided under subsection (1) of this section. The appointment shall be for the remaining portion of the member's term.

(5) The Governor or board may remove a member from the board for cause or as provided under administrative regulations promulgated by the board in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.

(6) The board shall reorganize annually and select a chairperson. Four (4) voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum to do business. The board shall hold at least one (1) regular meeting each year. Additional meetings may be held upon the call of the chairperson or at the written request of any two (2) members of the board. All meetings of the board shall be open and public to the extent permitted by law.

Section 6. KRS 314A.220 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall issue a mandatory certificate to all applicants who meet the requirements of this chapter and who pay to the board the initial mandatory certificate fee.

(2) The amount of fees prescribed in connection with a mandatory certificate as a respiratory care practitioner shall be prescribed by administrative regulation promulgated by the board in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A[~~as follows:~~

~~(a) The initial mandatory certificate fee shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50);~~

~~(b) The delinquency fee shall not exceed twenty dollars ($20);~~

~~(e) The temporary mandatory certificate fee shall not exceed ten dollars ($10)~~].

(3) Each respiratory care mandatory certificate shall expire on January 30 every two (2) years. A thirty (30) day grace period shall be allowed after January 30, during which time mandatory certificates may be renewed on payment of a renewal fee of not more than seventy dollars ($70) plus a grace period fee, when applicable, which combined will not exceed ninety dollars ($90). No person who applies for renewal, whose mandatory certificate has expired, shall be required to submit to any examination as a condition to renewal, provided such renewal application is made within five (5) years from the date of such expiration. No person shall practice respiratory care in this state unless the individual[~~he~~] holds a valid certificate. All mandatory certificates not renewed by March 2 following the date of issuance shall be deemed expired.

(4) A suspended mandatory certificate is subject to expiration and shall be renewed as provided in this chapter, but such renewal shall not entitle the respiratory care practitioner, while the mandatory certificate remains suspended, and until it is reinstated, to engage in mandatory certification activities, or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order of judgment by which the mandatory certificate was suspended. A mandatory certificate revoked on disciplinary grounds is subject to expiration as provided in this chapter, but it may not be renewed. If it is reinstated after its expiration, the mandatory certificate holder, as a condition of reinstatement, shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last preceding regular renewal date before the date on which it is reinstated, plus the delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of its revocation.

(5) A person who fails to renew his or her mandatory certificate within the five (5) years after its expiration may not renew it, and it may not be restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter, but such persons may apply for and obtain a new mandatory certificate if he meets the requirements of this chapter.

Section 7. KRS 314A.225 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The board may refuse to issue a mandatory certificate, or may suspend or revoke the mandatory certificate of any certificate holder if he has been guilty of unprofessional conduct which has endangered or is likely to endanger the health, welfare, or safety of the public. Unprofessional conduct may include:

(a) Obtaining a mandatory certificate by means of fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment of material facts;

(b) Having been guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined by the administrative regulations promulgated by the board, or having violated the code of ethics promulgated by the board;

(c) Having violated any lawful order or administrative regulation rendered or promulgated by the board; or

(d) Having violated any provisions of this chapter.

(2) The board shall deny an application for, or suspend or revoke, or impose probationary conditions upon, a mandatory certificate as ordered by the board in any decision made after a hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B. One (1) year from the date of revocation of a mandatory certificate under this chapter, application may be made to the board for reinstatement. The board shall have discretion to accept or reject an application for reinstatement.

(3) A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere made to a charge of felony or of any offense involving moral turpitude is deemed to be a conviction within the meaning of this chapter. At the direction of the board and after a hearing conducted in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B, the mandatory certificate shall be suspended or revoked, or issuance of a mandatory certificate shall be declined when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence irrespective of a subsequent order under the provisions of the penal code allowing a person to withdraw his plea of guilty, and to enter a plea of not guilty or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the acquisition, information, or indictment.

(4) (a) The chair of the board or the chair's designee may determine that immediate temporary suspension of a certificate, against which disciplinary action or an investigation is pending, is necessary to protect the public. If it appears that this action may be necessary, the chair or the designee shall issue an emergency order suspending the certificate. Upon appeal of an emergency order, an emergency hearing shall be conducted under KRS Chapter 13B.

(b) No board member shall be disqualified from serving on a disciplinary action hearing panel for the reason that the member has previously served on a hearing panel considering temporary suspension of the same certificate.

(c) The board shall expedite the disciplinary process in any action that involves a certificate that has been temporarily suspended.

(d) The order of immediate temporary suspension shall remain in effect until either retracted or superseded by final disciplinary action by the board. If disciplinary action is imposed, the board may order that the temporary suspension continue until the later of the expiration of the time permitted for appeal or the termination of the appellate process.

By August 15, 2000, the Kentucky Society for Respiratory Care shall submit to the Governor a list of eight (8) names of candidates who are qualified for appointment as respiratory care practitioners. The Governor shall make the appointments of the respiratory care practitioners from this list by October 31, 2000, and the Governor shall also make the appointments of qualified pulmonologists and the citizen at-large member by October 31, 2000. The terms of the initial appointments shall be staggered to assure continuity of experience, as follows: two (2) respiratory care practitioners and one (1) pulmonologist shall serve for one (1) year; two (2) respiratory care practitioners and one (1) pulmonologist shall serve for two (2) years; and the citizen at-large-member shall serve for three (3) years. Subsequent appointments shall be for three (3) years and as provided under Section 5 of this Act.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SEGMENT A

(LETTERS OF CREDIT)

SECTION 1. KRS 355.5-101 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

This article may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code -- Letters of Credit.

SECTION 2. KRS 355.5-102 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this article:

(a) "Adviser" means a person who, at the request of the issuer, a confirmer, or another adviser, notifies or requests another adviser to notify the beneficiary that a letter of credit has been issued, confirmed, or amended.

(b) "Applicant" means a person at whose request or for whose account a letter of credit is issued. The term includes a person who requests an issuer to issue a letter of credit on behalf of another if the person making the request undertakes an obligation to reimburse the issuer.

(c) "Beneficiary" means a person who under the terms of a letter of credit is entitled to have its complying presentation honored. The term includes a person to whom drawing rights have been transferred under a transferable letter of credit.

(d) "Confirmer" means a nominated person who undertakes, at the request or with the consent of the issuer, to honor a presentation under a letter of credit issued by another.

(e) "Dishonor" of a letter of credit means failure timely to honor or to take an interim action, such as acceptance of a draft, that may be required by the letter of credit.

(f) "Document" means a draft or other demand, document of title, investment security, certificate, invoice, or other record, statement, or representation of fact, law, right, or opinion:

1. Which is presented in a written or other medium permitted by the letter of credit or, unless prohibited by the letter of credit, by the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act; and

2. Which is capable of being examined for compliance with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit. A document may not be oral.

(g) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(h) "Honor" of a letter of credit means performance of the issuer's undertaking in the letter of credit to pay or deliver an item of value. Unless the letter of credit otherwise provides, "honor" occurs:

1. Upon payment;

2. If the letter of credit provides for acceptance, upon acceptance of a draft and, at maturity, its payment; or

3. If the letter of credit provides for incurring a deferred obligation, upon incurring the obligation and, at maturity, its performance.

(i) "Issuer" means a bank or other person that issues a letter of credit, but does not include an individual who makes an engagement for personal, family, or household purposes.

(j) "Letter of credit" means a definite undertaking that satisfies the requirements of Section 4 of this Act by an issuer to a beneficiary at the request or for the account of an applicant or, in the case of a financial institution, to itself or for its own account, to honor a documentary presentation by payment or delivery of an item of value.

(k) "Nominated person" means a person whom the issuer:

1. Designates or authorizes to pay, accept, negotiate, or otherwise give value under a letter of credit; and

2. Undertakes by agreement or custom and practice to reimburse.

(l) "Presentation" means delivery of a document to an issuer or nominated person for honor or giving of value under a letter of credit.

(m) "Presenter" means a person making a presentation as or on behalf of a beneficiary or nominated person.

(n) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium, or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

(o) "Successor of a beneficiary" means a person who succeeds to substantially all of the rights of a beneficiary by operation of law, including a corporation with or into which the beneficiary has been merged or consolidated, an administrator, executor, personal representative, trustee in bankruptcy, debtor in possession, liquidator, and receiver.

(2) Definitions in other articles in this chapter applying to this article and the sections in which they appear are:

"Accept" or "Acceptance"	KRS 355.3-409;
"Value"	KRS 355.3-303 and 355.4-211.

(3) Article 1 of this chapter contains certain additional general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

SECTION 3. KRS 355.5-103 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) This article applies to letters of credit and to certain rights and obligations arising out of transactions involving letters of credit.

(2) The statement of a rule in this article does not by itself require, imply, or negate application of the same or a different rule to a situation not provided for, or to a person not specified, in this article.

(3) With the exception of this subsection, subsections (1) and (4) of this section, subsection (1)(i) and (j) of Section 2 of this Act, subsection (4) of Section 6 of this Act, and subsection (4) of Section 14 of this Act, and to the extent prohibited in KRS 355.1-102(3) and subsection (4) of Section 17 of this Act, the effect of this article may be varied by agreement or by a provision stated or incorporated by reference in an undertaking. A term in an agreement or undertaking generally excusing liability or generally limiting remedies for failure to perform obligations is not sufficient to vary obligations prescribed by this article.

(4) Rights and obligations of an issuer to a beneficiary or a nominated person under a letter of credit are independent of the existence, performance, or nonperformance of a contract or arrangement out of which the letter of credit arises or which underlies it, including contracts or arrangements between the issuer and the applicant and between the applicant and the beneficiary.

SECTION 4. KRS 355.5-104 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A letter of credit, confirmation, advice, transfer, amendment, or cancellation may be issued in any form that is a record and is authenticated:

(1) By a signature; or

(2) In accordance with the agreement of the parties or the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act.

SECTION 5. KRS 355.5-105 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Consideration is not required to issue, amend, transfer, or cancel a letter of credit, advice, or confirmation.

SECTION 6. KRS 355.5-106 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A letter of credit is issued and becomes enforceable according to its terms against the issuer when the issuer sends or otherwise transmits it to the person requested to advise or to the beneficiary. A letter of credit is revocable only if it so provides.

(2) After a letter of credit is issued, rights and obligations of a beneficiary, applicant, confirmer, and issuer are not affected by an amendment or cancellation to which that person has not consented except to the extent the letter of credit provides that it is revocable or that the issuer may amend or cancel the letter of credit without that consent.

(3) If there is no stated expiration date or other provision that determines its duration, a letter of credit expires one (1) year after its stated date of issuance or, if none is stated, after the date on which it is issued.

(4) A letter of credit that states that it is perpetual expires five (5) years after its stated date of issuance, or if none is stated, after the date on which it is issued.

SECTION 7. KRS 355.5-107 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A confirmer is directly obligated on a letter of credit and has the rights and obligations of an issuer to the extent of its confirmation. The confirmer also has rights against and obligations to the issuer as if the issuer were an applicant and the confirmer had issued the letter of credit at the request and for the account of the issuer.

(2) A nominated person who is not a confirmer is not obligated to honor or otherwise give value for a presentation.

(3) A person requested to advise may decline to act as an adviser. An adviser that is not a confirmer is not obligated to honor or give value for a presentation. An adviser undertakes to the issuer and to the beneficiary accurately to advise the terms of the letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice received by that person and undertakes to the beneficiary to check the apparent authenticity of the request to advise. Even if the advice is inaccurate, the letter of credit, confirmation, or amendment is enforceable as issued.

(4) A person who notifies a transferee beneficiary of the terms of a letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice has the rights and obligations of an adviser under subsection (3) of this section. The terms in the notice to the transferee beneficiary may differ from the terms in any notice to the transferor beneficiary to the extent permitted by the letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice received by the person who so notifies.

SECTION 8. KRS 355.5-108 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 9 of this Act, an issuer shall honor a presentation that, as determined by the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of this section, appears on its face strictly to comply with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit. Except as otherwise provided in Section 13 of this Act and unless otherwise agreed with the applicant, an issuer shall dishonor a presentation that does not appear so to comply.

(2) An issuer has a reasonable time after presentation, but not beyond the end of the seventh business day of the issuer after the day of its receipt of documents:

  (a) To honor;

  (b) If the letter of credit provides for honor to be completed more than seven (7) business days after presentation, to accept a draft or incur a deferred obligation; or

  (c) To give notice to the presenter of discrepancies in the presentation.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, an issuer is precluded from asserting as a basis for dishonor any discrepancy if timely notice is not given, or any discrepancy not stated in the notice if timely notice is given.

(4) Failure to give the notice specified in subsection (2) of this section or to mention fraud, forgery, or expiration in the notice does not preclude the issuer from asserting as a basis for dishonor fraud or forgery as described in subsection (1) of Section 9 of this Act or expiration of the letter of credit before presentation.

(5) An issuer shall observe standard practice of financial institutions that regularly issue letters of credit. Determination of the issuer's observance of the standard practice is a matter of interpretation for the court. The court shall offer the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence of the standard practice.

(6) An issuer is not responsible for:

(a) The performance or nonperformance of the underlying contract, arrangement, or transaction;

(b) An act or omission of others; or

(c) Observance or knowledge of the usage of a particular trade other than the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of this section.

(7) If an undertaking constituting a letter of credit under subsection (1)(j) of Section 2 of this Act contains nondocumentary conditions, an issuer shall disregard the nondocumentary conditions and treat them as if they were not stated.

(8) An issuer that has dishonored a presentation shall return the documents or hold them at the disposal of, and send advice to that effect to, the presenter.

(9) An issuer that has honored a presentation as permitted or required by this article:

(a) Is entitled to be reimbursed by the applicant in immediately available funds not later than the date of its payment of funds;

(b) Takes the documents free of claims of the beneficiary or presenter;

(c) Is precluded from asserting a right of recourse on a draft under KRS 355.3-414 and 355.3-415;

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 10 and 17 of this Act, is precluded from restitution of money paid or other value given by mistake to the extent the mistake concerns discrepancies in the documents or tender which are apparent on the face of the presentation; and

(e) Is discharged to the extent of its performance under the letter of credit unless the issuer honored a presentation in which a required signature of a beneficiary was forged.

SECTION 9. KRS 355.5-109 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a presentation is made that appears on its face strictly to comply with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit, but a required document is forged or materially fraudulent, or honor of the presentation would facilitate a material fraud by the beneficiary on the issuer or applicant:

(a) The issuer shall honor the presentation, if honor is demanded by:

1. A nominated person who has given value in good faith and without notice of forgery or material fraud;

2. A confirmer who has honored its confirmation in good faith;

3. A holder in due course of a draft drawn under the letter of credit which was taken after acceptance by the issuer or nominated person; or

4. An assignee of the issuer's or nominated person's deferred obligation that was taken for value and without notice of forgery or material fraud after the obligation was incurred by the issuer or nominated person; and

(b) The issuer, acting in good faith, may honor or dishonor the presentation in any other case.

(2) If an applicant claims that a required document is forged or materially fraudulent or that honor of the presentation would facilitate a material fraud by the beneficiary on the issuer or applicant, a court of competent jurisdiction may temporarily or permanently enjoin the issuer from honoring a presentation or grant similar relief against the issuer or other persons only if the court finds that:

(a) The relief is not prohibited under the law applicable to an accepted draft or deferred obligation incurred by the issuer;

(b) A beneficiary, issuer, or nominated person who may be adversely affected is adequately protected against loss that it may suffer because the relief is granted;

(c) All of the conditions to entitle a person to the relief under the law of this Commonwealth have been met; and

(d) On the basis of the information submitted to the court, the applicant is more likely than not to succeed under its claim of forgery or material fraud and the person demanding honor does not qualify for protection under subsection (1)(a) of this section.

SECTION 10. KRS 355.5-110 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If its presentation is honored, the beneficiary warrants:

(a) To the issuer, any other person to whom presentation is made, and the applicant that there is no fraud or forgery of the kind described in subsection (1) of Section 9 of this Act; and

(b) To the applicant that the drawing does not violate any agreement between the applicant and beneficiary or any other agreement intended by them to be augmented by the letter of credit.

(2) The warranties in subsection (1) of this section are in addition to warranties arising under Articles 3, 4, 7, and 8 of this chapter because of the presentation or transfer of documents covered by any of those articles.

SECTION 11. KRS 355.5-111 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If an issuer wrongfully dishonors or repudiates its obligation to pay money under a letter of credit before presentation, the beneficiary, successor, or nominated person presenting on its own behalf may recover from the issuer the amount that is the subject of the dishonor or repudiation. If the issuer's obligation under the letter of credit is not for the payment of money, the claimant may obtain specific performance or, at the claimant's election, recover an amount equal to the value of performance from the issuer. In either case, the claimant may also recover incidental but not consequential damages. The claimant is not obligated to take action to avoid damages that might be due from the issuer under this subsection. If, although not obligated to do so, the claimant avoids damages, the claimant's recovery from the issuer must be reduced by the amount of damages avoided. The issuer has the burden of proving the amount of damages avoided. In the case of repudiation the claimant need not present any document.

(2) If an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand presented under a letter of credit or honors a draft or demand in breach of its obligation to the applicant, the applicant may recover damages resulting from the breach, including incidental but not consequential damages, less any amount saved as a result of the breach.

(3) If an adviser or nominated person other than a confirmer breaches an obligation under this article or an issuer breaches an obligation not covered in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, a person to whom the obligation is owed may recover damages resulting from the breach, including incidental but not consequential damages, less any amount saved as a result of the breach. To the extent of the confirmation, a confirmer has the liability of an issuer specified in this subsection and subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) An issuer, nominated person, or adviser who is found liable under subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section shall pay interest on the amount owed thereunder from the date of wrongful dishonor or other appropriate date.

(5) Reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses of litigation must be awarded to the prevailing party in an action in which a remedy is sought under this article.

(6) Damages that would otherwise be payable by a party for breach of an obligation under this article may be liquidated by agreement or undertaking, but only in an amount or by a formula that is reasonable in light of the harm anticipated.

SECTION 12. KRS 355.5-112 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 13 of this Act, unless a letter of credit provides that it is transferable, the right of a beneficiary to draw or otherwise demand performance under a letter of credit may not be transferred.

(2) Even if a letter of credit provides that it is transferable, the issuer may refuse to recognize or carry out a transfer if:

(a) The transfer would violate applicable law; or

(b) The transferor or transferee has failed to comply with any requirement stated in the letter of credit or any other requirement relating to transfer imposed by the issuer which is within the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act or is otherwise reasonable under the circumstances.

SECTION 13. KRS 355.5-113 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A successor of a beneficiary may consent to amendments, sign and present documents, and receive payment or other items of value in the name of the beneficiary without disclosing its status as a successor.

(2) A successor of a beneficiary may consent to amendments, sign and present documents, and receive payment or other items of value in its own name as the disclosed successor of the beneficiary. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, an issuer shall recognize a disclosed successor of a beneficiary as beneficiary in full substitution for its predecessor upon compliance with the requirements for recognition by the issuer of a transfer of drawing rights by operation of law under the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act or, in the absence of such a practice, compliance with other reasonable procedures sufficient to protect the issuer.

(3) An issuer is not obliged to determine whether a purported successor is a successor of a beneficiary or whether the signature of a purported successor is genuine or authorized.

(4) Honor of a purported successor's apparently complying presentation under subsection (1) or (2) of this section has the consequences specified in subsection (9) of Section 8 of this Act even if the purported successor is not the successor of a beneficiary. Documents signed in the name of the beneficiary or of a disclosed successor by a person who is neither the beneficiary nor the successor of the beneficiary are forged documents for the purposes of Section 9 of this Act.

(5) An issuer whose rights of reimbursement are not covered by subsection (4) of this section or substantially similar law and any confirmer or nominated person may decline to recognize a presentation under subsection (2) of this section.

(6) A beneficiary whose name is changed after the issuance of a letter of credit has the same rights and obligations as a successor of a beneficiary under this section.

SECTION 14. KRS 355.5-114 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section, "proceeds of a letter of credit" means the cash, check, accepted draft, or other item of value paid or delivered upon honor or giving of value by the issuer or any nominated person under the letter of credit. The term does not include a beneficiary's drawing rights or documents presented by the beneficiary.

(2) A beneficiary may assign its right to part or all of the proceeds of a letter of credit. The beneficiary may do so before presentation as a present assignment of its right to receive proceeds contingent upon its compliance with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit.

(3) An issuer or nominated person need not recognize an assignment of proceeds of a letter of credit until it consents to the assignment.

(4) An issuer or nominated person has no obligation to give or withhold its consent to an assignment of proceeds of a letter of credit, but consent may not be unreasonably withheld if the assignee possesses and exhibits the letter of credit and presentation of the letter of credit is a condition to honor.

(5) Rights of a transferee beneficiary or nominated person are independent of the beneficiary's assignment of the proceeds of a letter of credit and are superior to the assignee's right to the proceeds.

(6) Neither the rights recognized by this section between an assignee and an issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person nor the issuer's or nominated person's payment of proceeds to an assignee or a third person affect the rights between the assignee and any person other than the issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person. The mode of creating and perfecting a security interest in or granting an assignment of a beneficiary's rights to proceeds is governed by Article 9 of this chapter or other law. Against persons other than the issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person, the rights and obligations arising upon the creation of a security interest or other assignment of a beneficiary's right to proceeds and its perfection are governed by Article 9 of this chapter or other law.

SECTION 15. KRS 355.5-115 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

An action to enforce a right or obligation arising under this article must be commenced within one (1) year after the expiration date of the relevant letter of credit or one (1) year after the claim for relief accrues, whichever occurs later. A claim for relief accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowledge of the breach.

SECTION 16. KRS 355.5-116 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a record signed or otherwise authenticated by the affected parties in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Act or by a provision in the person's letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not bear any relation to the transaction.

(2) Unless subsection (1) of this section applies, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the person is located. The person is considered to be located at the address indicated in the person's undertaking. If more than one (1) address is indicated, the person is considered to be located at the address from which the person's undertaking was issued. For the purpose of jurisdiction, choice of law, and recognition of interbranch letters of credit, but not enforcement of a judgment, all branches of a bank are considered separate juridical entities and a bank is considered to be located at the place where its relevant branch is considered to be located under this subsection.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, such as the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, to which the letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking is expressly made subject. If:

(a) This article would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser under subsection (1) or (2) of this section;

(b) The relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice; and

(c) There is conflict between this article and those rules as applied to that undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the nonvariable provisions specified in subsection (3) of Section 3 of this Act.

(4) If there is conflict between this article and Article 3, 4, 4A, or 9 of this chapter, this article governs.

(5) The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this article may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be chosen in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 17. KRS 355.5-117 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An issuer that honors a beneficiary's presentation is subrogated to the rights of the beneficiary to the same extent as if the issuer were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the beneficiary and of the applicant to the same extent as if the issuer were the secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the applicant.

(2) An applicant that reimburses an issuer is subrogated to the rights of the issuer against any beneficiary, presenter, or nominated person to the same extent as if the applicant were the secondary obligor of the obligations owed to the issuer and has the rights of subrogation of the issuer to the rights of the beneficiary stated in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Article 1 of this chapter contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

SECTION 23. KRS 355.9-103 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section:

(a) "Purchase-money collateral" means goods or software that secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to that collateral; and

(b) "Purchase-money obligation" means an obligation of an obligor incurred as all or part of the price of the collateral or for value given to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of the collateral if the value is in fact so used.

(2) A security interest in goods is a purchase-money security interest:

(a) To the extent that the goods are purchase-money collateral with respect to that security interest;

(b) If the security interest is in inventory that is or was purchase-money collateral, also to the extent that the security interest secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to other inventory in which the secured party holds or held a purchase-money security interest; and

(c) Also to the extent that the security interest secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to software in which the secured party holds or held a purchase-money security interest.

(3) A security interest in software is a purchase-money security interest to the extent that the security interest also secures a purchase-money obligation incurred with respect to goods in which the secured party holds or held a purchase-money security interest if:

(a) The debtor acquired its interest in the software in an integrated transaction in which it acquired an interest in the goods; and

(b) The debtor acquired its interest in the software for the principal purpose of using the software in the goods.

(4) The security interest of a consignor in goods that are the subject of a consignment is a purchase-money security interest in inventory.

(5) In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, if the extent to which a security interest is a purchase-money security interest depends on the application of a payment to a particular obligation, the payment must be applied:

(a) In accordance with any reasonable method of application to which the parties agree;

(b) In the absence of the parties' agreement to a reasonable method, in accordance with any intention of the obligor manifested at or before the time of payment; or

(c) In the absence of an agreement to a reasonable method and a timely manifestation of the obligor's intention, in the following order:

1. To obligations that are not secured; and

2. If more than one (1) obligation is secured, to obligations secured by purchase-money security interests in the order in which those obligations were incurred.

(6) In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, a purchase-money security interest does not lose its status as such, even if:

(a) The purchase-money collateral also secures an obligation that is not a purchase-money obligation;

(b) Collateral that is not purchase-money collateral also secures the purchase-money obligation; or

(c) The purchase-money obligation has been renewed, refinanced, consolidated, or restructured.

(7) In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, a secured party claiming a purchase-money security interest has the burden of establishing the extent to which the security interest is a purchase-money security interest.

(8) The limitation of the rules in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section to transactions other than consumer-goods transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer-goods transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in consumer-goods transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

SECTION 24. KRS 355.9-104 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A secured party has control of a deposit account if:

(a) The secured party is the bank with which the deposit account is maintained;

(b) The debtor, secured party, and bank have agreed in an authenticated record that the bank will comply with instructions originated by the secured party directing disposition of the funds in the deposit account without further consent by the debtor; or

(c) The secured party becomes the bank's customer with respect to the deposit account.

(2) A secured party that has satisfied subsection (1) of this section has control, even if the debtor retains the right to direct the disposition of funds from the deposit account.

SECTION 25. KRS 355.9-105 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A secured party has control of electronic chattel paper if the record or records comprising the chattel paper are created, stored, and assigned in such a manner that:

(1) A single authoritative copy of the record or records exists which is unique, identifiable and, except as otherwise provided in subsections (4), (5), and (6) of this section, unalterable;

(2) The authoritative copy identifies the secured party as the assignee of the record or records;

(3) The authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the secured party or its designated custodian;

(4) Copies or revisions that add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy can be made only with the participation of the secured party;

(5) Each copy of the authoritative copy and any copy of a copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the authoritative copy; and

(6) Any revision of the authoritative copy is readily identifiable as an authorized or unauthorized revision.

SECTION 26. KRS 355.9-106 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A person has control of a certificated security, uncertificated security, or security entitlement as provided in Section 168 of this Act.

(2) A secured party has control of a commodity contract if:

(a) The secured party is the commodity intermediary with which the commodity contract is carried; or

(b) The commodity customer, secured party, and commodity intermediary have agreed that the commodity intermediary will apply any value distributed on account of the commodity contract as directed by the secured party without further consent by the commodity customer.

(3) A secured party having control of all security entitlements or commodity contracts carried in a securities account or commodity account has control over the securities account or commodity account.

SECTION 27. KRS 355.9-107 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A secured party has control of a letter-of-credit right to the extent of any right to payment or performance by the issuer or any nominated person if the issuer or nominated person has consented to an assignment of proceeds of the letter of credit under subsection (3) of Section 14 of this Act or otherwise applicable law or practice.

SECTION 28. KRS 355.9-108 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this section, a description of personal or real property is sufficient, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a description of collateral reasonably identifies the collateral if it identifies the collateral by:

(a) Specific listing;

(b) Category;

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a type of collateral defined in this chapter;

(d) Quantity;

(e) Computational or allocational formula or procedure; or

(f) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, any other method, if the identity of the collateral is objectively determinable.

(3) A description of collateral as "all the debtor's assets" or "all the debtor's personal property" or using words of similar import does not reasonably identify the collateral.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a description of a security entitlement, securities account, or commodity account is sufficient if it describes:

(a) The collateral by those terms or as investment property; or

(b) The underlying financial asset or commodity contract.

(5) A description only by type of collateral defined in this chapter is an insufficient description of:

(a) A commercial tort claim; or

(b) In a consumer transaction, consumer goods, a security entitlement, a securities account, or a commodity account.

(1) The security interest is enforceable, even if subsection (2)(c) of Section 33 of this Act has not been satisfied;

(2) Filing is not required to perfect the security interest;

(3) The rights of the secured party after default by the debtor are governed by Article 2 or 2A of this chapter; and

(4) The security interest has priority over a conflicting security interest created by the debtor.

PART 2

EFFECTIVENESS OF SECURITY AGREEMENT; ATTACHMENT OF SECURITY INTEREST; RIGHTS OF PARTIES TO SECURITY AGREEMENT

SUBPART 1. EFFECTIVENESS AND ATTACHMENT

SECTION 31. KRS 355.9-201 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a security agreement is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral, and against creditors.

(2) A transaction subject to this article is subject to any applicable rule of law, statute, or regulation that establishes a different rule for consumers.

(3) In case of conflict between this article and a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (2) of this section, the rule of law, statute, or regulation controls. - (b) Extend the application of the rule of law, statute, or regulation to a transaction not otherwise subject to it.

SECTION 32. KRS 355.9-202 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Except as otherwise provided with respect to consignments or sales of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes, the provisions of this article with regard to rights and obligations apply whether title to collateral is in the secured party or the debtor.

SECTION 33. KRS 355.9-203 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A security interest attaches to collateral when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral, unless an agreement expressly postpones the time of attachment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) to (9) of this section, a security interest is enforceable against the debtor and third parties with respect to the collateral only if:

- (a) Value has been given;
- (b) The debtor has rights in the collateral or the power to transfer rights in the collateral to a secured party; and
- (c) One (1) of the following conditions is met:
  - 1. The debtor has authenticated a security agreement that provides a description of the collateral and, if the security interest covers timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned;

- (a) The security agreement becomes effective to create a security interest in the person's property; or
- (b) The person becomes generally obligated for the obligations of the other person, including the obligation secured under the security agreement, and acquires or succeeds to all or substantially all of the assets of the other person.

(5) If a new debtor becomes bound as debtor by a security agreement entered into by another person:

- (a) The agreement satisfies subsection (2)(c) of this section with respect to existing or after-acquired property of the new debtor to the extent the property is described in the agreement; and
- (b) Another agreement is not necessary to make a security interest in the property enforceable.

(6) The attachment of a security interest in collateral gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by Section 55 of this Act and is also attachment of a security interest in a supporting obligation for the collateral.

(7) The attachment of a security interest in a right to payment or performance secured by a security interest or other lien on personal or real property is also attachment of a security interest in the security interest, mortgage, or other lien.

SECTION 35. KRS 355.9-205 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors solely because:

- (a) The debtor has the right or ability to:
  - 1. Use, commingle, or dispose of all or part of the collateral, including returned or repossessed goods;
  - 2. Collect, compromise, enforce, or otherwise deal with collateral;

SECTION 36. KRS 355.9-206 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A security interest in favor of a securities intermediary attaches to a person's security entitlement if:

- (a) The person buys a financial asset through the securities intermediary in a transaction in which the person is obligated to pay the purchase price to the securities intermediary at the time of the purchase; and

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a secured party shall use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of collateral in the secured party's possession. (2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, if a secured party has possession of collateral:

(e) A secured party having control of a letter-of-credit right under Section 27 of this Act shall send to each person having an unfulfilled obligation to pay or deliver proceeds of the letter of credit to the secured party an authenticated release from any further obligation to pay or deliver proceeds of the letter of credit to the secured party.

SECTION 39. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-209:

PART 3

PERFECTION AND PRIORITY

SUBPART 1. LAW GOVERNING PERFECTION AND PRIORITY

SECTION 41. KRS 355.9-301 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Except as otherwise provided in Sections 43 to 46 of this Act, the following rules determine the law governing perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in collateral:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, while a debtor is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in collateral.

(2) While collateral is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a possessory security interest in that collateral.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, while negotiable documents, goods, instruments, money, or tangible chattel paper is located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs:

(a) Perfection of a security interest in the goods by filing a fixture filing;

(b) Perfection of a security interest in timber to be cut; and

(c) The effect of perfection or nonperfection and the priority of a nonpossessory security interest in the collateral.

(4) The local law of the jurisdiction in which the wellhead or minehead is located governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in as-extracted collateral.

SECTION 42. KRS 355.9-302 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

While farm products are located in a jurisdiction, the local law of that jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of an agricultural lien on the farm products.

SECTION 43. KRS 355.9-303 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) This section applies to goods covered by a certificate of title, even if there is no other relationship between the jurisdiction under whose certificate of title the goods are covered and the goods or the debtor.

(2) Goods become covered by a certificate of title when a valid application for the certificate of title and the applicable fee are delivered to the appropriate authority. Goods cease to be covered by a certificate of title at the earlier of the time the certificate of title ceases to be effective under the law of the issuing jurisdiction or the time the goods become covered subsequently by a certificate of title issued by another jurisdiction.

(3) The local law of the jurisdiction under whose certificate of title the goods are covered governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in goods covered by a certificate of title from the time the goods become covered by the certificate of title until the goods cease to be covered by the certificate of title.

SECTION 44. KRS 355.9-304 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The local law of a bank's jurisdiction governs perfection, the effect of perfection or nonperfection, and the priority of a security interest in a deposit account maintained with that bank.

(2) The following rules determine a bank's jurisdiction for purposes of this part of this article:

Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section and Section 53 and subsections (4) and (5) of Section 56 of this Act for goods covered by a certificate of title, a security interest in property subject to a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (1) of this section may be perfected only by compliance with those requirements, and a security interest so perfected remains perfected notwithstanding a change in the use or transfer of possession of the collateral.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section and subsections (4) and (5) of Section 56 of this Act, duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the requirements prescribed by a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (1) of this section are governed by the statute, regulation, or treaty. (6) A perfected security interest in a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee, other than one that has issued a negotiable document for the goods, remains perfected for twenty (20) days without filing if the secured party makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of:

SECTION 53. KRS 355.9-313 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(b) The person takes possession of the collateral after having authenticated a record acknowledging that it will hold possession of collateral for the secured party's benefit.

(4) If perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by a secured party, perfection occurs no earlier than the time the secured party takes possession and continues only while the secured party retains possession.

(5) A security interest in a certificated security in registered form is perfected by delivery when delivery of the certificated security occurs under Section 170 of this Act and remains perfected by delivery until the debtor obtains possession of the security certificate.

(a) The acknowledgment is effective under subsection (3) of this section or subsection (1) of Section 170 of this Act, even if the acknowledgment violates the rights of a debtor; and

(b) Unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this article otherwise provides, the person does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the acknowledgment to another person.

(8) A secured party having possession of collateral does not relinquish possession by delivering the collateral to a person other than the debtor or a lessee of the collateral from the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business if the person was instructed before the delivery or is instructed contemporaneously with the delivery:

(a) To hold possession of the collateral for the secured party's benefit; or

(b) To redeliver the collateral to the secured party.

(9) A secured party does not relinquish possession, even if a delivery under subsection (8) of this section violates the rights of a debtor. A person to which collateral is delivered under subsection (8) of this section does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the delivery to another person unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this article otherwise provides.

SECTION 54. KRS 355.9-314 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(3) A security interest in proceeds is a perfected security interest if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected.

If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earliest time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(3) A possessory security interest in collateral, other than goods covered by a certificate of title and as-extracted collateral consisting of goods, remains continuously perfected if:

(a) The collateral is located in one jurisdiction and subject to a security interest perfected under the law of that jurisdiction;

(c) Upon entry into the other jurisdiction, the security interest is perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a security interest in goods covered by a certificate of title which is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction when the goods become covered by a certificate of title from this Commonwealth remains perfected until the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become so covered.

(5) A security interest described in subsection (4) of this section becomes unperfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value if the applicable requirements for perfection under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act or Section 53 of this Act are not satisfied before the earlier of:

(a) The time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become covered by a certificate of title from this Commonwealth; or

(b) The expiration of four (4) months after the goods had become so covered.

(6) A security interest in deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights, or investment property which is perfected under the law of the bank's jurisdiction, the issuer's jurisdiction, a nominated person's jurisdiction, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, or the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction, as applicable, remains perfected until the earlier of:

(a) The time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of that jurisdiction; or

(b) The expiration of four (4) months after a change of the applicable jurisdiction to another jurisdiction.

(7) If a security interest described in subsection (6) of this section becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time or the end of the period described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of that time or the end of that period, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(4) A licensee of a general intangible or a buyer, other than a secured party, of accounts, electronic chattel paper, general intangibles, or investment property other than a certificated security takes free of a security interest if the licensee or buyer gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 60 and 61 of this Act, if a person files a financing statement with respect to a purchase-money security interest before or within twenty (20) days after the debtor receives delivery of the collateral, the security interest takes priority over the rights of a buyer, lessee, or lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a buyer in ordinary course of business, other than a person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations, takes free of a security interest created by the buyer's seller, even if the security interest is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a buyer of goods from a person who used or bought the goods for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes takes free of a security interest, even if perfected, if the buyer buys:

(4) A buyer in ordinary course of business buying oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead or after extraction takes free of an interest arising out of an encumbrance.

(b) A perfected security interest or agricultural lien has priority over a conflicting unperfected security interest or agricultural lien.

(c) The first security interest or agricultural lien to attach or become effective has priority if conflicting security interests and agricultural liens are unperfected.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section:

(a) The time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in proceeds; and

(b) The time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral supported by a supporting obligation is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in the supporting obligation.

2. Temporarily under subsection (5), (6), or (7) of Section 52 of this Act; and

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a security interest created by a new debtor which is perfected by a filed financing statement that is effective solely under Section 99 of this Act in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral which is perfected other than by a filed financing statement that is effective solely under Section 99 of this Act.

(2) The other provisions of this part of this article determine the priority among conflicting security interests in the same collateral perfected by filed financing statements that are effective solely under Section 99 of this Act. However, if the security agreements to which a new debtor became bound as debtor were not entered into by the same original debtor, the conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of the new debtor's having become bound.

(1) A security interest under this article may be created in goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures. A security interest does not exist under this article in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(2) This article does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real property law.

(3) In cases not governed by subsections (4) to (8) of this section, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real property other than the debtor.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this section, a perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property and:

(a) The security interest is a purchase-money security interest;

(b) The interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures; and

(c) The security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(5) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(a) The debtor has an interest of record in the real property or is in possession of the real property and the security interest:

1. Is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record; and

2. Has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner;

(b) Before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by this article and the fixtures are readily removable:

1. Factory or office machines;

2. Equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real property; or

3. Replacements of domestic appliances that are consumer goods;

(c) The conflicting interest is a lien on the real property obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this article; or

1. Created in a manufactured home in a manufactured-home transaction; and

2. Perfected pursuant to a statute described in subsection (1)(b) of Section 51 of this Act.

(6) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(a) The encumbrancer or owner has, in an authenticated record, consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(b) The debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner.

(7) The priority of the security interest under subsection (6)(b) of this section continues for a reasonable time if the debtor's right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner terminates.

(8) A mortgage is a construction mortgage to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including the acquisition cost of the land, if a recorded record of the mortgage so indicates. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage.

(9) A perfected security interest in crops growing on real property has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property.

(2) If a security interest is perfected when the collateral becomes an accession, the security interest remains perfected in the collateral.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the other provisions of this part of this article determine the priority of a security interest in an accession.

(4) A security interest in an accession is subordinate to a security interest in the whole which is perfected by compliance with the requirements of a certificate-of-title statute under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act.

(5) After default, subject to Part 6 of this article, a secured party may remove an accession from other goods if the security interest in the accession has priority over the claims of every person having an interest in the whole.

(6) A secured party that removes an accession from other goods under subsection (5) of this section shall promptly reimburse any holder of a security interest or other lien on, or owner of, the whole or of the other goods, other than the debtor, for the cost of repair of any physical injury to the whole or the other goods. The secured party need not reimburse the holder or owner for any diminution in value of the whole or the other goods caused by the absence of the accession removed or by any necessity for replacing it. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate assurance for the performance of the obligation to reimburse.

(2) A security interest does not exist in commingled goods as such. However, a security interest may attach to a product or mass that results when goods become commingled goods.

(3) If collateral becomes commingled goods, a security interest attaches to the product or mass.

(4) If a security interest in collateral is perfected before the collateral becomes commingled goods, the security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) of this section is perfected.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, the other provisions of this part of this article determine the priority of a security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) of this section.

(6) If more than one (1) security interest attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) of this section, the following rules determine priority:

(a) A security interest that is perfected under subsection (4) of this section has priority over a security interest that is unperfected at the time the collateral becomes commingled goods.

(b) If more than one (1) security interest is perfected under subsection (4) of this section, the security interests rank equally in proportion to the value of the collateral at the time it became commingled goods.

SECTION 77. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-337:

(1) A buyer of the goods, other than a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, takes free of the security interest if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest; and

(2) The security interest is subordinate to a conflicting security interest in the goods that attaches, and is perfected under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act, after issuance of the certificate and without the conflicting secured party's knowledge of the security interest.

SECTION 78. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-338:

If a security interest or agricultural lien is perfected by a filed financing statement providing information described in subsection (2)(e) of Section 107 of this Act which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed:

(1) The security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to a conflicting perfected security interest in the collateral to the extent that the holder of the conflicting security interest gives value in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information; and

(2) A purchaser, other than a secured party, of the collateral takes free of the security interest or agricultural lien to the extent that, in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information, the purchaser gives value and, in the case of chattel paper, documents, goods, instruments, or a security certificate, receives delivery of the collateral.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the application of this article to a security interest in a deposit account does not affect a right of recoupment or set-off of the secured party as to a deposit account maintained with the secured party.

(3) The exercise by a bank of a set-off against a deposit account is ineffective against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account which is perfected by control under subsection (1)(c) of Section 24 of this Act, if the set-off is based on a claim against the debtor.

(3) The bank's receipt of instructions from the secured party.

SECTION 82. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-342:

A bank that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another person unless requested to do so by its customer.

(2) An agreement between the debtor and secured party which prohibits a transfer of the debtor's rights in collateral or makes the transfer a default does not prevent the transfer from taking effect.

SECTION 84. KRS 355.9-402 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The existence of a security interest, agricultural lien, or authority given to a debtor to dispose of or use collateral, without

(1) In this section, "value" has the meaning provided in KRS 355. 3-303(1).

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor not to assert against an assignee any claim or defense that the account debtor may have against the assignor is enforceable by an assignee that takes an assignment:

- (a) For value;
- (b) In good faith;
- (c) Without notice of a claim of a property or possessory right to the property assigned; and
- (d) Without notice of a defense or claim in recoupment of the type that may be asserted against a person entitled to enforce a negotiable instrument under KRS 355.3-305(1).

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to defenses of a type that may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under KRS 355.3-305(2).

(4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the rights of an assignee are subject to claims or defenses that the account debtor could assert against the original obligee, and the record does not include such a statement:

- (a) The record has the same effect as if the record included such a statement; and
- (b) The account debtor may assert against an assignee those claims and defenses that would have been available if the record included such a statement.

(5) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, this section does not displace law other than this article which gives effect to an agreement by an account debtor not to assert a claim or defense against an assignee.

SECTION 86. KRS 355.9-404 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims, and subject to subsections (2) to (5) of this section, the rights of an assignee are subject to:

- (a) All terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to the contract; and
- (b) Any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment authenticated by the assignor or the assignee.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the claim of an account debtor against an assignor may be asserted against an assignee under subsection (1) of this section only to reduce the amount the account debtor owes.

(3) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor under the record, and the record does not include such a statement, the extent to which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.

(5) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

SECTION 87. KRS 355.9-405 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A modification of or substitution for an assigned contract is effective against an assignee if made in good faith. The assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that the modification or substitution is a breach of contract by the assignor. This subsection is subject to subsections (2) to (4) of this section.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section applies to the extent that:

- (a) The right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance; or
- (b) The right to payment or a part thereof has been fully earned by performance and the account debtor has not received notification of the assignment under subsection (1) of Section 88 of this Act.

(3) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(4) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

SECTION 88. KRS 355.9-406 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (9) of this section, an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(2) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, notification is ineffective under subsection (1) of this section:

- (a) If it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;
- (b) To the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this article; or
- (c) At the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:
  - 1. Only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;
  - 2. A portion has been assigned to another assignee; or
  - 3. The account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(3) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section and Sections 89 and 162 of this Act, and subject to subsection (8) of this section, a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

- (a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or
- (b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

(5) Subsection (4) of this section does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 89 and 162 of this Act and subject to subsections (8) and (9) of this section, a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

- (a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or
- (b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(7) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under subsection (2)(c) of this section.

(8) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(9) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

SECTION 89. KRS 355.9-407 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a term in a lease agreement is ineffective to the extent that it:

- (a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a party to the lease to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods; or
- (b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the lease.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of Section 162 of this Act, a term described in subsection (1)(b) of this section is effective to the extent that there is:

(a) A transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the term; or

(b) A delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the term.

(3) The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the lessor's interest under the lease contract or the lessor's residual interest in the goods is not a transfer that materially impairs the lessee's prospect of obtaining return performance or materially changes the duty of or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the lessee within the purview of subsection (4) of Section 162 of this Act unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the lessor.

SECTION 90. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-408:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(a) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note.

(3) A rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(a) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(4) To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (3) of this section would be effective under law other than this article but is ineffective under subsection (1) or (3) of this section, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:

(a) Is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(b) Does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(c) Does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;

(d) Does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;

(e) Does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and

(f) Does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(5) This section prevails over any inconsistent provisions of the following statutes and any administrative regulations based on those statutes: KRS 56.230(2), 138.320(3), 138.665(4), 138.720(5), 139.250, 154A.400(3), 190.047(1), 190.070(2)(c), 217B.535(2), 228.070(2), 230.300(9), 234.330(10), 243.630(2), 260.730(3), 260.815, 288.460(2), 292.320(2)(b), 294.036(3), 304.3-410(2)(f), 304.3-520(5), 333.080, 350.135(1), 365.430(27), and 368.070(2).

(6) Subsection (3) of this section does not apply to the following statutes and to administrative regulations promulgated under the authority of those statutes: KRS 304.2-260, KRS 304.24-420, Subtitle 33 of KRS Chapter 304, and Subtitle 37 of KRS Chapter 304.

SECTION 91. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-409:

(1) A term in a letter of credit or a rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice applicable to the letter of credit which prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of an applicant, issuer, or nominated person to a beneficiary's assignment of or creation of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right is ineffective to the extent that the term or rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice:

(a) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the letter-of-credit right.

(2) To the extent that a term in a letter of credit is ineffective under subsection (1) of this section but would be effective under law other than this article or a custom or practice applicable to the letter of credit, to the transfer of a right to draw or otherwise demand performance under the letter of credit, or to the assignment of a right to proceeds of the letter of credit, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right:

(a) Is not enforceable against the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary;

(b) Imposes no duties or obligations on the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary; and

(c) Does not require the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or other performance from the secured party.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the following statutes and to administrative regulations promulgated under the authority of those statutes: KRS 304.2-260, KRS 304.24-420, Subtitle 33 of KRS Chapter 304, and Subtitle 37 of KRS Chapter 304.

PART 5

FILING

SECTION 92. KRS 355.9-501 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, if the local law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest or agricultural lien, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect the security interest or agricultural lien is:

(a) The office designated for the filing or recording of a record of a mortgage on the related real property, if:

1. The collateral is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut; or

2. The financing statement is filed as a fixture filing and the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures; or

(b) The office of the Secretary of State, in all other cases, including a case in which the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures and the financing statement is not filed as a fixture filing.

(2) The office in which to file a financing statement to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the Secretary of State. The financing statement also constitutes a fixture filing as to the collateral indicated in the financing statement which is or is to become fixtures.

SECTION 93. KRS 355.9-502 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a financing statement is sufficient only if it:

(a) Provides the name of the debtor;

(b) Provides the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party; and

(c) Indicates the collateral covered by the financing statement.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of Section 92 of this Act, to be sufficient, a financing statement that covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, or which is filed as a fixture filing and covers goods that are or are to become fixtures, must satisfy subsection (1) of this section and also:

(a) Indicate that it covers this type of collateral;

(b) Indicate that it is to be filed in the real property records;

(c) Provide a description of the real property to which the collateral is related; and

(d) If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real property, provide the name of a record owner.

(3) A record of a mortgage is effective, from the date of recording, as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut only if:

(a) The record indicates the goods or accounts that it covers;

(b) The goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real property described in the record or the collateral is related to the real property described in the record and is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut;

(c) The record satisfies the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than an indication that it is to be filed in the real property records; and

(d) The record is recorded.

(4) A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches.

SECTION 94. KRS 355.9-503 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A financing statement sufficiently provides the name of the debtor:

(a) If the debtor is a registered organization, only if the financing statement provides the name of the debtor indicated on the public record of the debtor's jurisdiction of organization which shows the debtor to have been organized;

(b) If the debtor is a decedent's estate, only if the financing statement provides the name of the decedent and indicates that the debtor is an estate;

(c) If the debtor is a trust or a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust, only if the financing statement:

1. Provides the name specified for the trust in its organic documents or, if no name is specified, provides the name of the settlor and additional information sufficient to distinguish the debtor from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors; and

2. Indicates, in the debtor's name or otherwise, that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust; and

(d) In other cases:

1. If the debtor has a name, only if it provides the individual or organizational name of the debtor; and

2. If the debtor does not have a name, only if it provides the names of the partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(2) A financing statement that provides the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (1) of this section is not rendered ineffective by the absence of:

(a) A trade name or other name of the debtor; or

(b) Unless required under subsection (1)(d)2. of this section, names of partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(3) A financing statement that provides only the debtor's trade name does not sufficiently provide the name of the debtor.

(4) Failure to indicate the representative capacity of a secured party or representative of a secured party does not affect the sufficiency of a financing statement.

(5) A financing statement may provide the name of more than one (1) debtor and the name of more than one (1) secured party.

SECTION 95. KRS 355.9-504 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A financing statement sufficiently indicates the collateral that it covers if the financing statement provides:

(1) A description of the collateral pursuant to Section 28 of this Act; or

(2) An indication that the financing statement covers all assets or all personal property.

SECTION 96. KRS 355.9-505 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A consignor, lessor, or other bailor of goods, a licensor, or a buyer of a payment intangible or promissory note may file a financing statement, or may comply with a statute or treaty described in subsection (1) of Section 51 of this Act, using the terms "consignor," "consignee," "lessor," "lessee," "bailor," "bailee," "licensor," "licensee," "owner," "registered owner," "buyer," "seller," or words of similar import, instead of the terms "secured party" and "debtor."

(2) This part of this article applies to the filing of a financing statement under subsection (1) of this section and, as appropriate, to compliance that is equivalent to filing a financing statement under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act, but the filing or compliance is not of itself a factor in determining whether the collateral secures an obligation. If it is determined for another reason that the collateral secures an obligation, a security interest held by the consignor, lessor, bailor, licensor, owner, or buyer which attaches to the collateral is perfected by the filing or compliance.

SECTION 97. KRS 355.9-506 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A financing statement substantially satisfying the requirements of this part of this article is effective, even if it has minor errors or omissions, unless the errors or omissions make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (1) of Section 94 of this Act is seriously misleading.

(3) If a search of the records of the filing office under the debtor's correct name, using the filing office's standard search logic, if any, would disclose a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (1) of Section 94 of this Act, the name provided does not make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(4) For purposes of subsection (2) of Section 99 of this Act, the "debtor's correct name" in subsection (3) of this section means the correct name of the new debtor.

SECTION 98. KRS 355.9-507 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section and Section 99 of this Act, a financing statement is not rendered ineffective if, after the financing statement is filed, the information provided in the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under Section 97 of this Act.

(3) If a debtor so changes its name that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading under Section 97 of this Act:

(a) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four (4) months after, the change; and

(b) The financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four (4) months after the change, unless an amendment to the financing statement which renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four (4) months after the change.

SECTION 99. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-508:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a filed financing statement naming an original debtor is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights to the extent that the financing statement would have been effective had the original debtor acquired rights in the collateral.

(2) If the difference between the name of the original debtor and that of the new debtor causes a filed financing statement that is effective under subsection (1) of this section to be seriously misleading under Section 97 of this Act:

(a) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four (4) months after, the new debtor becomes bound under subsection (4) of Section 33 of this Act; and

(b) The financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor more than four (4) months after the new debtor becomes bound under subsection (4) of Section 33 of this Act unless an initial financing statement providing the name of the new debtor is filed before the expiration of that time.

(3) This section does not apply to collateral as to which a filed financing statement remains effective against the new debtor under subsection (1) of Section 98 of this Act.

SECTION 100. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AT KRS 355.9-509:

(1) A person may file an initial financing statement, amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement, or amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

(a) The debtor authorizes the filing in an authenticated record or pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section; or

(b) The person holds an agricultural lien that has become effective at the time of filing and the financing statement covers only collateral in which the person holds an agricultural lien.

(2) By authenticating or becoming bound as debtor by a security agreement, a debtor or new debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering:

(a) The collateral described in the security agreement; and

(b) Property that becomes collateral under subsection (1)(b) of Section 55 of this Act, whether or not the security agreement expressly covers proceeds.

(3) By acquiring collateral in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues under subsection (1)(a) of Section 55 of this Act, a debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering the collateral and property that becomes collateral under subsection (1)(b) of Section 55 of this Act.

(4) A person may file an amendment other than an amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement or an amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

(a) The secured party of record authorizes the filing; or

(b) The amendment is a termination statement for a financing statement as to which the secured party of record has failed to file or send a termination statement as required by subsection (1) or (3) of Section 104 of this Act, the debtor authorizes the filing, and the termination statement indicates that the debtor authorized it to be filed.

(5) If there is more than one (1) secured party of record for a financing statement, each secured party of record may authorize the filing of an amendment under subsection (4) of this section.

SECTION 101. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-510:

(1) A filed record is effective only to the extent that it was filed by a person that may file it under Section 100 of this Act.

(2) A record authorized by one secured party of record does not affect the financing statement with respect to another secured party of record.

(3) A continuation statement that is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by subsection (4) of Section 106 of this Act is ineffective.

SECTION 102. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-511:

(1) A secured party of record with respect to a financing statement is a person whose name is provided as the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party in an initial financing statement that has been filed. If an initial financing statement is filed under subsection (1) of Section 105 of this Act, the assignee named in the initial financing statement is the secured party of record with respect to the financing statement.

(2) If an amendment of a financing statement which provides the name of a person as a secured party or a representative of a secured party is filed, the person named in the amendment is a secured party of record. If an amendment is filed under subsection (2) of Section 105 of this Act, the assignee named in the amendment is a secured party of record.

(3) A person remains a secured party of record until the filing of an amendment of the financing statement which deletes the person.

SECTION 103. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-512:

(1) Subject to Section 100 of this Act, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or, subject to subsection (5) of this section, otherwise amend the information provided in, a financing statement by filing an amendment that:

(a) Identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which the amendment relates; and

(b) If the amendment relates to an initial financing statement filed in a filing office described in subsection (1)(a) of Section 92 of this Act, provides the information specified in subsection (2) of Section 93 of this Act.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 106 of this Act, the filing of an amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of the financing statement.

(3) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds collateral is effective as to the added collateral only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(4) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds a debtor is effective as to the added debtor only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(5) An amendment is ineffective to the extent it:

(a) Purports to delete all debtors and fails to provide the name of a debtor to be covered by the financing statement; or

(b) Purports to delete all secured parties of record and fails to provide the name of a new secured party of record.

SECTION 104. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-513:

(1) A secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to file a termination statement for the financing statement if the financing statement covers consumer goods and:

(a) There is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(b) The debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(2) To comply with subsection (1) of this section, a secured party shall cause the secured party of record to file the termination statement:

(a) Within one (1) month after there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(b) If earlier, within twenty (20) days after the secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor.

(3) In cases not governed by subsection (1) of this section, within twenty (20) days after a secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor, the secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to send to the debtor a termination statement for the financing statement or file the termination statement in the filing office if:

(a) Except in the case of a financing statement covering accounts or chattel paper that has been sold or goods that are the subject of a consignment, there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value;

(b) The financing statement covers accounts or chattel paper that has been sold but as to which the account debtor or other person obligated has discharged its obligation;

(c) The financing statement covers goods that were the subject of a consignment to the debtor but are not in the debtor's possession; or

(d) The debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in Section 101 of this Act, upon the filing of a termination statement with the filing office, the financing statement to which the termination statement relates ceases to be effective. Except as otherwise provided in Section 101 of this Act, for purposes of Sections 110(7), 113(1), and 114(3), the filing with the filing office of a termination statement relating to a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility also causes the effectiveness of the financing statement to lapse.

SECTION 105. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-514:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, an initial financing statement may reflect an assignment of all of the secured party's power to authorize an amendment to the financing statement by providing the name and mailing address of the assignee as the name and address of the secured party.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a secured party of record may assign of record all or part of its power to authorize an amendment to a financing statement by filing in the filing office an amendment of the financing statement which:

(a) Identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which it relates;

(b) Provides the name of the assignor; and

(c) Provides the name and mailing address of the assignee.

(3) An assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture covered by a record of a mortgage which is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under subsection (3) of Section 93 of this Act may be made only by an assignment of record of the mortgage in the manner provided by law of this Commonwealth other than this chapter.

SECTION 106. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-515:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2), (5), (6), and (7) of this section, a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five (5) years after the date of filing.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section, an initial financing statement filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction is effective for a period of thirty (30) years after the date of filing if it indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction.

(3) The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the period of its effectiveness unless before the lapse a continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. Upon lapse, a financing statement ceases to be effective and any security interest or agricultural lien that was perfected by the financing statement becomes unperfected, unless the security interest is perfected otherwise. If the security interest or agricultural lien becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(4) A continuation statement may be filed only within six (6) months before the expiration of the five (5) year period specified in subsection (1) of this section or the thirty (30) year period specified in subsection (2) of this section, whichever is applicable.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in Section 101 of this Act, upon timely filing of a continuation statement, the effectiveness of the initial financing statement continues for a period of five (5) years commencing on the day on which the financing statement would have become ineffective in the absence of the filing. Upon the expiration of the five (5) year period, the financing statement lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (3) of this section, unless, before the lapse, another continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the initial financing statement.

(6) If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed.

(7) A record of a mortgage that is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under subsection (3) of Section 93 of this Act remains effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real property.

SECTION 107. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-516:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, communication of a record to a filing office and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the record by the filing office constitutes filing.

(2) Filing does not occur with respect to a record that a filing office refuses to accept because:

(a) The record is not communicated by a method or medium of communication authorized by the filing office;

(b) An amount equal to or greater than the applicable filing fee is not tendered;

(c) The filing office is unable to index the record because:

1. In the case of an initial financing statement, the record does not provide a name for the debtor;

2. In the case of an amendment or correction statement, the record:

a. Does not identify the initial financing statement as required by Section 103 or 109 of this Act, as applicable; or

b. Identifies an initial financing statement whose effectiveness has lapsed under Section 106 of this Act;

3. In the case of an initial financing statement that provides the name of a debtor identified as an individual or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor identified as an individual which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates, the record does not identify the debtor's last name; or

4. In the case of a record filed in the filing office described in subsection (1)(a) of Section 92 of this Act, the record does not provide a sufficient description of the real property to which it relates;

(d) In the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that adds a secured party of record, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the secured party of record;

(e) In the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record does not:

1. Provide a mailing address for the debtor;

2. Indicate whether the debtor is an individual or an organization; or

3. If the financing statement indicates that the debtor is an organization, provide:

a. A type of organization for the debtor;

b. A jurisdiction of organization for the debtor; or

c. An organizational identification number for the debtor or indicate that the debtor has none;

(f) In the case of an assignment reflected in an initial financing statement under subsection (1) of Section 105 of this Act or an amendment filed under subsection (2) of Section 105 of this Act, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the assignee; or

(g) In the case of a continuation statement, the record is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by subsection (4) of Section 106 of this Act.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2) of this section:

(a) A record does not provide information if the filing office is unable to read or decipher the information; and

(b) A record that does not indicate that it is an amendment or identify an initial financing statement to which it relates, as required by Section 103, 105, or 109 of this Act, is an initial financing statement.

(4) A record that is communicated to the filing office with tender of the filing fee, but which the filing office refuses to accept for a reason other than one set forth in subsection (2) of this section, is effective as a filed record except as against a purchaser of the collateral which gives value in reasonable reliance upon the absence of the record from the files.

SECTION 108. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-517:

The failure of the filing office to index a record correctly does not affect the effectiveness of the filed record.

SECTION 109. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-518:

(1) A person may file in the filing office a correction statement with respect to a record indexed there under the person's name if the person believes that the record is inaccurate or was wrongfully filed.

(2) A correction statement must:

(a) Identify the record to which it relates by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates;

(b) Indicate that it is a correction statement; and

(c) Provide the basis for the person's belief that the record is inaccurate and indicate the manner in which the person believes the record should be amended to cure any inaccuracy or provide the basis for the person's belief that the record was wrongfully filed.

(3) The filing of a correction statement does not affect the effectiveness of an initial financing statement or other filed record.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, the filing office shall:

(b) Index a record that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates also according to the name that was not previously provided.

(4) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index it:

(a) Under the names of the debtor and of each owner of record shown on the financing statement as if they were the mortgagors under a mortgage of the real property described; and

(b) To the extent that the law of this Commonwealth provides for indexing of records of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or, if indexing is by description, as if the financing statement were a record of a mortgage of the real property described.

(5) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index an assignment filed under subsection (1) of Section 105 of this Act or an amendment filed under subsection (2) of Section 105 of this Act:

(a) Under the name of the assignor as grantor; and

(b) To the extent that the law of this Commonwealth provides for indexing a record of the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, under the name of the assignee.

(6) The filing office shall maintain a capability:

(8) The filing office shall perform the acts required by subsections (1) to (5) of this section at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule, but not later than two (2) business days after the filing office receives the record in question.

(9) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to a filing office described in subsection (1)(a) of Section 92 of this Act.

The communication must be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule but in no event more than two (2) business days after the filing office receives the record.

(3) A filed financing statement satisfying subsections (1) and (2) of Section 93 of this Act is effective, even if the filing office is required to refuse to accept it for filing under subsection (1) of this section. However, Section 78 of this Act applies to a filed financing statement providing information described in subsection (2)(e) of Section 107 of this Act which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed.

(4) If a record communicated to a filing office provides information that relates to more than one (1) debtor, this part of this article applies as to each debtor separately.

The record must be retrievable by using the name of the debtor and by using the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates.

(2) Except to the extent that a statute governing disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing office immediately may destroy any written record evidencing a financing statement. However, if the filing office destroys a written record, it shall maintain another record of the financing statement which complies with subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 114. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-523:

A secured party that applies or pays over for application noncash proceeds shall do so in a commercially reasonable manner.

(d) A secured party shall account to and pay a debtor for any surplus, and the obligor is liable for any deficiency.

(4) A debtor whose deficiency is eliminated under Section 144 of this Act may recover damages for the loss of any surplus. However, a debtor or secondary obligor whose deficiency is eliminated or reduced under Section 144 of this Act may not otherwise recover under subsection (2) of this section for noncompliance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(5) In addition to any damages recoverable under subsection (2) of this section, the debtor, consumer obligor, or person named as a debtor in a filed record, as applicable, may recover five hundred dollars ($500) in each case from a person that:

- (a) Fails to comply with Section 38 of this Act;
- (b) Fails to comply with Section 39 of this Act;
- (c) Files a record that the person is not entitled to file under subsection (1) of Section 100 of this Act;
- (d) Fails to cause the secured party of record to file or send a termination statement as required by subsection (1) or (3) of Section 104 of this Act;
- (e) Fails to comply with subsection (2)(a) of Section 134 of this Act and whose failure is part of a pattern, or consistent with a practice, of noncompliance; or
- (f) Fails to comply with subsection (2)(b) of Section 134 of this Act.

(6) A debtor or consumer obligor may recover damages under subsection (2) of this section and, in addition, five hundred dollars ($500) in each case from a person that, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with a request under Section 40 of this Act. A recipient of a request under Section 40 of this Act which never claimed an interest in the collateral or obligations that are the subject of a request under that section has a reasonable excuse for failure to comply with the request within the meaning of this subsection.

(7) If a secured party fails to comply with a request regarding a list of collateral or a statement of account under Section 40 of this Act, the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the list or statement included in the request as against a person that is reasonably misled by the failure.

SECTION 144. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-626:

(1) In an action arising from a transaction, other than a consumer transaction, in which the amount of a deficiency or surplus is in issue, the following rules apply:

(a) A secured party need not prove compliance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance unless the debtor or a secondary obligor places the secured party's compliance in issue.

(b) If the secured party's compliance is placed in issue, the secured party has the burden of establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with this part of this article.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 146 of this Act, if a secured party fails to prove that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance, the liability of a debtor or a secondary obligor for a deficiency is limited to an amount by which the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees exceeds the greater of:

1. The proceeds of the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance; or

2. The amount of proceeds that would have been realized had the noncomplying secured party proceeded in accordance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(d) For purposes of paragraph (c)2. of this subsection, the amount of proceeds that would have been realized is equal to the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees unless the secured party proves that the amount is less than that sum.

(e) If a deficiency or surplus is calculated under subsection (6) of Section 133 of this Act, the debtor or obligor has the burden of establishing that the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of prices that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.

(2) The limitation of the rules in subsection (1) of this section to transactions other than consumer transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in consumer transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

SECTION 145. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-627:

(1) The fact that a greater amount could have been obtained by a collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to preclude the secured party from establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was made in a commercially reasonable manner.

(2) A disposition of collateral is made in a commercially reasonable manner if the disposition is made:

(a) In the usual manner on any recognized market;

(b) At the price current in any recognized market at the time of the disposition; or

(c) Otherwise in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property that was the subject of the disposition.

(3) A collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is commercially reasonable if it has been approved:

(a) In a judicial proceeding;

(b) By a bona fide creditors' committee;

(c) By a representative of creditors; or

(d) By an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

(4) Approval under subsection (3) of this section need not be obtained, and lack of approval does not mean that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is not commercially reasonable.

SECTION 146. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-628:

(1) Unless a secured party knows that a person is a debtor or obligor, knows the identity of the person, and knows how to communicate with the person:

(a) The secured party is not liable to the person, or to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against the person, for failure to comply with this article; and

(b) The secured party's failure to comply with this article does not affect the liability of the person for a deficiency.

(2) A secured party is not liable because of its status as secured party:

(a) To a person that is a debtor or obligor, unless the secured party knows:

1. That the person is a debtor or obligor;

2. The identity of the person; and

3. How to communicate with the person; or

(b) To a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against a person, unless the secured party knows:

1. That the person is a debtor; and

2. The identity of the person.

(3) A secured party is not liable to any person, and a person's liability for a deficiency is not affected, because of any act or omission arising out of the secured party's reasonable belief that a transaction is not a consumer-goods transaction or a consumer transaction or that goods are not consumer goods, if the secured party's belief is based on its reasonable reliance on:

(a) A debtor's representation concerning the purpose for which collateral was to be used, acquired, or held; or

(b) An obligor's representation concerning the purpose for which a secured obligation was incurred.

(4) A secured party is not liable to any person under subsection (3)(b) of Section 143 of this Act for its failure to comply with Section 134 of this Act.

(5) A secured party is not liable under subsection (3)(b) of Section 143 of this Act more than once with respect to any one (1) secured obligation.

PART 7

TRANSITION

SECTION 147. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS 355.9-701:

This article takes effect on July 1, 2001.

SECTION 148. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-702:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this part of this article, the revision of Article 9 in this Act applies to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before this Act takes effect.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section and Sections 149 to 155 of this Act:

(a) Transactions and liens that were not governed by the former Article 9 of this chapter, were validly entered into or created before the revision of Article 9 in this Act takes effect, and would be subject to the revision of Article 9 in this Act if they had been entered into or created after this Act takes effect, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from those transactions and liens remain valid after this Act takes effect; and

(b) The transactions and liens may be terminated, completed, consummated, and enforced as required or permitted by the revision of Article 9 in this Act or by the law that otherwise would apply if this Act had not taken effect.

(3) The revision of Article 9 in this Act does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before this Act takes effect.

SECTION 149. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-703:

(1) A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this Act takes effect and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time is a perfected security interest under the revision of Article 9 in this Act if, when this Act takes effect, the applicable requirements for enforceability and perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are satisfied without further action.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 151 of this Act, if, immediately before this Act takes effect, a security interest is enforceable and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time, but the applicable requirements for enforceability or perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are not satisfied when this Act takes effect, the security interest:

(a) Is a perfected security interest for one (1) year after this Act takes effect;

(b) Remains enforceable thereafter only if the security interest becomes enforceable under Section 33 of this Act before the year expires; and

(c) Remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are satisfied before the year expires.

SECTION 150. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-704:

A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this Act takes effect but which would be subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time:

(1) Remains an enforceable security interest for one (1) year after this Act takes effect;

(2) Remains enforceable thereafter if the security interest becomes enforceable under Section 33 of this Act when this Act takes effect or within one (1) year thereafter; and

(3) Becomes perfected:

(a) Without further action, when this Act takes effect if the applicable requirements for perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are satisfied before or at that time; or

(b) When the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

SECTION 151. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-705:

(1) If action, other than the filing of a financing statement, is taken before this Act takes effect and the action would have resulted in priority of a security interest over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor had the security interest become enforceable before this Act takes effect, the action is effective to perfect a security interest that attaches under the revision of Article 9 in this Act within one (1) year after this Act takes effect. An attached security interest becomes unperfected one (1) year after this Act takes effect unless the security interest becomes a perfected security interest under the revision of Article 9 in this Act before the expiration of that period.

(2) The filing of a financing statement before this Act takes effect is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act.

(3) The revision of Article 9 in this Act does not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before this Act takes effect, is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in the former KRS 355.9-103, or law determining the place of filing as provided in the former KRS 355.9-401. However, except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section and Section 152 of this Act, the financing statement ceases to be effective at the earlier of:

(a) The time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is filed; or

(b) June 30, 2006.

(4) The filing of a continuation statement after this Act takes effect does not continue the effectiveness of the financing statement filed before this Act takes effect. However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after this Act takes effect and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 of this article, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before this Act takes effect continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

(5) Subsection (3)(b) of this section applies to a financing statement that, before this Act takes effect, is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in the former KRS 355.9-103 only to the extent that Part 3 of this article provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

(6) A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before this Act takes effect and a continuation statement filed after this Act takes effect is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of Part 5 of this article for an initial financing statement.

SECTION 152. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-706:

(1) The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this Act takes effect if:

(a) The filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under the revision of Article 9 in this Act;

(b) The pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another state or another office in this Commonwealth; and

(c) The initial financing statement satisfies subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The filing of an initial financing statement under subsection (1) of this section continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective-date financing statement:

(a) If the initial financing statement is filed before this Act takes effect, for the period provided in the former KRS 355.9-403 with respect to a financing statement; and

(b) If the initial financing statement is filed after this Act takes effect, for the period provided in Section 106 of this Act with respect to an initial financing statement.

(3) To be effective for purposes of subsection (1) of this section, an initial financing statement must:

(a) Satisfy the requirements of Part 5 of this article for an initial financing statement;

(b) Identify the pre-effective-date financing statement by indicating the office in which the financing statement was filed and providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of the financing statement and of the most recent continuation statement filed with respect to the financing statement; and

(c) Indicate that the pre-effective-date financing statement remains effective.

(4) When a secured party files an initial financing statement with the Secretary of State under subsection (1) of this section or under Section 153 of this Act, the secured party may send a copy of the initial financing statement to the county clerk of the county in which the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed, and, additionally, may send to the county clerk copies of any continuation statement subsequently filed with the Secretary of State that relates to an initial financing statement filed under subsection (1) of this section or under Section 153 of this Act. The secured party's election not to send a copy of an initial financing statement or a continuation statement to the county clerk does not affect in any way the perfection of the secured party's security interest. The county clerk shall append to the pre-effective-date financing statement the copy of any initial financing statement or continuation statement received from a secured party and shall retain the entire file as required by Section 156 of this Act.

SECTION 153. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-707:

(1) In this section, "pre-effective-date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before the effective date of this Act.

(2) After the effective date of this Act, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend information provided in, a pre-effective-date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 of this Article. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, if the law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective-date financing statement may be amended after the effective date of this Act only if:

(a) The pre-effective-date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act;

(b) An amendment is filed in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies subsection (3) of Section 152 of this Act; or

(c) An initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies subsection (3) of Section 152 of this Act is filed in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act.

(4) If the law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement may be continued only under subsections (4) and (6) of Section 151 of this Act or Section 152 of this Act.

(5) Whether or not the law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement filed in this Commonwealth may be terminated after the effective date of this Act by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective-date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies subsection (3) of Section 152 of this Act has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 of this Article as the office in which to file a financing statement.

SECTION 154. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-708:

A person may file an initial financing statement or a continuation statement under this part of this article if:

(1) The secured party of record authorizes the filing; and

(2) The filing is necessary under this part of this article:

(a) To continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this Act takes effect; or

(b) To perfect or continue the perfection of a security interest.

SECTION 155. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-709:

(1) The revision of Article 9 in this Act determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. However, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before this Act takes effect, the former Article 9 of this chapter determines priority.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1) of Section 62 of this Act, the priority of a security interest that becomes enforceable under Section 33 of this Act dates from the time this Act takes effect if the security interest is perfected under the revision of Article 9 in this Act by the filing of a financing statement before this Act takes effect which would not have been effective to perfect the security interest under the former Article 9 of this chapter. This subsection does not apply to conflicting security interests each of which is perfected by the filing of such a financing statement.

SECTION 156. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-710:

(1) To compensate the county clerks for the services provided under this section and under subsection (4) of Section 152 of this Act, the Secretary of State shall distribute to the county clerks of this Commonwealth an amount equal to one-half (1/2) the fees collected by the Secretary of State under subsection (1) of Section 116 of this Act. The Secretary of State shall distribute the fees equal to, as nearly as possible, the percentage that the fees collected by each county clerk under Part 4 of the former Article 9 for the calendar year 1999 bear to the total fees collected thereunder by all county clerks for the calendar year 1999. The percentage allocations shall be based upon the fee collection information for calendar year 1999 provided by each county clerk to the Secretary of State on or prior to April 30, 2001. The Secretary of State shall distribute the percentage allocations from time to time, as the Secretary of State may so determine, but no less frequently than semiannually and commencing no later than March 30, 2002.

(2) A county clerk who receives a statement tendered by a secured party under Part 4 of the former Article 9, prior to the effective date of this Act, that has not been filed or indexed on the effective date of this Act, shall file and index the statement as soon as practicable.

(3) Every county clerk shall append to the pre-effective-date financing statement the copies of any initial financing statement or continuation statement received from a secured party under subsection (4) of Section 152 of this Act.

(4) The county clerk shall maintain all records filed under Part 4 of the former Article 9 and subsection (3) of this section until the later of:

  (a) One (1) year after the lapse of the initial financing statement;

  (b) July 1, 2008; or

  (c) Such other record-retention requirement as may be applicable under other Kentucky law or administrative regulations.

(5) The county clerk shall respond to requests for information with respect to records maintained under this Article in accordance with subsections (3) and (4) of Section 114 of this Act and may charge the fee for issuing certificates authorized in Section 116 of this Act.

(6) When Internet access is available through the AVIS system or its successor, every county clerk shall provide a means within his or her office by which the Secretary of State's filing system for this Article can be searched and through which electronic filings under this Article can be made with the Secretary of State. This subsection shall not be construed to require a secured party to file through the means provided by a county clerk. The county clerk shall neither be required to conduct a search of the Secretary of State's filing system nor to issue a certificate as to the contents of the system.

SEGMENT D

CONFORMING AMENDMENTS FOR REVISED ARTICLE 9

Section 157. KRS 355.1-201 is amended to read as follows:

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent articles of this chapter which are applicable to specific articles or parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this chapter (KRS 355.1-205 and 355.2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this chapter, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (KRS 355.1-103). (Compare "Contract.")

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person that buys goods~~[who]~~ in good faith,~~[and]~~ without knowledge that the sale violates~~[to him is in violation of]~~ the~~[ownership]~~ rights~~[or security interest]~~ of another person~~[a third party]~~ in the goods, and~~[buys]~~ in the ordinary course from a person, other than a pawnbroker, in the business of selling goods of that kind~~[but does not include a pawnbroker]~~. A person buys goods in the ordinary course if the sale to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the seller is engaged or with the seller's own usual or customary practices. A person that sells oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead is a person~~[All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons]~~ in the business of selling goods of that kind. A buyer in ordinary course of business~~["Buying"]~~ may buy~~[be]~~ for cash,~~[or]~~ by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit, and may acquire~~[includes receiving]~~ goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale~~[but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt]~~. Only a buyer that takes possession of the goods or has a right to recover the goods from the seller under Article 2 of this chapter may be a buyer in ordinary course of business. A person that acquires goods in a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt is not a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: NONNEGOTIABLE BILL OF LADING) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous." Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this chapter and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement.")

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this chapter to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder" with respect to a negotiable instrument, means the person in possession if the instrument is payable to bearer or, in the case of an instrument payable to an identified person, if the identified person is in possession. "Holder" with respect to a document of title means the person in possession if the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government and includes a monetary unit of account established by an intergovernmental organization or by agreement between two (2) or more nations.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when

(a) He has actual knowledge of it; or

(b) He has received a notice or notification of it; or

(c) From all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.

A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this chapter.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when

(a) It comes to his attention; or

(b) It is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two (2) or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party," as distinct from "third party," means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this chapter.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See KRS 355.1-102).

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, security interest, issue or reissue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation.~~[The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (KRS 355.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest."]~~ The term also includes any interest of a consignor and a buyer of accounts,~~[or]~~ chattel paper, a payment intangible, or a promissory note in a transaction that~~[which]~~ is subject to Article 9 of this chapter. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of those goods to a contract for sale under KRS 355.2-401 is not a "security interest," but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9 of this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in KRS 355.2-505, the right of a seller or lessor of goods under Article 2 or 2A of this chapter to retain or acquire possession of the goods is not a "security interest," but a seller or lessor may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9 of this chapter. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (KRS 355.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest."~~[Unless a consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest", but a consignment in any event is subject to the provisions on consignment sales (KRS 355.2-326).]~~

Whether a transaction creates a lease or security interest is determined by the facts of each case; however, a transaction creates a security interest if the consideration the lessee is to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is an obligation for the term of the lease not subject to termination by the lessee; and

(a) The original term of the lease is equal to or greater than the remaining economic life of the goods;

(b) The lessee is bound to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods or is bound to become the owner of the goods;

(c) The lessee has an option to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement; or

(d) The lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement.

A transaction does not create a security interest merely because it provides that:

(a) The present value of the consideration the lessee is obligated to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is substantially equal to or is greater than the fair market value of the goods at the time the lease is entered into;

(b) The lessee assumes risk of loss of the goods, or agrees to pay taxes, insurance, filing, recording, or registration fees, or service or maintenance costs with respect to the goods;

(c) The lessee has an option to renew the lease or to become the owner of the goods;

(d) The lessee has an option to renew the lease for a fixed rent that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal at the time the option is to be performed; or

(e) The lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for a fixed price that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market value of the goods at the time the option is to be performed.

For purposes of this subsection (37):

(x) Additional consideration is not nominal if (i) when the option to renew the lease is granted to the lessee the rent is stated to be the fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal determined at the time the option is to be performed, or (ii) when the option to become the owner of the goods is granted to the lessee the price is stated to be the fair market value of the goods determined at the time the option is to be performed. Additional consideration is nominal if it is less than the lessee's reasonably predictable cost of performing under the lease agreement if the option is not exercised;

(y) "Reasonably predictable" and "remaining economic life of the goods" are to be determined with reference to the facts and circumstances at the time the transaction is entered into; and

(z) "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one (1) or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate is not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction is entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature means one made without actual, implied, or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

(44) "Value," except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (KRS 355.3-303, 355.4-210, and 355.4-211) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them

(a) In return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

(b) As security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing claim; or

(c) By accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or

(d) Generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

Section 159. KRS 355.2-210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A party may perform his duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having his original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 88 of this Act, unless otherwise agreed, all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignment would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden or risk imposed on him by his contract, or impair materially his chance of obtaining return performance. A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of his entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

(3) The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the seller's interest under a contract is not a transfer that materially changes the duty of or increases materially the burden or risk imposed on the buyer or impairs materially the buyer's chance of obtaining return performance within the purview of subsection (2) of this section unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the seller. Even in that event, the creation, attachment, perfection, and enforcement of the security interest remain effective, but:

(a) The seller is liable to the buyer for damages caused by the delegation to the extent that the damages could not reasonably be prevented by the buyer; and

(b) A court having jurisdiction may grant other appropriate relief, including cancellation of the contract for sale or an injunction against enforcement of the security interest or consummation of the enforcement.

(4) Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.

(5)[~~(4)~~]An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by him to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract.

(6)[~~(5)~~]The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to his rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (KRS 355.2-609).

Section 160. KRS 355.2-326 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is

(a) a "sale on approval" if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and

(b) a "sale or return" if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.

(2) [~~Except as provided in subsection (3),~~]Goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer's creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer's possession.

(3)[~~Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which he deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as "on consignment" or "on memorandum." However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery~~

~~(a) complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor's interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or~~

~~(b) establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by his creditors to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or~~

~~(c) complies with the filing provisions of the article on secured transactions (Article 9).~~

~~(4)~~] Any "or return" term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this article (KRS 355.2-201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this article on parol or extrinsic evidence (KRS 355.2-202).

Section 161. KRS 355.2-502 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to subsections[~~subsection~~] (2) and (3) of this section and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which he has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if:

(a) In the case of goods bought for personal, family, or household purposes, the seller repudiates or fails to deliver as required by contract; or

(b) In all cases, the seller becomes insolvent within ten (10) days after receipt of the first installment on their price.

(2) The buyer's right to recover the goods under subsection (1)(a) of this section vests upon acquisition of a special property, even if the seller had not then repudiated or failed to deliver.

(3) If the identification creating his special property has been made by the buyer he acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale.

Section 162. KRS 355.2-716 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(2) The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just.

(3) The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort he is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered. In the case of goods bought for personal, family, or household purposes, the buyer's right of replevin vests upon acquisition of a special property, even if the seller had not then repudiated or failed to deliver.

Section 163. KRS 355.2A-103 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In this article unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods, buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(b) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the lease contract for default by the other party.

(c) "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of lease and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article, as a machine, or a set of articles, as a suite of furniture or a line of machinery, or a quantity, as a gross or carload, or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

(d) "Conforming" goods or performance under a lease contract means goods or performance that are in accordance with the obligations under the lease contract.

(e) "Consumer lease" means a lease that a lessor regularly engaged in the business of leasing or selling makes to a lessee who is an individual and who takes under the lease primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.

(f) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission, breach, or default.

(g) "Finance lease" means a lease with respect to which:

1. The lessor does not select, manufacture, or supply the goods;

2. The lessor acquires the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods in connection with the lease; and

3. One of the following occurs:

a. The lessee receives a copy of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods before signing the lease contract;

b. The lessee's approval of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods is a condition to effectiveness of the lease contract;

c. The lessee, before signing the lease contract, receives an accurate and complete statement designating the promises and warranties, and any disclaimers of warranties, limitations or modifications of remedies, or liquidated damages, including those of a third party, such as the manufacturer of the goods, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; or

d. If the lease is not a consumer lease, the lessor, before the lessee signs the lease contract, informs the lessee in writing (a) of the identity of the person supplying the goods to the lessor, unless the lessee has selected that person and directed the lessor to acquire the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods from that person, (b) that the lessee is entitled under this article to the promises and warranties, including those of any third party, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods, and (c) that the lessee may communicate with the person supplying the goods to the lessor and receive an accurate and complete statement of those promises and warranties, including any disclaimers and limitations of them or of remedies.

(h) "Goods" means all things that are movable at the time of identification to the lease contract, or are fixtures (KRS 355.2A-309), but the term does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like, including oil and gas, before extraction. The term also includes the unborn young of animals.

(i) "Installment lease contract" means a lease contract that authorizes or requires the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the lease contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate lease" or its equivalent.

(j) "Lease" means a transfer of the right to possession and use of goods for a term in return for consideration, but a sale, including a sale on approval or a sale or return, or retention or creation of a security interest is not a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease.

(k) "Lease agreement" means the bargain, with respect to the lease, of the lessor and the lessee in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this article. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease agreement.

(l) "Lease contract" means the total legal obligation that results from the lease agreement as affected by this article and any other applicable rules of law. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease contract.

(m) "Leasehold interest" means the interest of the lessor or the lessee under a lease contract.

(n) "Lessee" means a person who acquires the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessee.

(o) "Lessee in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the lease to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods leases in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling or leasing goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. "Leasing" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing lease contract but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(p) "Lessor" means a person who transfers the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessor.

(q) "Lessor's residual interest" means the lessor's interest in the goods after expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract.

(r) "Lien" means a charge against or interest in goods to secure payment of a debt or performance of an obligation, but the term does not include a security interest.

(s) "Lot" means a parcel or a single article that is the subject matter of a separate lease or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the lease contract.

(t) "Merchant lessee" means a lessee that is a merchant with respect to goods of the kind subject to the lease.

(u) "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one (1) or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate was not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction was entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

(v) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods.

(w) "Sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease.

(x) "Supplier" means a person from whom a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased under a finance lease.

(y) "Supply contract" means a contract under which a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased.

(z) "Termination" occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the lease contract otherwise than for default.

(4) In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

Section 164. KRS 355.2A-303 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "creation of a security interest" includes the sale of a lease contract that is subject to Article 9, Secured Transactions, by reason of subsection (1)(c) of Section 29 of this Act[~~KRS 355.9-102(1)(b)~~].

(2) Except as provided in subsection[~~subsections~~] (3) of this section and Section 89 of this Act[~~(4)~~], a provision in a lease agreement which (i) prohibits the voluntary or involuntary transfer, including a transfer by sale, sublease, creation, or enforcement of a security interest, or attachment, levy, or other judicial process, of an interest of a party under the lease contract or of the lessor's residual interest in the goods, or (ii) makes such a transfer an event of default, gives rise to the rights and remedies provided in subsection (4) of this section[~~(5)~~], but a transfer that is prohibited or is an event of default under the lease agreement is otherwise effective.

(3)[~~ A provision in a lease agreement which (i) prohibits the creation or enforcement of a security interest in an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods, or (ii) makes such a transfer an event of default, is not enforceable unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the provision or an actual delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the provision. Neither the granting nor the enforcement of a security interest in (i) the lessor's interest under the lease contract or (ii) the lessor's residual interest in the goods is a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on, the lessee within the purview of subsection (5) unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual delegation of a material performance of the lessor.~~

~~(4)~~] A provision in a lease agreement which (i) prohibits a transfer of a right to damages for default with respect to the whole lease contract or of a right to payment arising out of the transferor's due performance of the transferor's entire obligation, or (ii) makes such a transfer an event of default, is not enforceable, and such a transfer is not a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on, the other party to the lease contract within the purview of subsection (5).

(4)[~~(5)~~]Subject to subsection[~~subsections~~] (3) of this section and Section 89 of this Act[~~(4)~~]:

(a) If a transfer is made which is made an event of default under a lease agreement, the party to the lease contract not making the transfer, unless that party waives the default or otherwise agrees, has the rights and remedies described in KRS 355.2A-501(2);

(b) If paragraph (a) is not applicable and if a transfer is made that (i) is prohibited under a lease agreement or (ii) materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on, the other party to the lease contract, unless the party not making the transfer agrees at any time to the transfer in the lease contract or otherwise, then, except as limited by contract, (i) the transferor is liable to the party not making the transfer for damages caused by the transfer to the extent that the damages could not reasonably be prevented by the party not making the transfer and (ii) a court having jurisdiction may grant other appropriate relief, including cancellation of the lease contract or an injunction against the transfer.

(5)[~~(6)~~]A transfer of "the lease" or of "all my rights under the lease", or a transfer in similar general terms, is a transfer of rights and, unless the language or the circumstances, as in a transfer for security, indicate the contrary, the transfer is a delegation of duties by the transferor to the transferee. Acceptance by the transferee constitutes a promise by the transferee to perform those duties. The promise is enforceable by either the transferor or the other party to the lease contract.

(6)[~~(7)~~]Unless otherwise agreed by the lessor and the lessee, a delegation of performance does not relieve the transferor as against the other party of any duty to perform or of any liability for default.

(7)[~~(8)~~]In a consumer lease, to prohibit the transfer of an interest of a party under the lease contract or to make a transfer an event of default, the language must be specific, by a writing, and conspicuous.

Section 165. KRS 355.2A-307 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 355.2A-306, a creditor of a lessee takes subject to the lease contract.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection[~~subsections~~] (3)[~~ and (4)~~] of this section and in KRS 355.2A-306 and 355.2A-

308, a creditor of a lessor takes subject to the lease contract unless~~[;~~

~~(a)~~] the creditor holds a lien that attached to the goods before the lease contract became enforceable~~[;~~

~~(b) The creditor holds a security interest in the goods and the lessee did not give value and receive delivery of the goods without knowledge of the security interest; or~~

~~(c) The creditor holds a security interest in the goods which was perfected (KRS 355.9-303) before the lease contract became enforceable~~].

(3) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 57, 61, and 63 of this Act, a lessee takes a leasehold interest subject to a security interest held by a creditor of the lessor~~[A lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor even though the security interest is perfected (KRS 355.9-303) and the lessee knows of its existence.~~

~~(4) A lessee other than a lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the lease or more than forty-five (45) days after the lease contract becomes enforceable, whichever first occurs, unless the future advances are made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period~~].

Section 166. KRS 355.2A-309 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In this section:

(a) Goods are "fixtures" when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law;

(b) A "fixture filing" is the filing, in the office where a record of a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded, of a financing statement covering goods that are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of Section 93 of this Act~~[KRS 355.9-402(5)]~~;

(c) A lease is a "purchase money lease" unless the lessee has possession or use of the goods or the right to possession or use of the goods before the lease agreement is enforceable;

(d) A mortgage is a "construction mortgage" to the extent it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates; and

(e) "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests.

(2) Under this article a lease may be of goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures, but no lease exists under this article of ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(3) This article does not prevent creation of a lease of fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

(4) The perfected interest of a lessor of fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) The lease is a purchase money lease, the conflicting interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within ten (10) days thereafter, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

(b) The interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the lessor's interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate.

(5) The interest of a lessor of fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) The fixtures are readily removable factory or office machines, readily removable equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real estate, or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances that are goods subject to a consumer lease, and before the goods become fixtures the lease contract is enforceable; or

(b) The conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the lease contract is enforceable; or

(c) The encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the lease or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(d) The lessee has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the lessee's right to remove terminates, the priority of the interest of the lessor continues for a reasonable time.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4)(a) but otherwise subject to subsections (4) and (5), the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent given to refinance a construction mortgage, the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the encumbrancer of the real estate under the construction mortgage.

(7) In cases not within the preceding subsections, priority between the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, and the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee is determined by the priority rules governing conflicting interests in real estate.

(8) If the interest of a lessor of fixtures including the lessor's residual interest, has priority over all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, the lessor or the lessee may:

(a) On default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease agreement but subject to the lease agreement and this article; or remove the goods from the real estate, free and clear of all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, but the lessor or lessee must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

(b) If necessary to enforce other rights and remedies of the lessor or lessee under this article;

(9) Even though the lease agreement does not create a security interest, the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, is perfected by filing a financing statement as a fixture filing for leased goods that are or are to become fixtures in accordance with the relevant provisions of the article on secured transactions (Article 9).

Section 167. KRS 355.4-210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A collecting bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:

(a) In case of an item deposited in an account, to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;

(b) In case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given, whether or not the credit is drawn upon or there is a right of charge-back; or

(c) If it makes an advance on or against the item.

(2) If credit given for several items received at one (1) time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part, the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(3) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents, and proceeds. So long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues to that extent and is subject to Article 9 of this chapter, but:

(a) No security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection (2)(c)1. of Section 33 of this Act)~~[(KRS 355.9-203(1)(a))]~~; and

(b) No filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(c) The security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents, or proceeds.

Section 168. KRS 355.7-503 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A document of title confers no right in goods against a person who before issuance of the document had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in them and who neither

(a) delivered or entrusted them or any document of title covering them to the bailor or his nominee with actual or apparent authority to ship, store or sell or with power to obtain delivery under this article (KRS 355.7-403) or with power of disposition under this chapter (KRS 355.2-403 and Section 60 of this Act~~[355.9-307]~~) or other statute or rule of law; nor

(b) acquiesced in the procurement by the bailor or his nominee of any document of title.

(2) Title to goods based upon an unaccepted delivery order is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt or bill of lading covering the goods has been duly negotiated. Such a title may be defeated under KRS 355.7-504 to the same extent as the rights of the issuer or a transferee from the issuer.

(3) Title to goods based upon a bill of lading issued to a freight forwarder is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a bill issued by the freight forwarder is duly negotiated; but delivery by the carrier in accordance with part 4 of this article pursuant to its own bill of lading discharges the carrier's obligation to deliver.

Section 169. KRS 355.8-103 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A share or similar equity interest issued by a corporation, business trust, joint stock company, or similar entity is a security.

(2) An "investment company security" is a security. "Investment company security" means a share or similar equity interest issued by an entity that is registered as an investment company under the federal investment company laws, an interest in a unit investment trust that is so registered, or a face-amount certificate issued by a face-amount certificate company that is so registered. Investment company security does not include an insurance policy or endowment policy or annuity contract issued by an insurance company.

(3) An interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets, its terms expressly provide that it is a security governed by this article, or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.

(4) A writing that is a security certificate is governed by this article and not by Article 3 of this chapter, even though it also meets the requirements of that article. However, a negotiable instrument governed by Article 3 of this chapter is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.

(5) An option or similar obligation issued by a clearing corporation to its participants is not a security, but is a financial asset.

(6) A commodity contract, as defined in subsection (1)(o) of Section 22 of this Act[~~KRS 355.9-115~~], is not a security or a financial asset.

Section 170. KRS 355.8-106 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A purchaser has "control" of a certificated security in bearer form if the certificated security is delivered to the purchaser.

(2) A purchaser has "control" of a certificated security in registered form if the certificated security is delivered to the purchaser, and:

- (a) The certificate is indorsed to the purchaser or in blank by an effective indorsement; or
- (b) The certificate is registered in the name of the purchaser, upon original issue or registration of transfer by the issuer.

(3) A purchaser has "control" of an uncertificated security if:

- (a) The uncertificated security is delivered to the purchaser; or
- (b) The issuer has agreed that it will comply with instructions originated by the purchaser without further consent by the registered owner.

(4) A purchaser has "control" of a security entitlement if:

- (a) The purchaser becomes the entitlement holder;[~~ or~~]
- (b) The securities intermediary has agreed that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by the purchaser without further consent by the entitlement holder; or
- (c) Another person has control of the security entitlement on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously acquired control of the security entitlement, acknowledges that it has control on behalf of the purchaser.

(5) If an interest in a security entitlement is granted by the entitlement holder to the entitlement holder's own securities intermediary, the securities intermediary has control.

(6) A purchaser who has satisfied the requirements of subsection (3)[~~(b)~~] or (4)[~~(b)~~] of this section has control, even if the registered owner in the case of subsection (3)[~~(b)~~] of this section or the entitlement holder in the case of subsection (4)[~~(b)~~] of this section retains the right to make substitutions for the uncertificated security or security entitlement, to originate instructions or entitlement orders to the issuer or securities intermediary, or otherwise to deal with the uncertificated security or security entitlement.

(7) An issuer or a securities intermediary may not enter into an agreement of the kind described in subsection (3)(b) or (4)(b) of this section without the consent of the registered owner or entitlement holder, but an issuer or a securities intermediary is not required to enter into such an agreement even though the registered owner or entitlement holder so directs. An issuer or securities intermediary that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another party unless requested to do so by the registered owner or entitlement holder.

Section 171. KRS 355.8-110 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The local law of the issuer's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection (4) of this section, governs:

- (a) The validity of a security;
- (b) The rights and duties of the issuer with respect to registration of transfer;
- (c) The effectiveness of registration of transfer by the issuer;
- (d) Whether the issuer owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security; and

(e) Whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom transfer of a certificated or uncertificated security is registered or a person who obtains control of an uncertificated security.

(2) The local law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection (5) of this section, governs:

(a) Acquisition of a security entitlement from the securities intermediary;

(b) The rights and duties of the securities intermediary and entitlement holder arising out of a security entitlement;

(c) Whether the securities intermediary owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security entitlement; and

(d) Whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person who acquires a security entitlement from the securities intermediary or a person who purchases a security entitlement or interest therein from an entitlement holder.

(3) The local law of the jurisdiction in which a security certificate is located at the time of delivery governs whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom the security certificate is delivered.

(4) "Issuer's jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction under which the issuer of the security is organized or, if permitted by the law of that jurisdiction, the law of another jurisdiction specified by the issuer. An issuer organized under the law of this Commonwealth~~[State]~~ may specify the law of another jurisdiction as the law governing the matters specified in subsection (1)(b) to (e) of this section.

(5) The following rules determine a "securities intermediary's jurisdiction" for purposes of this section:

(a) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction for purposes of this part of this article, this article, or Article 9 of this chapter~~[specifies that it is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction]~~, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

(b) If paragraph (a) of this subsection does not apply and an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account expressly provides that the agreement is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

(c) If neither paragraph (a) nor paragraph (b) applies and an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder governing the securities account~~[does not specify the governing law as provided in paragraph (a) of this subsection, but]~~ expressly provides~~[specifies]~~ that the securities account is maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's jurisdiction.

(d)~~[(c)]~~ If none of the preceding paragraphs of this subsection applies~~[an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify a jurisdiction as provided in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection]~~, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which~~[is located]~~ the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the entitlement holder's account is located.

(e)~~[(d)]~~ If none of the preceding paragraphs of this subsection applies~~[an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify a jurisdiction as provided in paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection and an account statement does not identify an office serving the entitlement holder's account as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection]~~, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which is located the chief executive office of the securities intermediary is located.

(6) A securities intermediary's jurisdiction is not determined by the physical location of certificates representing financial assets, or by the jurisdiction in which is organized the issuer of the financial asset with respect to which an entitlement holder has a security entitlement, or by the location of facilities for data processing or other record keeping concerning the account.

Section 172. KRS 355.8-301 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Delivery of a certificated security to a purchaser occurs when:

(a) The purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate;

(b) Another person, other than a securities intermediary, either acquires possession of the security certificate on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously acquired possession of the certificate, acknowledges that it holds for the purchaser; or

(c) A securities intermediary acting on behalf of the purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate, only if the certificate is in registered form and is:

1. Registered in the name of the purchaser;

2. Payable to the order of the purchaser; or

3. ~~[has been]~~Specially indorsed to the purchaser by an effective indorsement and has not been indorsed to the securities intermediary or in blank.

(2) Delivery of an uncertificated security to a purchaser occurs when:

(a) The issuer registers the purchaser as the registered owner, upon original issue or registration of transfer; or

(b) Another person, other than a securities intermediary, either becomes the registered owner of the uncertificated security on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously become the registered owner, acknowledges that it holds for the purchaser.

Section 173. KRS 355.8-302 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, a purchaser~~[upon delivery]~~ of a certificated or uncertificated security~~[to a purchaser, the purchaser]~~ acquires all rights in the security that the transferor had or had power to transfer.

(2) A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

(3) A purchaser of a certificated security who as a previous holder had notice of an adverse claim does not improve its position by taking from a protected purchaser.

Section 174. KRS 355.8-510 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In a case not covered by the priority rules in Article 9 of this chapter or the rules stated in subsection (3) of this section, an action based on an adverse claim to a financial asset or security entitlement, whether framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory, may not be asserted against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or an interest therein, from an entitlement holder if the purchaser gives value, does not have notice of the adverse claim, and obtains control.

(2) If an adverse claim could not have been asserted against an entitlement holder under KRS 355.8-502, the adverse claim cannot be asserted against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or an interest therein, from the entitlement holder.

(3) In a case not covered by the priority rules in Article 9 of this chapter, a purchaser for value of a security entitlement, or an interest therein, who obtains control has priority over a purchaser of a security entitlement, or an interest therein, who does not obtain control. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, purchasers who have control rank according to priority in time of:

(a) The purchaser's becoming the person for whom the securities account, in which the security entitlement is carried, is maintained, if the purchaser obtained control under subsection (4)(a) of Section 170 of this Act;

(b) The securities intermediary's agreement to comply with the purchaser's entitlement orders with respect to security entitlements carried or to be carried in the securities account in which the security entitlement is carried, if the purchaser obtained control under subsection (4)(b) of Section 170 of this Act; or

(c) If the purchaser obtained control through another person under subsection (4)(c) of Section 170 of this Act, the time on which priority would be based under this subsection if the other person were the secured party.

(4) ~~[equally, except that]~~A securities intermediary as purchaser has priority over a conflicting purchaser who has control unless otherwise agreed by the securities intermediary.

Section 176. KRS 186.045 is amended to read as follows:

(1)[~~Whenever a perfected security interest is assigned, the assignor shall immediately give a statement of assignment to the assignee and at the same time deliver another copy of the statement to the debtor. The assignee shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, present a copy of the statement of assignment to the county clerk in whose office the security interest was noted on the certificate of title. Upon receipt of the assignment, the county clerk shall mark the same as provided in subsection (2) of KRS 355.9-405 and attach it to the title lien statement. The county clerk shall enter the assignment of the perfected security interest into the automated vehicle information system. For this service the county clerk shall collect a fee pursuant to KRS 64.012.~~

~~(2)~~] Whenever a security interest has been discharged, other than by proceedings under KRS 355.9-501 to 355.9-507 or similar proceedings, the secured party shall, within ten (10) days thereafter, deliver a termination statement in the manner required by KRS 355.9-404 to the county clerk of the county in which the title lien statement was submitted. The secured party shall also deliver a copy of the termination statement to the debtor or the debtor's transferee. For failure to file the termination statement within the allowable time, the secured party shall be subject to the penalty provided in KRS 186.990(1). Within five (5) days after the receipt of such documents, the county clerk shall note the filing in the index, in language prescribed by the cabinet, that the termination statement has been filed. Upon presentation of the owner's title showing such security interest to the county clerk where the termination statement was submitted, and with the copy of the termination statement submitted by the secured party, the clerk shall discharge the security interest by noting on such title that the termination statement has been filed and place the seal of the county clerk thereon. The clerk shall return the owner's title to the owner. The county clerk shall then file the termination statement in the place from which the title lien statement was removed. Termination statements must be retained in the clerk's files for a period of two (2) years subsequent to the date of filing such statement, at which time they may be destroyed. The fee for these services are included in the provisions of KRS 186A.190.

(2)[~~(3)~~]Upon presentation of the owner's title showing such security interest to the county clerk of a county where the termination statement was not delivered, the county clerk of that county shall access the automated system to determine whether a record of termination of the security interest has been entered into the automated system by the county clerk where the termination statement was delivered by the secured party as provided in KRS 186A.210. If such record of termination has been entered into the automated system, the county clerk of the county where the termination statement was not delivered, shall note the discharge of the security interest on the certificate of title by noting that the termination statement has been delivered, the county where it was delivered, and placing the seal of the county clerk thereon and may rely on the automated system to do so. If such record of termination has not been entered into the automated system, in no case shall the county clerk of the county other than where the termination statement was delivered, make any notation upon the certificate of title that the security interest has been discharged or that a termination statement has been delivered to the county where the title lien statement was submitted.

(3)[~~(4)~~]Whenever any secured party repossesses a vehicle titled in this Commonwealth[~~state~~], for which a security interest is in existence at the time of repossession, and disposes of such vehicle pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 355, he must present, within fifteen (15) days after such disposition, an affidavit in form prescribed by the department and a termination statement or proof that such termination statement has been filed. The new owner shall pay all applicable fees for titling and transferring the vehicle to the county clerk. Upon receipt of such documents, the county clerk who issued the lien shall then omit from the title he makes application for any information relating to the security interest under which the vehicle was repossessed or any security interest subordinate thereto. However, any security interest, as shown by such title which is superior to the one under which the vehicle was repossessed, must be shown on the title issued by the clerk unless the prior secured party has discharged such security interest in such clerk's office or proof of termination is submitted in case such prior security interest was discharged in another clerk's office.

(4)[~~(5)~~]Whenever any vehicle brought into this Commonwealth[~~state~~] is required to be titled in this Commonwealth[~~state~~] and such vehicle is then subject to a security interest in another state as shown by the out-of-state documents presented to the clerk, the county clerk is prohibited from processing the application for title on the vehicle unless the owner obtains from the secured party a financing statement or title lien statement and presents same to the clerk along with the fees required in KRS 186A.190. The clerk shall note the out-of-state security interest on the certificate of title. This provision does not apply to vehicles required to be registered in Kentucky under forced registration provisions under KRS 186.145.

(5)[~~(6)~~]The fees provided for in this section are in addition to any state fee provided for by law.

(6)[~~(7)~~]Any person violating any provision of this section or any person refusing to surrender a certificate of title registration and ownership or transfer certificate upon request of any person entitled thereto, is subject to the penalties provided in subsection (1) of KRS 186.990.

(7)[~~(8)~~]The county clerk is prohibited from noting any security interest on a certificate of title on any vehicle subject to the provisions of KRS Chapter 186A if a certificate of title therefor is presented to him which has all the spaces provided thereon for noting security interests fully exhausted. The owner must see to it that a discharge is noted on the certificate of title for each security interest and then a duplicate title as provided for in KRS 186A.180 must be obtained from the clerk by the owner of the vehicle.

(8)[~~(9)~~]Security interests in vehicles sold to or owned by residents of other states must be perfected in the state of such nonresident and repossession of the vehicle must be taken pursuant to the laws of such state, unless the vehicle is principally operated in Kentucky and is properly titled herein under KRS Chapter 186A and the security interest is authorized to be noted on the certificate of title by the county clerk under KRS Chapter 186A.

Section 177. KRS 186A.195 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this chapter, a title lien statement is a document to be submitted by the secured party to the county clerk. Upon submission of the title lien statement, the county clerk shall use the information contained therein to note the security interest on the certificate of title. The county clerk may make title lien statements available to the general public. However, public availability of such statements is not necessary or effective to perfect a security interest in property required to be registered or titled in accordance with this chapter.

(2) If a title lien statement and the required fees accompany the application for first title of any property in the name of an owner, the county clerk shall enter the information required by KRS 186A.190(6) into the automated system so as to produce a certificate of title in Frankfort bearing in addition to any other required information, the information designated by KRS 186A.190(6). The clerk shall thereby produce, in accordance with design of the automated system, a certificate of registration, if required.

(3) If a title lien statement and the required fees are not received at the time of application for first title of any property in the name of the owner due to owner's residency in another county, or if the form prescribed by KRS 186A.060 indicates a pending lien but the title lien statement does not accompany the application for title, the county clerk shall enter into the Automated Vehicle Information System (AVIS) the name and address of the lienholder and the county where the lien is to be noted or that a lien is pending. The clerk shall indicate a title is not to be issued until the lien has been noted and fees, according to KRS 186A.190, paid in the county of the owner's residence or in thirty (30) days. The county clerk shall then issue the registration. The county clerk in the county of the owner's residence shall, after receiving the title lien statement and fees contained in KRS 186A.190, enter into the Automated Vehicle Information System (AVIS) the date of lien notation and the notation number, thus enabling the system to produce the title in Frankfort.

(4) Should a certificate of title be issued after the thirty (30) day period has expired without the notation of a security interest thereon, or should there be no provision made for a lien to be noted in the county of residence of the debtor within thirty (30) days and the title issued within that time, the secured party shall request from the debtor, and the debtor shall submit to the secured party, the certificate of title. The secured party shall submit the certificate of title along with the title lien statement to the county clerk of the county of the debtor's residence. The county clerk shall then enter the information required by KRS 186A.190(6) into the Automated Vehicle Information System (AVIS) and note on the certificate of title in the appropriate section the information described in that section. Following the notation of the appropriate information on the certificate of title, the county clerk shall return the title to the debtor.

(5) The security interest noted on the certificate of title shall be deemed perfected at the time the security interest attaches (KRS 355.9-203) if the secured party tenders the required fees and submits a properly completed title lien statement and application for first title or, in the case of property previously titled in the name of its debtor, the certificate of title to the appropriate county clerk within twenty (20)[~~ten (10)~~] days of attachment. Otherwise, the security interest shall be deemed perfected at the time that such fees are tendered and such documents are submitted to the appropriate county clerk.

Section 178. KRS 186A.200 is amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to a vehicle previously titled in the name of its debtor, the secured party shall, within twenty (20)[~~fifteen (15)~~] days after execution of the security agreement, obtain the current certificate of title in the name of the debtor, with no more than one (1) prior lien indicated thereon, and present to the county clerk the certificate of title, which the secured party shall have the right to obtain from the debtor, together with the title lien statement and the required fees in KRS 186A.190 to the county clerk.

(2) For failure to present both the title and title lien statement within the time prescribed by subsection (1) of this section, the secured party shall pay a penalty of two dollars ($2) to the county clerk as a prerequisite for noting the security interest on the title.

(3) The county clerk shall enter the information required by KRS 186A.190(6) into the automated system.

(4) The county clerk shall record upon the title in the appropriate section the information designated by KRS 186A.190(6).

SECTION 179. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 413 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Before a party possessing a security interest or lien against an equine interest that has been sold without the debt to the party being discharged may bring an action against the purchaser or selling agent of the equine interest, the secured party shall pursue a remedy against the debtor to the point where a judgment is rendered on the merits or the suit is dismissed with prejudice.

the letter of credit, by the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act; and

2. Which is capable of being examined for compliance with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit. A document may not be oral.

(g) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(h) "Honor" of a letter of credit means performance of the issuer's undertaking in the letter of credit to pay or deliver an item of value. Unless the letter of credit otherwise provides, "honor" occurs:

1. Upon payment;

3. If the letter of credit provides for incurring a deferred obligation, upon incurring the obligation and, at maturity, its performance.

"Value"	KRS 355.3-303 and 355.4-211.

(3) Article 1 of this chapter contains certain additional general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

SECTION 3. KRS 355.5-103 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) This article applies to letters of credit and to certain rights and obligations arising out of transactions involving letters of credit.

(2) The statement of a rule in this article does not by itself require, imply, or negate application of the same or a different rule to a situation not provided for, or to a person not specified, in this article.

(3) With the exception of this subsection, subsections (1) and (4) of this section, subsection (1)(i) and (j) of Section 2 of this Act, subsection (4) of Section 6 of this Act, and subsection (4) of Section 14 of this Act, and to the extent prohibited in KRS 355.1-102(3) and subsection (4) of Section 17 of this Act, the effect of this article may be varied by agreement or by a provision stated or incorporated by reference in an undertaking. A term in an agreement or undertaking generally excusing liability or generally limiting remedies for failure to perform obligations is not sufficient to vary obligations prescribed by this article.

(4) Rights and obligations of an issuer to a beneficiary or a nominated person under a letter of credit are independent of the existence, performance, or nonperformance of a contract or arrangement out of which the letter of credit arises or which underlies it, including contracts or arrangements between the issuer and the applicant and between the applicant and the beneficiary.

SECTION 4. KRS 355.5-104 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A letter of credit, confirmation, advice, transfer, amendment, or cancellation may be issued in any form that is a record and is authenticated:

(1) By a signature; or

(2) In accordance with the agreement of the parties or the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act.

SECTION 5. KRS 355.5-105 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

Consideration is not required to issue, amend, transfer, or cancel a letter of credit, advice, or confirmation.

SECTION 6. KRS 355.5-106 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A letter of credit is issued and becomes enforceable according to its terms against the issuer when the issuer sends or otherwise transmits it to the person requested to advise or to the beneficiary. A letter of credit is revocable only if it so provides.

(2) After a letter of credit is issued, rights and obligations of a beneficiary, applicant, confirmer, and issuer are not affected by an amendment or cancellation to which that person has not consented except to the extent the letter of credit provides that it is revocable or that the issuer may amend or cancel the letter of credit without that consent.

(3) If there is no stated expiration date or other provision that determines its duration, a letter of credit expires one (1) year after its stated date of issuance or, if none is stated, after the date on which it is issued.

(4) A letter of credit that states that it is perpetual expires five (5) years after its stated date of issuance, or if none is stated, after the date on which it is issued.

SECTION 7. KRS 355.5-107 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A confirmer is directly obligated on a letter of credit and has the rights and obligations of an issuer to the extent of its confirmation. The confirmer also has rights against and obligations to the issuer as if the issuer were an applicant and the confirmer had issued the letter of credit at the request and for the account of the issuer.

(2) A nominated person who is not a confirmer is not obligated to honor or otherwise give value for a presentation.

(3) A person requested to advise may decline to act as an adviser. An adviser that is not a confirmer is not obligated to honor or give value for a presentation. An adviser undertakes to the issuer and to the beneficiary accurately to advise the terms of the letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice received by that person and undertakes to the beneficiary to check the apparent authenticity of the request to advise. Even if the advice is inaccurate, the letter of credit, confirmation, or amendment is enforceable as issued.

(4) A person who notifies a transferee beneficiary of the terms of a letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice has the rights and obligations of an adviser under subsection (3) of this section. The terms in the notice to the transferee beneficiary may differ from the terms in any notice to the transferor beneficiary to the extent permitted by the letter of credit, confirmation, amendment, or advice received by the person who so notifies.

SECTION 8. KRS 355.5-108 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 9 of this Act, an issuer shall honor a presentation that, as determined by the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of this section, appears on its face strictly to comply with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit. Except as otherwise provided in Section 13 of this Act and unless otherwise agreed with the applicant, an issuer shall dishonor a presentation that does not appear so to comply.

(2) An issuer has a reasonable time after presentation, but not beyond the end of the seventh business day of the issuer after the day of its receipt of documents:

(a) To honor;

(b) If the letter of credit provides for honor to be completed more than seven (7) business days after presentation, to accept a draft or incur a deferred obligation; or

(c) To give notice to the presenter of discrepancies in the presentation.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, an issuer is precluded from asserting as a basis for dishonor any discrepancy if timely notice is not given, or any discrepancy not stated in the notice if timely notice is given.

(4) Failure to give the notice specified in subsection (2) of this section or to mention fraud, forgery, or expiration in the notice does not preclude the issuer from asserting as a basis for dishonor fraud or forgery as described in subsection (1) of Section 9 of this Act or expiration of the letter of credit before presentation.

(5) An issuer shall observe standard practice of financial institutions that regularly issue letters of credit. Determination of the issuer's observance of the standard practice is a matter of interpretation for the court. The court shall offer the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence of the standard practice.

(6) An issuer is not responsible for:

(a) The performance or nonperformance of the underlying contract, arrangement, or transaction;

(b) An act or omission of others; or

(c) Observance or knowledge of the usage of a particular trade other than the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of this section.

(7) If an undertaking constituting a letter of credit under subsection (1)(j) of Section 2 of this Act contains nondocumentary conditions, an issuer shall disregard the nondocumentary conditions and treat them as if they were not stated.

(8) An issuer that has dishonored a presentation shall return the documents or hold them at the disposal of, and send advice to that effect to, the presenter.

(9) An issuer that has honored a presentation as permitted or required by this article:

(a) Is entitled to be reimbursed by the applicant in immediately available funds not later than the date of its payment of funds;

(b) Takes the documents free of claims of the beneficiary or presenter;

(c) Is precluded from asserting a right of recourse on a draft under KRS 355.3-414 and 355.3-415;

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 10 and 17 of this Act, is precluded from restitution of money paid or other value given by mistake to the extent the mistake concerns discrepancies in the documents or tender which are apparent on the face of the presentation; and

(e) Is discharged to the extent of its performance under the letter of credit unless the issuer honored a presentation in which a required signature of a beneficiary was forged.

SECTION 9. KRS 355.5-109 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a presentation is made that appears on its face strictly to comply with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit, but a required document is forged or materially fraudulent, or honor of the presentation would facilitate a material fraud by the beneficiary on the issuer or applicant:

(a) The issuer shall honor the presentation, if honor is demanded by:

1. A nominated person who has given value in good faith and without notice of forgery or material fraud;

2. A confirmer who has honored its confirmation in good faith;

3. A holder in due course of a draft drawn under the letter of credit which was taken after acceptance by the issuer or nominated person; or

4. An assignee of the issuer's or nominated person's deferred obligation that was taken for value and without notice of forgery or material fraud after the obligation was incurred by the issuer or nominated person; and

(b) The issuer, acting in good faith, may honor or dishonor the presentation in any other case.

(2) If an applicant claims that a required document is forged or materially fraudulent or that honor of the presentation would facilitate a material fraud by the beneficiary on the issuer or applicant, a court of competent jurisdiction may temporarily or permanently enjoin the issuer from honoring a presentation or grant similar relief against the issuer or other persons only if the court finds that:

(a) The relief is not prohibited under the law applicable to an accepted draft or deferred obligation incurred by the issuer;

(b) A beneficiary, issuer, or nominated person who may be adversely affected is adequately protected against loss that it may suffer because the relief is granted;

(c) All of the conditions to entitle a person to the relief under the law of this Commonwealth have been met; and

(d) On the basis of the information submitted to the court, the applicant is more likely than not to succeed under its claim of forgery or material fraud and the person demanding honor does not qualify for protection under subsection (1)(a) of this section.

SECTION 10. KRS 355.5-110 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If its presentation is honored, the beneficiary warrants:

(a) To the issuer, any other person to whom presentation is made, and the applicant that there is no fraud or forgery of the kind described in subsection (1) of Section 9 of this Act; and

(b) To the applicant that the drawing does not violate any agreement between the applicant and beneficiary or any other agreement intended by them to be augmented by the letter of credit.

(2) The warranties in subsection (1) of this section are in addition to warranties arising under Articles 3, 4, 7, and 8 of this chapter because of the presentation or transfer of documents covered by any of those articles.

SECTION 11. KRS 355.5-111 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If an issuer wrongfully dishonors or repudiates its obligation to pay money under a letter of credit before presentation, the beneficiary, successor, or nominated person presenting on its own behalf may recover from the issuer the amount that is the subject of the dishonor or repudiation. If the issuer's obligation under the letter of credit is not for the payment of money, the claimant may obtain specific performance or, at the claimant's election, recover an amount equal to the value of performance from the issuer. In either case, the claimant may also recover incidental but not consequential damages. The claimant is not obligated to take action to avoid damages that might be due from the issuer under this subsection. If, although not obligated to do so, the claimant avoids damages, the claimant's recovery from the issuer must be reduced by the amount of damages avoided. The issuer has the burden of proving the amount of damages avoided. In the case of repudiation the claimant need not present any document.

(2) If an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand presented under a letter of credit or honors a draft or demand in breach of its obligation to the applicant, the applicant may recover damages resulting from the breach, including incidental but not consequential damages, less any amount saved as a result of the breach.

(3) If an adviser or nominated person other than a confirmer breaches an obligation under this article or an issuer breaches an obligation not covered in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, a person to whom the obligation is owed may recover damages resulting from the breach, including incidental but not consequential damages, less any amount saved as a result of the breach. To the extent of the confirmation, a confirmer has the liability of an issuer specified in this subsection and subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) An issuer, nominated person, or adviser who is found liable under subsection (1), (2), or (3) of this section shall pay interest on the amount owed thereunder from the date of wrongful dishonor or other appropriate date.

(5) Reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses of litigation must be awarded to the prevailing party in an action in which a remedy is sought under this article.

(6) Damages that would otherwise be payable by a party for breach of an obligation under this article may be liquidated by agreement or undertaking, but only in an amount or by a formula that is reasonable in light of the harm anticipated.

SECTION 12. KRS 355.5-112 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a letter of credit is transferable, the issuer may refuse to recognize or carry out a transfer if:

(1) The transfer would violate applicable law; or

(2) The transferor or transferee has failed to comply with any requirement stated in the letter of credit or any other requirement relating to transfer imposed by the issuer which is within the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act or is otherwise reasonable under the circumstances.

SECTION 13. KRS 355.5-113 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A successor of a beneficiary may consent to amendments, sign and present documents, and receive payment or other items of value in the name of the beneficiary without disclosing its status as a successor.

(2) A successor of a beneficiary may consent to amendments, sign and present documents, and receive payment or other items of value in its own name as the disclosed successor of the beneficiary. Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, an issuer shall recognize a disclosed successor of a beneficiary as beneficiary in full substitution for its predecessor upon compliance with the requirements for recognition by the issuer of a transfer of drawing rights by operation of law under the standard practice referred to in subsection (5) of Section 8 of this Act or, in the absence of such a practice, compliance with other reasonable procedures sufficient to protect the issuer.

(3) An issuer is not obliged to determine whether a purported successor is a successor of a beneficiary or whether the signature of a purported successor is genuine or authorized.

(4) Honor of a purported successor's apparently complying presentation under subsection (1) or (2) of this section has the consequences specified in subsection (9) of Section 8 of this Act even if the purported successor is not the successor of a beneficiary. Documents signed in the name of the beneficiary or of a disclosed successor by a person who is neither the beneficiary nor the successor of the beneficiary are forged documents for the purposes of Section 9 of this Act.

(5) An issuer whose rights of reimbursement are not covered by subsection (4) of this section or substantially similar law and any confirmer or nominated person may decline to recognize a presentation under subsection (2) of this section.

(6) A beneficiary whose name is changed after the issuance of a letter of credit has the same rights and obligations as a successor of a beneficiary under this section.

SECTION 14. KRS 355.5-114 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section, "proceeds of a letter of credit" means the cash, check, accepted draft, or other item of value paid or delivered upon honor or giving of value by the issuer or any nominated person under the letter of credit. The term does not include a beneficiary's drawing rights or documents presented by the beneficiary.

(2) A beneficiary may assign its right to part or all of the proceeds of a letter of credit. The beneficiary may do so before presentation as a present assignment of its right to receive proceeds contingent upon its compliance with the terms and conditions of the letter of credit.

(3) An issuer or nominated person need not recognize an assignment of proceeds of a letter of credit until it consents to the assignment.

(4) An issuer or nominated person has no obligation to give or withhold its consent to an assignment of proceeds of a letter of credit, but consent may not be unreasonably withheld if the assignee possesses and exhibits the letter of credit and presentation of the letter of credit is a condition to honor.

(5) Rights of a transferee beneficiary or nominated person are independent of the beneficiary's assignment of the proceeds of a letter of credit and are superior to the assignee's right to the proceeds.

(6) Neither the rights recognized by this section between an assignee and an issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person nor the issuer's or nominated person's payment of proceeds to an assignee or a third person affect the rights between the assignee and any person other than the issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person. The mode of creating and perfecting a security interest in or granting an assignment of a beneficiary's rights to proceeds is governed by Article 9 of this chapter or other law. Against persons other than the issuer, transferee beneficiary, or nominated person, the rights and obligations arising upon the creation of a security interest or other assignment of a beneficiary's right to proceeds and its perfection are governed by Article 9 of this chapter or other law.

SECTION 15. KRS 355.5-115 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

An action to enforce a right or obligation arising under this article must be commenced within one (1) year after the expiration date of the relevant letter of credit or one (1) year after the claim for relief accrues, whichever occurs later. A claim for relief accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowledge of the breach.

SECTION 16. KRS 355.5-116 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a record signed or otherwise authenticated by the affected parties in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Act or by a provision in the person's letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not bear any relation to the transaction.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, such as the Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits, to which the letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking is expressly made subject. If:

(a) This article would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser under subsection (1) of this section;

(b) The relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice; and

(c) There is conflict between this article and those rules as applied to that undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the nonvariable provisions specified in subsection (3) of Section 3 of this Act.

(3) If there is conflict between this article and Article 3, 4, 4A, or 9 of this chapter, this article governs.

(4) The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this article may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be chosen in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

SECTION 17. KRS 355.5-117 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) An issuer that honors a beneficiary's presentation is subrogated to the rights of the beneficiary to the same extent as if the issuer were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the beneficiary and of the applicant to the same extent as if the issuer were the secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the applicant.

(2) An applicant that reimburses an issuer is subrogated to the rights of the issuer against any beneficiary, presenter, or nominated person to the same extent as if the applicant were the secondary obligor of the obligations owed to the issuer and has the rights of subrogation of the issuer to the rights of the beneficiary stated in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A nominated person who pays or gives value against a draft or demand presented under a letter of credit is subrogated to the rights of:

(a) The issuer against the applicant to the same extent as if the nominated person were a secondary obligor of the obligation owed to the issuer by the applicant;

(b) The beneficiary to the same extent as if the nominated person were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the beneficiary; and

(c) The applicant to same extent as if the nominated person were a secondary obligor of the underlying obligation owed to the applicant.

(4) Notwithstanding any agreement or term to the contrary, the rights of subrogation stated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not arise until the issuer honors the letter of credit or otherwise pays and the rights in subsection (3) of this section do not arise until the nominated person pays or otherwise gives value. Until then, the issuer, nominated person, and the applicant do not derive under this section present or prospective rights forming the basis of a claim, defense, or excuse.

SECTION 18. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 5 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.5-118:

(1) An issuer or nominated person has a security interest in a document presented under a letter of credit to the extent that the issuer or nominated person honors or gives value for the presentation.

(2) So long as and to the extent that an issuer or nominated person has not been reimbursed or has not otherwise recovered the value given with respect to a security interest in a document under subsection (1) of this section, the security interest continues and is subject to Article 9 of this chapter, but:

(a) A security agreement is not necessary to make the security interest enforceable under subsection (2)(c) of Section 33 of this Act;

(b) If the document is presented in a medium other than a written or other tangible medium, the security interest is perfected; and

(c) If the document is presented in a written or other tangible medium and is not a certificated security, chattel paper, a document of title, an instrument, or a letter of credit, the security interest is perfected and has priority over a conflicting security interest in the document so long as the debtor does not have possession of the document.

SEGMENT B
CONFORMING AMENDMENTS
FOR REVISED ARTICLE 5

Section 19. KRS 355.1-105 is amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section and Section 53 and subsections (4) and (5) of Section 56 of this Act for goods covered by a certificate of title, a security interest in property subject to a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (1) of this section may be perfected only by compliance with those requirements, and a security interest so perfected remains perfected notwithstanding a change in the use or transfer of possession of the collateral.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section and subsections (4) and (5) of Section 56 of this Act, duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the requirements prescribed by a statute, regulation, or treaty described in subsection (1) of this section are governed by the statute, regulation, or treaty. In other respects, the security interest is subject to this article.

(4) During any period in which collateral subject to a statute specified in subsection (1)(b) of this section is inventory held for sale or lease by a person or leased by that person as lessor and that person is in the business of selling goods of that kind, this section does not apply to a security interest in that collateral created by that person.

(b) A security interest perfected in the document has priority over any security interest that becomes perfected in the goods by another method during that time.

(4) While goods are in the possession of a bailee that has issued a nonnegotiable document covering the goods, a security interest in the goods may be perfected by:

(a) Issuance of a document in the name of the secured party;

(b) The bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest; or

(c) Filing as to the goods.

(5) A security interest in certificated securities, negotiable documents, or instruments is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of twenty (20) days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under an authenticated security agreement.

(6) A perfected security interest in a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee, other than one that has issued a negotiable document for the goods, remains perfected for twenty (20) days without filing if the secured party makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of:

compliance with this article.

SECTION 53. KRS 355.9-313 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a secured party may perfect a security interest in negotiable documents, goods, instruments, money, or tangible chattel paper by taking possession of the collateral. A secured party may perfect a security interest in certificated securities by taking delivery of the certificated securities under Section 170 of this Act.

(2) With respect to goods covered by a certificate of title issued by this Commonwealth, a secured party may perfect a security interest in the goods by taking possession of the goods only in the circumstances described in subsection (4) of Section 56 of this section.

(3) With respect to collateral other than certificated securities and goods covered by a document, a secured party takes possession of collateral in the possession of a person other than the debtor, the secured party, or a lessee of the collateral from the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business, when:

- (b) The person takes possession of the collateral after having authenticated a record acknowledging that it will hold possession of collateral for the secured party's benefit.

(4) If perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by a secured party, perfection occurs no earlier than the time the secured party takes possession and continues only while the secured party retains possession.

(5) A security interest in a certificated security in registered form is perfected by delivery when delivery of the certificated security occurs under Section 170 of this Act and remains perfected by delivery until the debtor obtains possession of the security certificate.

(7) If a person acknowledges that it holds possession for the secured party's benefit:

- (a) The acknowledgment is effective under subsection (3) of this section or subsection (1) of Section 170 of this Act, even if the acknowledgment violates the rights of a debtor; and
- (b) Unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this article otherwise provides, the person does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the acknowledgment to another person.

(8) A secured party having possession of collateral does not relinquish possession by delivering the collateral to a person other than the debtor or a lessee of the collateral from the debtor in the ordinary course of the debtor's business if the person was instructed before the delivery or is instructed contemporaneously with the delivery:

- (a) To hold possession of the collateral for the secured party's benefit; or
- (b) To redeliver the collateral to the secured party.

(9) A secured party does not relinquish possession, even if a delivery under subsection (8) of this section violates the rights of a debtor. A person to which collateral is delivered under subsection (8) of this section does not owe any duty to the secured party and is not required to confirm the delivery to another person unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this article otherwise provides.

SECTION 54. KRS 355.9-314 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

    - 1. If the collateral is a certificated security, the debtor has or acquires possession of the security certificate;
    - 2. If the collateral is an uncertificated security, the issuer has registered or registers the debtor as the registered owner; or
    - 3. If the collateral is a security entitlement, the debtor is or becomes the entitlement holder.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this article and in KRS 355.2-403(2):

(b) A security interest attaches to any identifiable proceeds of collateral.

(2) Proceeds that are commingled with other property are identifiable proceeds:

(a) If the proceeds are goods, to the extent provided by Section 76 of this Act; and

(b) If the proceeds are not goods, to the extent that the secured party identifies the proceeds by a method of tracing, including application of equitable principles, that is permitted under law other than this article with respect to commingled property of the type involved.

(3) A security interest in proceeds is a perfected security interest if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected.

(4) A perfected security interest in proceeds becomes unperfected on the twenty-first day after the security interest attaches to the proceeds unless:

(a) The following conditions are satisfied:

1. A filed financing statement covers the original collateral;

(c) The expiration of one (1) year after a transfer of collateral to a person that thereby becomes a debtor and is located in another jurisdiction.

(2) If a security interest described in subsection (1) of this section becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earliest time or event described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earliest time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(3) A possessory security interest in collateral, other than goods covered by a certificate of title and as-extracted collateral consisting of goods, remains continuously perfected if:

(a) The collateral is located in one jurisdiction and subject to a security interest perfected under the law of that jurisdiction;

(b) Thereafter the collateral is brought into another jurisdiction; and

(c) Upon entry into the other jurisdiction, the security interest is perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a security interest in goods covered by a certificate of title which is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction when the goods become covered by a certificate of title from this Commonwealth remains perfected until the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become so covered.

(5) A security interest described in subsection (4) of this section becomes unperfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value if the applicable requirements for perfection under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act or Section 53 of this Act are not satisfied before the earlier of:

(a) The time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become covered by a certificate of title from this Commonwealth; or

(b) The expiration of four (4) months after the goods had become so covered.

(6) A security interest in deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights, or investment property which is perfected under the law of the bank's jurisdiction, the issuer's jurisdiction, a nominated person's jurisdiction, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, or the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction, as applicable, remains perfected until the earlier of:

(a) The time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of that jurisdiction; or

(b) The expiration of four (4) months after a change of the applicable jurisdiction to another jurisdiction.

(7) If a security interest described in subsection (6) of this section becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time or the end of the period described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of that time or the end of that period, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(4) A licensee of a general intangible or a buyer, other than a secured party, of accounts, electronic chattel paper, general intangibles, or investment property other than a certificated security takes free of a security interest if the licensee or buyer gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 60 and 61 of this Act, if a person files a financing statement with respect to a purchase-money security interest before or within twenty (20) days after the debtor receives delivery of the collateral, the security interest takes priority over the rights of a buyer, lessee, or lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

SECTION 58. KRS 355.9-318 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A debtor that has sold an account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note does not retain a legal or equitable interest in the collateral sold.

(2) For purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of an account or chattel paper from, a debtor that has sold an account or chattel paper, while the buyer's security interest is unperfected, the debtor is deemed to have rights and title to the account or chattel paper identical to those the debtor sold.

SECTION 59. KRS 355.9-319 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, for purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of goods from, a consignee, while the goods are in the possession of the consignee, the consignee is deemed to have rights and title to the goods identical to those the consignor had or had power to transfer.

(2) For purposes of determining the rights of a creditor of a consignee, law other than this article determines the rights and title of a consignee while goods are in the consignee's possession if, under this part of this article, a perfected security interest held by the consignor would have priority over the rights of the creditor.

SECTION 60. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-320:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a buyer in ordinary course of business, other than a person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations, takes free of a security interest created by the buyer's seller, even if the security interest is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a buyer of goods from a person who used or bought the goods for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes takes free of a security interest, even if perfected, if the buyer buys:

(b) For value;

(c) Primarily for the buyer's personal, family, or household purposes; and

(d) Before the filing of a financing statement covering the goods.

(3) To the extent that it affects the priority of a security interest over a buyer of goods under subsection (2) of this section, the period of effectiveness of a filing made in the jurisdiction in which the seller is located is governed by subsections (1) and (2) of Section 56 of this Act.

(4) A buyer in ordinary course of business buying oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead or after extraction takes free of an interest arising out of an encumbrance.

(5) Subsections (1) and (2) of this section do not affect a security interest in goods in the possession of the secured party under Section 53 of this Act.

(6) If any horse of a registered breed, the racing of which is regulated by KRS Chapter 230, or any interest in such a horse (including stallion shares and seasons), is subject to a lien or a security interest and that horse or interest is sold at public auction in the ordinary course of business by an organization engaged in the business of selling these horses or interests at public auction, a bona fide purchaser for value of the horse or interest takes title to the horse or interest free and clear of the lien or security interest, and the organization selling the horse or interest is not liable in any manner to the holder of the lien or security interest, except to the extent provided by the Federal Food Security Act, 7 U.S.C. sec. 1631. However, the lien or security interest attaches to the proceeds from the sale to the extent provided in subsection (1)(b) of Section 55 of this Act.

SECTION 61. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-321:

A person becomes a licensee in the ordinary course if the license to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the licensor is engaged or with the licensor's own usual or customary practices.

(2) A licensee in ordinary course of business takes its rights under a nonexclusive license free of a security interest in the general intangible created by the licensor, even if the security interest is perfected and the licensee knows of its existence.

(3) A lessee in ordinary course of business takes its leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor, even if the security interest is perfected and the lessee knows of its existence.

SECTION 62. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-322:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, priority among conflicting security interests and agricultural liens in the same collateral is determined according to the following rules:

(a) Conflicting perfected security interests and agricultural liens rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the earlier of the time a filing covering the collateral is first made or the security interest or agricultural lien is first perfected, if there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

(b) A perfected security interest or agricultural lien has priority over a conflicting unperfected security interest or agricultural lien.

(c) The first security interest or agricultural lien to attach or become effective has priority if conflicting security interests and agricultural liens are unperfected.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a) of this section:

(a) The time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in proceeds; and

(b) The time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in collateral supported by a supporting obligation is also the time of filing or perfection as to a security interest in the supporting obligation.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, a security interest in collateral which qualifies for priority over a conflicting security interest under Section 67, 68, 69, 70, or 71 of this Act also has priority over a conflicting security interest in:

(a) Any supporting obligation for the collateral; and

(b) Proceeds of the collateral if:

1. The security interest in proceeds is perfected;

2. The proceeds are cash proceeds or of the same type as the collateral; and

3. In the case of proceeds that are proceeds of proceeds, all intervening proceeds are cash proceeds, proceeds of the same type as the collateral, or an account relating to the collateral.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) of this section and except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, if a security interest in chattel paper, deposit accounts, negotiable documents, instruments, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights is perfected by a method other than filing, conflicting perfected security interests in proceeds of the collateral rank according to priority in time of filing.

(5) Subsection (4) of this section applies only if the proceeds of the collateral are not cash proceeds, chattel paper, negotiable documents, instruments, investment property, or letter-of-credit rights.

(6) Subsections (1) to (5) of this section are subject to:

(a) Is made while the security interest is perfected only:

1. Under Section 49 of this Act when it attaches; or

2. Temporarily under subsection (5), (6), or (7) of Section 52 of this Act; and

(7) Subsection (6) of this section does not apply if the advance is made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period.

SECTION 64. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-324:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of this section, a perfected purchase-money security interest in goods other than inventory or livestock has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same goods, and, except as otherwise provided in Section 67 of this Act, a perfected security interest in its identifiable proceeds also has priority, if the purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of this section, a perfected purchase-money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory, has priority over a conflicting security interest in chattel paper or an instrument constituting proceeds of the inventory and in proceeds of the chattel paper, if so provided in Section 70 of this Act, and, except as otherwise provided in Section 67 of this Act, also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds of the inventory to the extent the identifiable cash proceeds are received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer, if:

(c) The holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five (5) years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(d) The notification states that the person sending the notification has or expects to acquire a purchase-money security interest in inventory of the debtor and describes the inventory.

(3) Subsections (2)(b) to (d) of this section apply only if the holder of the conflicting security interest had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory:

(a) If the purchase-money security interest is perfected by filing, before the date of the filing; or

(4) Subject to subsection (5) of this section and except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of this section, a perfected purchase-money security interest in livestock that are farm products has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same livestock, and, except as otherwise provided in Section 67 of this Act, a perfected security interest in their identifiable proceeds and identifiable products in their unmanufactured states also has priority, if:

(a) The purchase-money security interest is perfected when the debtor receives possession of the livestock;

(b) The purchase-money secured party sends an authenticated notification to the holder of the conflicting security interest;

(c) The holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within six (6) months before the debtor receives possession of the livestock; and

(d) The notification states that the person sending the notification has or expects to acquire a purchase-money security interest in livestock of the debtor and describes the livestock.

(5) Subsections (4)(b) to (d) of this section apply only if the holder of the conflicting security interest had filed a financing statement covering the same types of livestock:

(a) If the purchase-money security interest is perfected by filing, before the date of the filing; or

(7) If more than one security interest qualifies for priority in the same collateral under subsection (1), (2), (4), or (6) of this section:

(a) A security interest securing an obligation incurred as all or part of the price of the collateral has priority over a security interest securing an obligation incurred for value given to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral; and

SECTION 65. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-325:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a security interest created by a debtor is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral created by another person if:

(b) The security interest created by the other person was perfected when the debtor acquired the collateral; and

(c) There is no period thereafter when the security interest is unperfected.

(b) Arose solely under KRS 355.2-711(3) or 355.2A-508(5).

SECTION 66. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-326:

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a security interest created by a new debtor which is perfected by a filed financing statement that is effective solely under Section 99 of this Act in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral which is perfected other than by a filed financing statement that is effective solely under Section 99 of this Act.

(2) The other provisions of this part of this article determine the priority among conflicting security interests in the same collateral perfected by filed financing statements that are effective solely under Section 99 of this Act. However, if the security agreements to which a new debtor became bound as debtor were not entered into by the same original debtor, the conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of the new debtor's having become bound.

SECTION 67. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-327:

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, security interests perfected by control under Section 54 of this Act rank according to priority in time of obtaining control.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a security interest held by the bank with which the deposit account is maintained has priority over a conflicting security interest held by another secured party.

(4) A security interest perfected by control under subsection (1)(c) of Section 24 of this Act has priority over a security interest held by the bank with which the deposit account is maintained.

SECTION 68. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-328:

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, conflicting security interests held by secured parties each of which has control under Section 26 of this Act rank according to priority in time of:

(a) If the collateral is a security, obtaining control;

(b) If the collateral is a security entitlement carried in a securities account and:

1. If the secured party obtained control under subsection (4)(a) of Section 168 of this Act, the secured party's becoming the person for which the securities account is maintained;

2. If the secured party obtained control under subsection (4)(b) of Section 168 of this Act, the securities intermediary's agreement to comply with the secured party's entitlement orders with respect to security entitlements carried or to be carried in the securities account; or

(5) A security interest in a certificated security in registered form which is perfected by taking delivery under subsection (1) of Section 53 of this Act and not by control under Section 54 of this Act has priority over a conflicting security interest perfected by a method other than control.

(6) Conflicting security interests created by a broker, securities intermediary, or commodity intermediary which are perfected without control under Section 26 of this Act rank equally.

(7) In all other cases, priority among conflicting security interests in investment property is governed by Sections 62 and 63 of this Act.

SECTION 69. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-329:

The following rules govern priority among conflicting security interests in the same letter-of-credit right:

(b) The chattel paper does not indicate that it has been assigned to an identified assignee other than the purchaser.

(2) A purchaser of chattel paper has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper which is claimed other than merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest if the purchaser gives new value and takes possession of the chattel paper or obtains control of the chattel paper under Section 25 of this Act in good faith, in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business, and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in Section 67 of this Act, a purchaser having priority in chattel paper under subsection (1) or (2) of this section also has priority in proceeds of the chattel paper to the extent that:

(a) Section 62 of this Act provides for priority in the proceeds; or

(b) The proceeds consist of the specific goods covered by the chattel paper or cash proceeds of the specific goods, even if the purchaser's security interest in the proceeds is unperfected.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (1) of Section 71 of this Act, a purchaser of an instrument has priority over a security interest in the instrument perfected by a method other than possession if the purchaser gives value and takes possession of the instrument in good faith and without knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

(5) For purposes of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the holder of a purchase-money security interest in inventory gives new value for chattel paper constituting proceeds of the inventory.

(6) For purposes of subsections (2) and (4) of this section, if chattel paper or an instrument indicates that it has been assigned to an identified secured party other than the purchaser, a purchaser of the chattel paper or instrument has knowledge that the purchase violates the rights of the secured party.

SECTION 71. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-331:

(1) This article does not limit the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument, a holder to which a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated, or a protected purchaser of a security. These holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest, even if perfected, to the extent provided in Articles 3, 7, and 8 of this chapter.

(2) This article does not limit the rights of or impose liability on a person to the extent that the person is protected against the assertion of a claim under Article 8 of this chapter.

(3) Filing under this article does not constitute notice of a claim or defense to the holders, or purchasers, or persons described in subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

SECTION 72. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-332:

(1) A transferee of money takes the money free of a security interest unless the transferee acts in collusion with the debtor in violating the rights of the secured party.

(2) A transferee of funds from a deposit account takes the funds free of a security interest in the deposit account unless the transferee acts in collusion with the debtor in violating the rights of the secured party.

SECTION 73. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-333:

(1) In this section, "possessory lien" means an interest, other than a security interest or an agricultural lien:

(a) Which secures payment or performance of an obligation for services or materials furnished with respect to goods by a person in the ordinary course of the person's business;

(b) Which is created by statute or rule of law in favor of the person; and

(c) Whose effectiveness depends on the person's possession of the goods.

(2) A possessory lien on goods has priority over a security interest in the goods unless the lien is created by a statute that expressly provides otherwise.

SECTION 74. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-334:

(1) A security interest under this article may be created in goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures. A security interest does not exist under this article in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(2) This article does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real property law.

(3) In cases not governed by subsections (4) to (8) of this section, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real property other than the debtor.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (8) of this section, a perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property and:

(a) The security interest is a purchase-money security interest;

(b) The interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures; and

(c) The security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within twenty (20) days thereafter.

(5) A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(a) The debtor has an interest of record in the real property or is in possession of the real property and the security interest:

1. Is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record; and

2. Has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner;

(b) Before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by this article and the fixtures are readily removable:

1. Factory or office machines;

2. Equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real property; or

3. Replacements of domestic appliances that are consumer goods;

(c) The conflicting interest is a lien on the real property obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this article; or

(d) The security interest is:

1. Created in a manufactured home in a manufactured-home transaction; and

2. Perfected pursuant to a statute described in subsection (1)(b) of Section 51 of this Act.

(6) A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if:

(a) The encumbrancer or owner has, in an authenticated record, consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(b) The debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner.

(7) The priority of the security interest under subsection (6)(b) of this section continues for a reasonable time if the debtor's right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner terminates.

(8) A mortgage is a construction mortgage to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including the acquisition cost of the land, if a recorded record of the mortgage so indicates. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage.

(9) A perfected security interest in crops growing on real property has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property.

SECTION 75. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-335:

(1) A security interest may be created in an accession and continues in collateral that becomes an accession.

(2) If a security interest is perfected when the collateral becomes an accession, the security interest remains perfected in the collateral.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the other provisions of this part of this article determine the priority of a security interest in an accession.

(4) A security interest in an accession is subordinate to a security interest in the whole which is perfected by compliance with the requirements of a certificate-of-title statute under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act.

(5) After default, subject to Part 6 of this article, a secured party may remove an accession from other goods if the security interest in the accession has priority over the claims of every person having an interest in the whole.

(6) A secured party that removes an accession from other goods under subsection (5) of this section shall promptly reimburse any holder of a security interest or other lien on, or owner of, the whole or of the other goods, other than the debtor, for the cost of repair of any physical injury to the whole or the other goods. The secured party need not reimburse the holder or owner for any diminution in value of the whole or the other goods caused by the absence of the accession removed or by any necessity for replacing it. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate assurance for the performance of the obligation to reimburse.

SECTION 76. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-336:

(1) In this section, "commingled goods" means goods that are physically united with other goods in such a manner that their identity is lost in a product or mass.

(2) A security interest does not exist in commingled goods as such. However, a security interest may attach to a product or mass that results when goods become commingled goods.

(3) If collateral becomes commingled goods, a security interest attaches to the product or mass.

(4) If a security interest in collateral is perfected before the collateral becomes commingled goods, the security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) of this section is perfected.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (6) of this section, the other provisions of this part of this article determine the priority of a security interest that attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) of this section.

(6) If more than one (1) security interest attaches to the product or mass under subsection (3) of this section, the following rules determine priority:

  (a) A security interest that is perfected under subsection (4) of this section has priority over a security interest that is unperfected at the time the collateral becomes commingled goods.

  (b) If more than one (1) security interest is perfected under subsection (4) of this section, the security interests rank equally in proportion to the value of the collateral at the time it became commingled goods.

SECTION 77. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-337:

If, while a security interest in goods is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction, this Commonwealth issues a certificate of title that does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or contain a statement that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate:

(1) A buyer of the goods, other than a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, takes free of the security interest if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest; and

(2) The security interest is subordinate to a conflicting security interest in the goods that attaches, and is perfected under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act, after issuance of the certificate and without the conflicting secured party's knowledge of the security interest.

SECTION 78. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-338:

If a security interest or agricultural lien is perfected by a filed financing statement providing information described in subsection (2)(e) of Section 107 of this Act which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed:

(1) The security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to a conflicting perfected security interest in the collateral to the extent that the holder of the conflicting security interest gives value in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information; and

(2) A purchaser, other than a secured party, of the collateral takes free of the security interest or agricultural lien to the extent that, in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information, the purchaser gives value and, in the case of chattel paper, documents, goods, instruments, or a security certificate, receives delivery of the collateral.

SUBPART 4. RIGHTS OF BANK

SECTION 79. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-339:

This article does not preclude subordination by agreement by a person entitled to priority.

SECTION 80. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-340:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a bank with which a deposit account is maintained may exercise any right of recoupment or set-off against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, the application of this article to a security interest in a deposit account does not affect a right of recoupment or set-off of the secured party as to a deposit account maintained with the secured party.

(3) The exercise by a bank of a set-off against a deposit account is ineffective against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account which is perfected by control under subsection (1)(c) of Section 24 of this Act, if the set-off is based on a claim against the debtor.

SECTION 81. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-341:

Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of Section 80 of this Act, and unless the bank otherwise agrees in an authenticated record, a bank's rights and duties with respect to a deposit account maintained with the bank are not terminated, suspended, or modified by:

(1) The creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the deposit account;

(2) The bank's knowledge of the security interest; or

(3) The bank's receipt of instructions from the secured party.

SECTION 82. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-342:

This article does not require a bank to enter into an agreement of the kind described in subsection (1)(b) of Section 24 of this Act, even if its customer so requests or directs. A bank that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another person unless requested to do so by its customer.

PART 4

SECTION 83. KRS 355.9-401 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section and Sections 88, 89, 90, and 91 of this Act, whether a debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred is governed by law other than this article.

(2) An agreement between the debtor and secured party which prohibits a transfer of the debtor's rights in collateral or makes the transfer a default does not prevent the transfer from taking effect.

SECTION 84. KRS 355.9-402 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

The existence of a security interest, agricultural lien, or authority given to a debtor to dispose of or use collateral, without more, does not subject a secured party to liability in contract or tort for the debtor's acts or omissions.

SECTION 85. KRS 355.9-403 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section, "value" has the meaning provided in KRS 355. 3-303(1).

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor not to assert against an assignee any claim or defense that the account debtor may have against the assignor is enforceable by an assignee that takes an assignment:

  (a) For value;

  (b) In good faith;

  (c) Without notice of a claim of a property or possessory right to the property assigned; and

  (d) Without notice of a defense or claim in recoupment of the type that may be asserted against a person entitled to enforce a negotiable instrument under KRS 355.3-305(1).

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to defenses of a type that may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under KRS 355.3-305(2).

(4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the rights of an assignee are subject to claims or defenses that the account debtor could assert against the original obligee, and the record does not include such a statement:

(a) The record has the same effect as if the record included such a statement; and

(b) The account debtor may assert against an assignee those claims and defenses that would have been available if the record included such a statement.

(5) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, this section does not displace law other than this article which gives effect to an agreement by an account debtor not to assert a claim or defense against an assignee.

SECTION 86. KRS 355.9-404 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims, and subject to subsections (2) to (5) of this section, the rights of an assignee are subject to:

(a) All terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to the contract; and

(b) Any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment authenticated by the assignor or the assignee.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section and except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, the claim of an account debtor against an assignor may be asserted against an assignee under subsection (1) of this section only to reduce the amount the account debtor owes.

(3) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this article requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor under the record, and the record does not include such a statement, the extent to which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.

(5) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

SECTION 87. KRS 355.9-405 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A modification of or substitution for an assigned contract is effective against an assignee if made in good faith. The assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that the modification or substitution is a breach of contract by the assignor. This subsection is subject to subsections (2) to (4) of this section.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section applies to the extent that:

(a) The right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance; or

(b) The right to payment or a part thereof has been fully earned by performance and the account debtor has not received notification of the assignment under subsection (1) of Section 88 of this Act.

(3) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(4) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

SECTION 88. KRS 355.9-406 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (9) of this section, an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(2) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, notification is ineffective under subsection (1) of this section:

(a) If it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;

(b) To the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this article; or

(c) At the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:

1. Only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;

2. A portion has been assigned to another assignee; or

3. The account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(3) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section and Sections 89 and 162 of this Act, and subject to subsection (8) of this section, a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

(a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

(5) Subsection (4) of this section does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 89 and 162 of this Act and subject to subsections (8) and (9) of this section, a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(7) Subject to subsection (8) of this section, an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under subsection (2)(c) of this section.

(8) This section is subject to law other than this article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(9) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

SECTION 89. KRS 355.9-407 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a term in a lease agreement is ineffective to the extent that it:

(a) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a party to the lease to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the lease.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7) of Section 162 of this Act, a term described in subsection (1)(b) of this section is effective to the extent that there is:

(a) A transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the term; or

(b) A delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the term.

(3) The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the lessor's interest under the lease contract or the lessor's residual interest in the goods is not a transfer that materially impairs the lessee's prospect of obtaining return performance or materially changes the duty of or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the lessee within the purview of subsection (4) of Section 162 of this Act unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the lessor.

SECTION 90. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-408:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(a) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note.

(3) A rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(a) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(4) To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (3) of this section would be effective under law other than this article but is ineffective under subsection (1) or (3) of this section, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:

(a) Is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(b) Does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(c) Does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;

(d) Does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;

(e) Does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and

(f) Does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(5) This section prevails over any inconsistent provisions of the following statutes and any administrative regulations based on those statutes: KRS 56.230(2), 138.320(3), 138.665(4), 138.720(5), 139.250, 154A.400(3), 190.047(1), 190.070(2)(c), 217B.535(2), 228.070(2), 230.300(9), 234.330(10), 243.630(2), 260.730(3), 260.815, 288.460(2), 292.320(2)(b), 294.036(3), 304.3-410(2)(f), 304.3-520(5), 333.080, 350.135(1), 365.430(27), and 368.070(2).

(6) Subsection (3) of this section does not apply to the following statutes and to administrative regulations promulgated under the authority of those statutes: KRS 304.2-260, KRS 304.24-420, Subtitle 33 of KRS Chapter 304, and Subtitle 37 of KRS Chapter 304.

SECTION 91. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-409:

(1) A term in a letter of credit or a rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice applicable to the letter of credit which prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of an applicant, issuer, or nominated person to a beneficiary's assignment of or creation of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right is ineffective to the extent that the term or rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice:

(a) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right; or

(b) Provides that the assignment or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the letter-of-credit right.

(2) To the extent that a term in a letter of credit is ineffective under subsection (1) of this section but would be effective under law other than this article or a custom or practice applicable to the letter of credit, to the transfer of a right to draw or otherwise demand performance under the letter of credit, or to the assignment of a right to proceeds of the letter of credit, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right:

(a) Is not enforceable against the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary;

(b) Imposes no duties or obligations on the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary; and

(c) Does not require the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or other performance from the secured party.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the following statutes and to administrative regulations promulgated under the authority of those statutes: KRS 304.2-260, KRS 304.24-420, Subtitle 33 of KRS Chapter 304, and Subtitle 37 of KRS Chapter 304.

PART 5

FILING

SECTION 92. KRS 355.9-501 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, if the local law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest or agricultural lien, the office in which to file a financing statement to perfect the security interest or agricultural lien is:

(a) The office designated for the filing or recording of a record of a mortgage on the related real property, if:

1. The collateral is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut; or

2. The financing statement is filed as a fixture filing and the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures; or

(b) The office of the Secretary of State, in all other cases, including a case in which the collateral is goods that are or are to become fixtures and the financing statement is not filed as a fixture filing.

(2) The office in which to file a financing statement to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the Secretary of State. The financing statement also constitutes a fixture filing as to the collateral indicated in the financing statement which is or is to become fixtures.

SECTION 93. KRS 355.9-502 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, a financing statement is sufficient only if it:

(a) Provides the name of the debtor;

(b) Provides the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party; and

(c) Indicates the collateral covered by the financing statement.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of Section 92 of this Act, to be sufficient, a financing statement that covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, or which is filed as a fixture filing and covers goods that are or are to become fixtures, must satisfy subsection (1) of this section and also:

(a) Indicate that it covers this type of collateral;

(b) Indicate that it is to be filed in the real property records;

(c) Provide a description of the real property to which the collateral is related; and

(d) If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real property, provide the name of a record owner.

(3) A record of a mortgage is effective, from the date of recording, as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut only if:

(a) The record indicates the goods or accounts that it covers;

(b) The goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real property described in the record or the collateral is related to the real property described in the record and is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut;

(c) The record satisfies the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than an indication that it is to be filed in the real property records; and

(d) The record is recorded.

(4) A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches.

SECTION 94. KRS 355.9-503 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A financing statement sufficiently provides the name of the debtor:

(a) If the debtor is a registered organization, only if the financing statement provides the name of the debtor indicated on the public record of the debtor's jurisdiction of organization which shows the debtor to have been organized;

(b) If the debtor is a decedent's estate, only if the financing statement provides the name of the decedent and indicates that the debtor is an estate;

(c) If the debtor is a trust or a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust, only if the financing statement:

1. Provides the name specified for the trust in its organic documents or, if no name is specified, provides the name of the settlor and additional information sufficient to distinguish the debtor from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors; and

2. Indicates, in the debtor's name or otherwise, that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust; and

(d) In other cases:

1. If the debtor has a name, only if it provides the individual or organizational name of the debtor; and

2. If the debtor does not have a name, only if it provides the names of the partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(2) A financing statement that provides the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (1) of this section is not rendered ineffective by the absence of:

(a) A trade name or other name of the debtor; or

(b) Unless required under subsection (1)(d)2. of this section, names of partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(3) A financing statement that provides only the debtor's trade name does not sufficiently provide the name of the debtor.

(4) Failure to indicate the representative capacity of a secured party or representative of a secured party does not affect the sufficiency of a financing statement.

(5) A financing statement may provide the name of more than one (1) debtor and the name of more than one (1) secured party.

SECTION 95. KRS 355.9-504 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

A financing statement sufficiently indicates the collateral that it covers if the financing statement provides:

(1) A description of the collateral pursuant to Section 28 of this Act; or

(2) An indication that the financing statement covers all assets or all personal property.

SECTION 96. KRS 355.9-505 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A consignor, lessor, or other bailor of goods, a licensor, or a buyer of a payment intangible or promissory note may file a financing statement, or may comply with a statute or treaty described in subsection (1) of Section 51 of this Act, using the terms "consignor," "consignee," "lessor," "lessee," "bailor," "bailee," "licensor," "licensee," "owner," "registered owner," "buyer," "seller," or words of similar import, instead of the terms "secured party" and "debtor."

(2) This part of this article applies to the filing of a financing statement under subsection (1) of this section and, as appropriate, to compliance that is equivalent to filing a financing statement under subsection (2) of Section 51 of this Act, but the filing or compliance is not of itself a factor in determining whether the collateral secures an obligation. If it is determined for another reason that the collateral secures an obligation, a security interest held by the consignor, lessor, bailor, licensor, owner, or buyer which attaches to the collateral is perfected by the filing or compliance.

SECTION 97. KRS 355.9-506 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A financing statement substantially satisfying the requirements of this part of this article is effective, even if it has minor errors or omissions, unless the errors or omissions make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (1) of Section 94 of this Act is seriously misleading.

(3) If a search of the records of the filing office under the debtor's correct name, using the filing office's standard search logic, if any, would disclose a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (1) of Section 94 of this Act, the name provided does not make the financing statement seriously misleading.

(4) For purposes of subsection (2) of Section 99 of this Act, the "debtor's correct name" in subsection (3) of this section means the correct name of the new debtor.

SECTION 98. KRS 355.9-507 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section and Section 99 of this Act, a financing statement is not rendered ineffective if, after the financing statement is filed, the information provided in the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under Section 97 of this Act.

(3) If a debtor so changes its name that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading under Section 97 of this Act:

(a) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four (4) months after, the change; and

(b) The financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four (4) months after the change, unless an amendment to the financing statement which renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four (4) months after the change.

SECTION 99. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-508:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a filed financing statement naming an original debtor is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights to the extent that the financing statement would have been effective had the original debtor acquired rights in the collateral.

(2) If the difference between the name of the original debtor and that of the new debtor causes a filed financing statement that is effective under subsection (1) of this section to be seriously misleading under Section 97 of this Act:

(a) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four (4) months after, the new debtor becomes bound under subsection (4) of Section 33 of this Act; and

(b) The financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor more than four (4) months after the new debtor becomes bound under subsection (4) of Section 33 of this Act unless an initial financing statement providing the name of the new debtor is filed before the expiration of that time.

(3) This section does not apply to collateral as to which a filed financing statement remains effective against the new debtor under subsection (1) of Section 98 of this Act.

SECTION 100. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-509:

(1) A person may file an initial financing statement, amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement, or amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

(a) The debtor authorizes the filing in an authenticated record or pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section; or

(b) The person holds an agricultural lien that has become effective at the time of filing and the financing statement covers only collateral in which the person holds an agricultural lien.

(2) By authenticating or becoming bound as debtor by a security agreement, a debtor or new debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering:

(a) The collateral described in the security agreement; and

(b) Property that becomes collateral under subsection (1)(b) of Section 55 of this Act, whether or not the security agreement expressly covers proceeds.

(3) By acquiring collateral in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues under subsection (1)(a) of Section 55 of this Act, a debtor authorizes the filing of an initial financing statement, and an amendment, covering the collateral and property that becomes collateral under subsection (1)(b) of Section 55 of this Act.

(4) A person may file an amendment other than an amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement or an amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:

(a) The secured party of record authorizes the filing; or

(b) The amendment is a termination statement for a financing statement as to which the secured party of record has failed to file or send a termination statement as required by subsection (1) or (3) of Section 104 of this Act, the debtor authorizes the filing, and the termination statement indicates that the debtor authorized it to be filed.

(5) If there is more than one (1) secured party of record for a financing statement, each secured party of record may authorize the filing of an amendment under subsection (4) of this section.

SECTION 101. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-510:

(1) A filed record is effective only to the extent that it was filed by a person that may file it under Section 100 of this Act.

(2) A record authorized by one secured party of record does not affect the financing statement with respect to another secured party of record.

(3) A continuation statement that is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by subsection (4) of Section 106 of this Act is ineffective.

SECTION 102. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AT KRS 355.9-511:

(1) A secured party of record with respect to a financing statement is a person whose name is provided as the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party in an initial financing statement that has been filed. If an initial financing statement is filed under subsection (1) of Section 105 of this Act, the assignee named in the initial financing statement is the secured party of record with respect to the financing statement.

(2) If an amendment of a financing statement which provides the name of a person as a secured party or a representative of a secured party is filed, the person named in the amendment is a secured party of record. If an amendment is filed under subsection (2) of Section 105 of this Act, the assignee named in the amendment is a secured party of record.

(3) A person remains a secured party of record until the filing of an amendment of the financing statement which deletes the person.

SECTION 103. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-512:

(1) Subject to Section 100 of this Act, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or, subject to subsection (5) of this section, otherwise amend the information provided in, a financing statement by filing an amendment that:

(a) Identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which the amendment relates; and

(b) If the amendment relates to an initial financing statement filed in a filing office described in subsection (1)(a) of Section 92 of this Act, provides the information specified in subsection (2) of Section 93 of this Act.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 106 of this Act, the filing of an amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of the financing statement.

(3) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds collateral is effective as to the added collateral only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(4) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds a debtor is effective as to the added debtor only from the date of the filing of the amendment.

(5) An amendment is ineffective to the extent it:

(a) Purports to delete all debtors and fails to provide the name of a debtor to be covered by the financing statement; or

(b) Purports to delete all secured parties of record and fails to provide the name of a new secured party of record.

SECTION 104. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-513:

(1) A secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to file a termination statement for the financing statement if the financing statement covers consumer goods and:

(a) There is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(b) The debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(2) To comply with subsection (1) of this section, a secured party shall cause the secured party of record to file the termination statement:

(a) Within one (1) month after there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or

(b) If earlier, within twenty (20) days after the secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor.

(3) In cases not governed by subsection (1) of this section, within twenty (20) days after a secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor, the secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to send to the debtor a termination statement for the financing statement or file the termination statement in the filing office if:

(a) Except in the case of a financing statement covering accounts or chattel paper that has been sold or goods that are the subject of a consignment, there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value;

(b) The financing statement covers accounts or chattel paper that has been sold but as to which the account debtor or other person obligated has discharged its obligation;

(c) The financing statement covers goods that were the subject of a consignment to the debtor but are not in the debtor's possession; or

(d) The debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in Section 101 of this Act, upon the filing of a termination statement with the filing office, the financing statement to which the termination statement relates ceases to be effective. Except as otherwise provided in Section 101 of this Act, for purposes of Sections 110(7), 113(1), and 114(3), the filing with the filing office of a termination statement relating to a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility also causes the effectiveness of the financing statement to lapse.

SECTION 105. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-514:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, an initial financing statement may reflect an assignment of all of the secured party's power to authorize an amendment to the financing statement by providing the name and mailing address of the assignee as the name and address of the secured party.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a secured party of record may assign of record all or part of its power to authorize an amendment to a financing statement by filing in the filing office an amendment of the financing statement which:

(a) Identifies, by its file number, the initial financing statement to which it relates;

(b) Provides the name of the assignor; and

(c) Provides the name and mailing address of the assignee.

(3) An assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture covered by a record of a mortgage which is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under subsection (3) of Section 93 of this Act may be made only by an assignment of record of the mortgage in the manner provided by law of this Commonwealth other than this chapter.

SECTION 106. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-515:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2), (5), (6), and (7) of this section, a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five (5) years after the date of filing.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (5), (6), and (7) of this section, an initial financing statement filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction is effective for a period of thirty (30) years after the date of filing if it indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction.

(3) The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the period of its effectiveness unless before the lapse a continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. Upon lapse, a financing statement ceases to be effective and any security interest or agricultural lien that was perfected by the financing statement becomes unperfected, unless the security interest is perfected otherwise. If the security interest or agricultural lien becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(4) A continuation statement may be filed only within six (6) months before the expiration of the five (5) year period specified in subsection (1) of this section or the thirty (30) year period specified in subsection (2) of this section, whichever is applicable.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in Section 101 of this Act, upon timely filing of a continuation statement, the effectiveness of the initial financing statement continues for a period of five (5) years commencing on the day on which the financing statement would have become ineffective in the absence of the filing. Upon the expiration of the five (5) year period, the financing statement lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (3) of this section, unless, before the lapse, another continuation statement is filed pursuant to subsection (4) of this section. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the initial financing statement.

(6) If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed.

(7) A record of a mortgage that is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under subsection (3) of Section 93 of this Act remains effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real property.

SECTION 107. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-516:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, communication of a record to a filing office and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the record by the filing office constitutes filing.

(2) Filing does not occur with respect to a record that a filing office refuses to accept because:

(a) The record is not communicated by a method or medium of communication authorized by the filing office;

(b) An amount equal to or greater than the applicable filing fee is not tendered;

(c) The filing office is unable to index the record because:

1. In the case of an initial financing statement, the record does not provide a name for the debtor;

2. In the case of an amendment or correction statement, the record:

a. Does not identify the initial financing statement as required by Section 103 or 109 of this Act, as applicable; or

b. Identifies an initial financing statement whose effectiveness has lapsed under Section 106 of this Act;

3. In the case of an initial financing statement that provides the name of a debtor identified as an individual or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor identified as an individual which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates, the record does not identify the debtor's last name; or

4. In the case of a record filed in the filing office described in subsection (1)(a) of Section 92 of this Act, the record does not provide a sufficient description of the real property to which it relates;

(d) In the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that adds a secured party of record, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the secured party of record;

(e) In the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record does not:

1. Provide a mailing address for the debtor;

2. Indicate whether the debtor is an individual or an organization; or

3. If the financing statement indicates that the debtor is an organization, provide:

a. A type of organization for the debtor;

b. A jurisdiction of organization for the debtor; or

c. An organizational identification number for the debtor or indicate that the debtor has none;

(f) In the case of an assignment reflected in an initial financing statement under subsection (1) of Section 105 of this Act or an amendment filed under subsection (2) of Section 105 of this Act, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the assignee; or

(g) In the case of a continuation statement, the record is not filed within the six (6) month period prescribed by subsection (4) of Section 106 of this Act.

(3) For purposes of subsection (2) of this section:

(a) A record does not provide information if the filing office is unable to read or decipher the information; and

(b) A record that does not indicate that it is an amendment or identify an initial financing statement to which it relates, as required by Section 103, 105, or 109 of this Act, is an initial financing statement.

(4) A record that is communicated to the filing office with tender of the filing fee, but which the filing office refuses to accept for a reason other than one set forth in subsection (2) of this section, is effective as a filed record except as against a purchaser of the collateral which gives value in reasonable reliance upon the absence of the record from the files.

SECTION 108. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-517:

The failure of the filing office to index a record correctly does not affect the effectiveness of the filed record.

(1) A person may file in the filing office a correction statement with respect to a record indexed there under the person's name if the person believes that the record is inaccurate or was wrongfully filed.

(2) A correction statement must:

(a) Identify the record to which it relates by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates;

(b) Indicate that it is a correction statement; and

(c) Provide the basis for the person's belief that the record is inaccurate and indicate the manner in which the person believes the record should be amended to cure any inaccuracy or provide the basis for the person's belief that the record was wrongfully filed.

(3) The filing of a correction statement does not affect the effectiveness of an initial financing statement or other filed record.

(4) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index it:

(a) Under the names of the debtor and of each owner of record shown on the financing statement as if they were the mortgagors under a mortgage of the real property described; and

(b) To the extent that the law of this Commonwealth provides for indexing of records of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or, if indexing is by description, as if the financing statement were a record of a mortgage of the real property described.

(5) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, the filing office shall index an assignment filed under subsection (1) of Section 105 of this Act or an amendment filed under subsection (2) of Section 105 of this Act:

The communication must be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by filing-office rule but in no event more than two (2) business days after the filing office receives the record.

(3) A filed financing statement satisfying subsections (1) and (2) of Section 93 of this Act is effective, even if the filing

However, Section 78 of this Act applies to a filed financing statement providing information described in subsection (2)(e) of Section 107 of this Act which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed.

(2) Except to the extent that a statute governing disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing office immediately may destroy any written record evidencing a financing statement. (a) A secured party need not prove compliance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance unless the debtor or a secondary obligor places the secured party's compliance in issue.

(b) If the secured party's compliance is placed in issue, the secured party has the burden of establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with this part of this article.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 146 of this Act, if a secured party fails to prove that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance, the liability of a debtor or a secondary obligor for a deficiency is limited to an amount by which the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees exceeds the greater of:

1. The proceeds of the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance; or

2. The amount of proceeds that would have been realized had the noncomplying secured party proceeded in accordance with the provisions of this part of this article relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.

(d) For purposes of paragraph (c)2. of this subsection, the amount of proceeds that would have been realized is equal to the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees unless the secured party proves that the amount is less than that sum.

(e) If a deficiency or surplus is calculated under subsection (6) of Section 133 of this Act, the debtor or obligor has the burden of establishing that the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of prices that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.

(2) The limitation of the rules in subsection (1) of this section to transactions other than consumer transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in consumer transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

SECTION 145. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-627:

(1) The fact that a greater amount could have been obtained by a collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to preclude the secured party from establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was made in a commercially reasonable manner.

(2) A disposition of collateral is made in a commercially reasonable manner if the disposition is made:

(a) In the usual manner on any recognized market;

(b) At the price current in any recognized market at the time of the disposition; or

(c) Otherwise in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property that was the subject of the disposition.

(3) A collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is commercially reasonable if it has been approved:

(a) In a judicial proceeding;

(b) By a bona fide creditors' committee;

(c) By a representative of creditors; or

(d) By an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

(4) Approval under subsection (3) of this section need not be obtained, and lack of approval does not mean that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is not commercially reasonable.

SECTION 146. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-628:

(1) Unless a secured party knows that a person is a debtor or obligor, knows the identity of the person, and knows how to communicate with the person:

(a) The secured party is not liable to the person, or to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against the person, for failure to comply with this article; and

(b) The secured party's failure to comply with this article does not affect the liability of the person for a deficiency.

(2) A secured party is not liable because of its status as secured party:

(a) To a person that is a debtor or obligor, unless the secured party knows:

1. That the person is a debtor or obligor;

2. The identity of the person; and

3. How to communicate with the person; or

(b) To a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against a person, unless the secured party knows:

1. That the person is a debtor; and

2. The identity of the person.

(3) A secured party is not liable to any person, and a person's liability for a deficiency is not affected, because of any act or omission arising out of the secured party's reasonable belief that a transaction is not a consumer-goods transaction or a consumer transaction or that goods are not consumer goods, if the secured party's belief is based on its reasonable reliance on:

(a) A debtor's representation concerning the purpose for which collateral was to be used, acquired, or held; or

(b) An obligor's representation concerning the purpose for which a secured obligation was incurred.

(4) A secured party is not liable to any person under subsection (3)(b) of Section 143 of this Act for its failure to comply with Section 134 of this Act.

(5) A secured party is not liable under subsection (3)(b) of Section 143 of this Act more than once with respect to any one (1) secured obligation.

PART 7

TRANSITION

SECTION 147. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS 355.9-701:

This article takes effect on July 1, 2001.

SECTION 148. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-702:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this part of this article, the revision of Article 9 in this Act applies to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before this Act takes effect.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section and Sections 149 to 155 of this Act:

- (a) Transactions and liens that were not governed by the former Article 9 of this chapter, were validly entered into or created before the revision of Article 9 in this Act takes effect, and would be subject to the revision of Article 9 in this Act if they had been entered into or created after this Act takes effect, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from those transactions and liens remain valid after this Act takes effect; and
- (b) The transactions and liens may be terminated, completed, consummated, and enforced as required or permitted by the revision of Article 9 in this Act or by the law that otherwise would apply if this Act had not taken effect.

(3) The revision of Article 9 in this Act does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before this Act takes effect.

SECTION 149. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-703:

(1) A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this Act takes effect and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time is a perfected security interest under the revision of Article 9 in this Act if, when this Act takes effect, the applicable requirements for enforceability and perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are satisfied without further action.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 151 of this Act, if, immediately before this Act takes effect, a security interest is enforceable and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time, but the applicable requirements for enforceability or perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are not satisfied when this Act takes effect, the security interest:

- (a) Is a perfected security interest for one (1) year after this Act takes effect;
- (b) Remains enforceable thereafter only if the security interest becomes enforceable under Section 33 of this Act before the year expires; and
- (c) Remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are satisfied before the year expires.

SECTION 150. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-704:

A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this Act takes effect but which would be subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time:

(1) Remains an enforceable security interest for one (1) year after this Act takes effect;

(2) Remains enforceable thereafter if the security interest becomes enforceable under Section 33 of this Act when this Act takes effect or within one (1) year thereafter; and

(3) Becomes perfected:

- (a) Without further action, when this Act takes effect if the applicable requirements for perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act are satisfied before or at that time; or
- (b) When the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

SECTION 151. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-705:

(1) If action, other than the filing of a financing statement, is taken before this Act takes effect and the action would have resulted in priority of a security interest over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor had the security interest become enforceable before this Act takes effect, the action is effective to perfect a security interest that attaches under the revision of Article 9 in this Act within one (1) year after this Act takes effect. An attached security interest becomes unperfected one (1) year after this Act takes effect unless the security interest becomes a perfected security interest under the revision of Article 9 in this Act before the expiration of that period.

(2) The filing of a financing statement before this Act takes effect is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under the revision of Article 9 in this Act.

(3) The revision of Article 9 in this Act does not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before this Act takes effect, is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in the former KRS 355.9-103, or law determining the place of filing as provided in the former KRS 355.9-401. However, except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section and Section 152 of this Act, the financing statement ceases to be effective at the earlier of:

- (a) The time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is filed; or
- (b) June 30, 2006.

(4) The filing of a continuation statement after this Act takes effect does not continue the effectiveness of the financing statement filed before this Act takes effect. However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after this Act takes effect and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 of this article, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before this Act takes effect continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

(5) Subsection (3)(b) of this section applies to a financing statement that, before this Act takes effect, is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in the former KRS 355.9-103 only to the extent that Part 3 of this article provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

(6) A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before this Act takes effect and a continuation statement filed after this Act takes effect is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of Part 5 of this article for an initial financing statement.

SECTION 152. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-706:

(1) The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this Act takes effect if:

- (a) The filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under the revision of Article 9 in this Act;
- (b) The pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another state or another office in this Commonwealth; and
- (c) The initial financing statement satisfies subsection (3) of this section.

(2) The filing of an initial financing statement under subsection (1) of this section continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective-date financing statement:

- (a) If the initial financing statement is filed before this Act takes effect, for the period provided in the former KRS 355.9-403 with respect to a financing statement; and
- (b) If the initial financing statement is filed after this Act takes effect, for the period provided in Section 106 of this Act with respect to an initial financing statement.

(3) To be effective for purposes of subsection (1) of this section, an initial financing statement must:

- (a) Satisfy the requirements of Part 5 of this article for an initial financing statement;
- (b) Identify the pre-effective-date financing statement by indicating the office in which the financing statement was filed and providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of the financing statement and of the most recent continuation statement filed with respect to the financing statement; and
- (c) Indicate that the pre-effective-date financing statement remains effective.

(4) When a secured party files an initial financing statement with the Secretary of State under subsection (1) of this section or under Section 153 of this Act, the secured party may send a copy of the initial financing statement to the county clerk of the county in which the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed, and, additionally, may send to the county clerk copies of any continuation statement subsequently filed with the Secretary of State that relates to an initial financing statement filed under subsection (1) of this section or under Section 153 of this Act. The secured party's election not to send a copy of an initial financing statement or a continuation statement to the county clerk does not affect in any way the perfection of the secured party's security interest. The county clerk shall append to the pre-effective-date financing statement the copy of any initial financing statement or continuation statement received from a secured party and shall retain the entire file as required by Section 156 of this Act.

SECTION 153. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-707:

(1) In this section, "pre-effective-date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before the effective date of this Act.

(2) After the effective date of this Act, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend information provided in, a pre-effective-date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 of this Article. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, if the law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective-date financing statement may be amended after the effective date of this Act only if:

- (a) The pre-effective-date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act;
- (b) An amendment is filed in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies subsection (3) of Section 152 of this Act; or
- (c) An initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies subsection (3) of Section 152 of this Act is filed in the office specified in Section 92 of this Act.

(4) If the law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement may be continued only under subsections (4) and (6) of Section 151 of this Act or Section 152 of this Act.

(5) Whether or not the law of this Commonwealth governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement filed in this Commonwealth may be terminated after the effective date of this Act by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective-date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies subsection (3) of Section 152 of this Act has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3 of this Article as the office in which to file a financing statement.

SECTION 154. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-708:

A person may file an initial financing statement or a continuation statement under this part of this article if:

(1) The secured party of record authorizes the filing; and

(2) The filing is necessary under this part of this article:

- (a) To continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this Act takes effect; or
- (b) To perfect or continue the perfection of a security interest.

SECTION 155. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-709:

(1) The revision of Article 9 in this Act determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. However, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before this Act takes effect, the former Article 9 of this chapter determines priority.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1) of Section 62 of this Act, the priority of a security interest that becomes enforceable under Section 33 of this Act dates from the time this Act takes effect if the security interest is perfected under the revision of Article 9 in this Act by the filing of a financing statement before this Act takes effect which would not have been effective to perfect the security interest under the former Article 9 of this chapter. This subsection does not apply to conflicting security interests each of which is perfected by the filing of such a financing statement.

SECTION 156. A NEW SECTION OF ARTICLE 9 OF KRS CHAPTER 355 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS AND TO BE NUMBERED AS KRS 355.9-710:

(1) A county clerk who receives a statement tendered by a secured party under Part 4 of the former Article 9, prior to the effective date of this Act, that has not been filed or indexed on the effective date of this Act, shall file and index the statement as soon as practicable.

(2) Every county clerk shall append to the pre-effective-date financing statement the copies of any initial financing statement or continuation statement received from a secured party under subsection (4) of Section 152 of this Act.

(3) The county clerk shall maintain all records filed under Part 4 of the former Article 9 and subsection (2) of this section until the later of:

- (a) One (1) year after the lapse of the initial financing statement;
- (b) July 1, 2008; or
- (c) Such other record-retention requirement as may be applicable under other Kentucky law or administrative regulations.

(4) The county clerk shall respond to requests for information with respect to records maintained under this Article in accordance with subsections (3) and (4) of Section 114 of this Act and may charge the fee for issuing certificates authorized in Section 116 of this Act.

(5) When Internet access is available through the AVIS system or its successor, every county clerk shall provide a means within his or her office by which the Secretary of State's filing system for this Article can be searched and through which electronic filings under this Article can be made with the Secretary of State. This subsection shall not be construed to require a secured party to file through the means provided by a county clerk. The county clerk shall neither be required to conduct a search of the Secretary of State's filing system nor to issue a certificate as to the contents of the system.

SEGMENT D

CONFORMING AMENDMENTS FOR REVISED ARTICLE 9

Section 157. KRS 355.1-201 is amended to read as follows:

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent articles of this chapter which are applicable to specific articles or parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this chapter (KRS 355.1-205 and 355.2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this chapter, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (KRS 355.1-103). (Compare "Contract.")

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person that buys goods~~[who]~~ in good faith,~~[and]~~ without knowledge that the sale violates~~[to him is in violation of]~~ the~~[ownership]~~ rights~~[or security interest]~~ of another person~~[a third party]~~ in the goods, and~~[buys]~~ in the ordinary course from a person, other than a pawnbroker, in the business of selling goods of that kind~~[but does not include a pawnbroker]~~. A person buys goods in the ordinary course if the sale to the person comports with the usual or customary practices in the kind of business in which the seller is engaged or with the seller's own usual or customary practices. A person that sells oil, gas, or other minerals at the wellhead or minehead is a person~~[All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons]~~ in the business of selling goods of that kind. A buyer in ordinary course of business~~["Buying"]~~ may buy~~[be]~~ for cash,~~[or]~~ by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit, and may acquire~~[includes receiving]~~ goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale~~[but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt]~~. Only a buyer that takes possession of the goods or has a right to recover the goods from the seller under Article 2 of this chapter may be a buyer in ordinary course of business. A person that acquires goods in a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt is not a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: NONNEGOTIABLE BILL OF LADING) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous." Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this chapter and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement.")

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this chapter to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder" with respect to a negotiable instrument, means the person in possession if the instrument is payable to bearer or, in the case of an instrument payable to an identified person, if the identified person is in possession. "Holder" with respect to a document of title means the person in possession if the goods are deliverable to bearer or to the order of the person in possession.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government and includes a monetary unit of account established by an intergovernmental organization or by agreement between two (2) or more nations.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when

(a) He has actual knowledge of it; or

(b) He has received a notice or notification of it; or

(c) From all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.

A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this chapter.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when

(a) It comes to his attention; or

(b) It is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two (2) or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party," as distinct from "third party," means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this chapter.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See KRS 355.1-102).

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, security interest, issue or reissue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation.~~[The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (KRS 355.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest."]~~ The term also includes any interest of a consignor and a buyer of accounts~~,[or]~~ chattel paper, a payment intangible, or a promissory note in a transaction that~~[which]~~ is subject to Article 9 of this chapter. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of those goods to a contract for sale under KRS 355.2-401 is not a "security interest," but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9 of this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in KRS 355.2-505, the right of a seller or lessor of goods under Article 2 or 2A of this chapter to retain or acquire possession of the goods is not a "security interest," but a seller or lessor may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Article 9 of this chapter. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (KRS 355.2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest."~~[Unless a consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest", but a consignment in any event is subject to the provisions on consignment sales (KRS 355.2-326).]~~

Whether a transaction creates a lease or security interest is determined by the facts of each case; however, a transaction creates a security interest if the consideration the lessee is to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is an obligation for the term of the lease not subject to termination by the lessee; and

(a) The original term of the lease is equal to or greater than the remaining economic life of the goods;

(b) The lessee is bound to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods or is bound to become the owner of the goods;

(c) The lessee has an option to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement; or

(d) The lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement.

A transaction does not create a security interest merely because it provides that:

(a) The present value of the consideration the lessee is obligated to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is substantially equal to or is greater than the fair market value of the goods at the time the lease is entered into;

(b) The lessee assumes risk of loss of the goods, or agrees to pay taxes, insurance, filing, recording, or registration fees, or service or maintenance costs with respect to the goods;

(c) The lessee has an option to renew the lease or to become the owner of the goods;

(d) The lessee has an option to renew the lease for a fixed rent that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal at the time the option is to be performed; or

(e) The lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for a fixed price that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market value of the goods at the time the option is to be performed.

For purposes of this subsection (37):

(x) Additional consideration is not nominal if (i) when the option to renew the lease is granted to the lessee the rent is stated to be the fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal determined at the time the option is to be performed, or (ii) when the option to become the owner of the goods is granted to the lessee the price is stated to be the fair market value of the goods determined at the time the option is to be performed. Additional consideration is nominal if it is less than the lessee's reasonably predictable cost of performing under the lease agreement if the option is not exercised;

(y) "Reasonably predictable" and "remaining economic life of the goods" are to be determined with reference to the facts and circumstances at the time the transaction is entered into; and

(z) "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one (1) or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate is not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction is entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature means one made without actual, implied, or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

(44) "Value," except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (KRS 355.3-303, 355.4-210, and 355.4-211) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them

- (a) In return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or
- (b) As security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing claim; or
- (c) By accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or
- (d) Generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

Section 158. KRS 355.2-103 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In this article unless the context otherwise requires

- (a) "Buyer" means a person who buys or contracts to buy goods.
- (b) "Good faith" in the case of a merchant means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing in the trade.
- (c) "Receipt" of goods means taking physical possession of them.
- (d) "Seller" means a person who sells or contracts to sell goods.

Section 159. KRS 355.2-210 is amended to read as follows:

(1) A party may perform his duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having his original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 88 of this Act, unless otherwise agreed, all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignment would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden or risk imposed on him by his contract, or impair materially his chance of obtaining return performance. A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of his entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

(3) The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the seller's interest under a contract is not a transfer that materially changes the duty of or increases materially the burden or risk imposed on the buyer or impairs materially the buyer's chance of obtaining return performance within the purview of subsection (2) of this section unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the seller. Even in that event, the creation, attachment, perfection, and enforcement of the security interest remain effective, but:

(a) The seller is liable to the buyer for damages caused by the delegation to the extent that the damages could not reasonably be prevented by the buyer; and

(b) A court having jurisdiction may grant other appropriate relief, including cancellation of the contract for sale or an injunction against enforcement of the security interest or consummation of the enforcement.

(4) Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.

(5)[~~(4)~~]An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by him to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract.

(6)[~~(5)~~]The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to his rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (KRS 355.2-609).

Section 160. KRS 355.2-326 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is

(a) a "sale on approval" if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and

(b) a "sale or return" if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.

(2) [~~Except as provided in subsection (3), ~~]Goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer's creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer's possession.

(3)[~~ Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which he deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as "on consignment" or "on memorandum." However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery~~

~~(a) complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor's interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or~~

~~(b) establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by his creditors to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or~~

~~(c) complies with the filing provisions of the article on secured transactions (Article 9).~~

~~(4)~~] Any "or return" term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this article (KRS 355.2-201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this article on parol or extrinsic evidence (KRS 355.2-202).

Section 161. KRS 355.2-502 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to subsections[~~subsection~~] (2) and (3) of this section and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which he has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if:

(a) In the case of goods bought for personal, family, or household purposes, the seller repudiates or fails to deliver as required by contract; or

(b) In all cases, the seller becomes insolvent within ten (10) days after receipt of the first installment on their price.

(2) The buyer's right to recover the goods under subsection (1)(a) of this section vests upon acquisition of a special property, even if the seller had not then repudiated or failed to deliver.

(3) If the identification creating his special property has been made by the buyer he acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale.

Section 162. KRS 355.2-716 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(2) The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just.

(3) The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort he is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered. In the case of goods bought for personal, family, or household purposes, the buyer's right of replevin vests upon acquisition of a special property, even if the seller had not then repudiated or failed to deliver.

Section 163. KRS 355.2A-103 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In this article unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods, buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(b) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the lease contract for default by the other party.

(c) "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of lease and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article, as a machine, or a set of articles, as a suite of furniture or a line of machinery, or a quantity, as a gross or carload, or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

(d) "Conforming" goods or performance under a lease contract means goods or performance that are in accordance with the obligations under the lease contract.

(e) "Consumer lease" means a lease that a lessor regularly engaged in the business of leasing or selling makes to a lessee who is an individual and who takes under the lease primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.

(f) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission, breach, or default.

(g) "Finance lease" means a lease with respect to which:

1. The lessor does not select, manufacture, or supply the goods;

2. The lessor acquires the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods in connection with the lease; and

3. One of the following occurs:

a. The lessee receives a copy of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods before signing the lease contract;

b. The lessee's approval of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods is a condition to effectiveness of the lease contract;

c. The lessee, before signing the lease contract, receives an accurate and complete statement designating the promises and warranties, and any disclaimers of warranties, limitations or modifications of remedies, or liquidated damages, including those of a third party, such as the manufacturer of the goods, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; or

d. If the lease is not a consumer lease, the lessor, before the lessee signs the lease contract, informs the lessee in writing (a) of the identity of the person supplying the goods to the lessor, unless the lessee has selected that person and directed the lessor to acquire the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods from that person, (b) that the lessee is entitled under this article to the promises and warranties, including those of any third party, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods, and (c) that the lessee may communicate with the person supplying the goods to the lessor and receive an accurate and complete statement of those promises and warranties, including any disclaimers and limitations of them or of remedies.

(h) "Goods" means all things that are movable at the time of identification to the lease contract, or are fixtures (KRS 355.2A-309), but the term does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like, including oil and gas, before extraction. The term also includes the unborn young of animals.

(i) "Installment lease contract" means a lease contract that authorizes or requires the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the lease contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate lease" or its equivalent.

(j) "Lease" means a transfer of the right to possession and use of goods for a term in return for consideration, but a sale, including a sale on approval or a sale or return, or retention or creation of a security interest is not a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease.

(k) "Lease agreement" means the bargain, with respect to the lease, of the lessor and the lessee in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this article. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease agreement.

(l) "Lease contract" means the total legal obligation that results from the lease agreement as affected by this article and any other applicable rules of law. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease contract.

(m) "Leasehold interest" means the interest of the lessor or the lessee under a lease contract.

(n) "Lessee" means a person who acquires the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessee.

(o) "Lessee in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the lease to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods leases in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling or leasing goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. "Leasing" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing lease contract but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(p) "Lessor" means a person who transfers the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessor.

(q) "Lessor's residual interest" means the lessor's interest in the goods after expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract.

(r) "Lien" means a charge against or interest in goods to secure payment of a debt or performance of an obligation, but the term does not include a security interest.

(s) "Lot" means a parcel or a single article that is the subject matter of a separate lease or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the lease contract.

(t) "Merchant lessee" means a lessee that is a merchant with respect to goods of the kind subject to the lease.

(u) "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one (1) or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate was not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction was entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

(v) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods.

(w) "Sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease.

(x) "Supplier" means a person from whom a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased under a finance lease.

(y) "Supply contract" means a contract under which a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased.

(z) "Termination" occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the lease contract otherwise than for default.

(4) In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this article.

Section 164. KRS 355.2A-303 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "creation of a security interest" includes the sale of a lease contract that is subject to Article 9, Secured Transactions, by reason of subsection (1)(c) of Section 29 of this Act[~~KRS 355.9-102(1)(b)~~].

(2) Except as provided in subsection[~~subsections~~] (3) of this section and Section 89 of this Act[~~(4)~~], a provision in a lease agreement which (i) prohibits the voluntary or involuntary transfer, including a transfer by sale, sublease, creation, or enforcement of a security interest, or attachment, levy, or other judicial process, of an interest of a party under the lease contract or of the lessor's residual interest in the goods, or (ii) makes such a transfer an event of default, gives rise to the rights and remedies provided in subsection (4) of this section[~~(5)~~], but a transfer that is prohibited or is an event of default under the lease agreement is otherwise effective.

(3)[~~A provision in a lease agreement which (i) prohibits the creation or enforcement of a security interest in an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods, or (ii) makes such a transfer an event of default, is not enforceable unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the provision or an actual delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the provision. Neither the granting nor the enforcement of a security~~

~~interest in (i) the lessor's interest under the lease contract or (ii) the lessor's residual interest in the goods is a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on, the lessee within the purview of subsection (5) unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual delegation of a material performance of the lessor.~~

~~(4)~~] A provision in a lease agreement which (i) prohibits a transfer of a right to damages for default with respect to the whole lease contract or of a right to payment arising out of the transferor's due performance of the transferor's entire obligation, or (ii) makes such a transfer an event of default, is not enforceable, and such a transfer is not a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on, the other party to the lease contract within the purview of subsection (5).

(4)[~~(5)~~]Subject to subsection[~~subsections~~] (3) of this section and Section 89 of this Act[~~(4)~~]:

(a) If a transfer is made which is made an event of default under a lease agreement, the party to the lease contract not making the transfer, unless that party waives the default or otherwise agrees, has the rights and remedies described in KRS 355.2A-501(2);

(b) If paragraph (a) is not applicable and if a transfer is made that (i) is prohibited under a lease agreement or (ii) materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on, the other party to the lease contract, unless the party not making the transfer agrees at any time to the transfer in the lease contract or otherwise, then, except as limited by contract, (i) the transferor is liable to the party not making the transfer for damages caused by the transfer to the extent that the damages could not reasonably be prevented by the party not making the transfer and (ii) a court having jurisdiction may grant other appropriate relief, including cancellation of the lease contract or an injunction against the transfer.

(5)[~~(6)~~]A transfer of "the lease" or of "all my rights under the lease", or a transfer in similar general terms, is a transfer of rights and, unless the language or the circumstances, as in a transfer for security, indicate the contrary, the transfer is a delegation of duties by the transferor to the transferee. Acceptance by the transferee constitutes a promise by the transferee to perform those duties. The promise is enforceable by either the transferor or the other party to the lease contract.

(6)[~~(7)~~]Unless otherwise agreed by the lessor and the lessee, a delegation of performance does not relieve the transferor as against the other party of any duty to perform or of any liability for default.

(7)[~~(8)~~]In a consumer lease, to prohibit the transfer of an interest of a party under the lease contract or to make a transfer an event of default, the language must be specific, by a writing, and conspicuous.

Section 165. KRS 355.2A-307 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in KRS 355.2A-306, a creditor of a lessee takes subject to the lease contract.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection[~~subsections~~] (3)[~~ and (4)~~] of this section and in KRS 355.2A-306 and 355.2A-308, a creditor of a lessor takes subject to the lease contract unless[~~:~~

~~(a)~~] the creditor holds a lien that attached to the goods before the lease contract became enforceable[~~;~~

~~(b) The creditor holds a security interest in the goods and the lessee did not give value and receive delivery of the goods without knowledge of the security interest; or~~

~~(c) The creditor holds a security interest in the goods which was perfected (KRS 355.9-303) before the lease contract became enforceable~~].

(3) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 57, 61, and 63 of this Act, a lessee takes a leasehold interest subject to a security interest held by a creditor of the lessor[~~A lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor even though the security interest is perfected (KRS 355.9-303) and the lessee knows of its existence.~~
